The first reference tool to focus on American women directors Shakespeare in the Theatre: Cheek by

Jowl Peter Kirwan, 2019-02-21 Cheek by Jowl founded by Declan Donnellan and Nick Ormerod in 1981 is one of the world's most critically acclaimed classical theatre companies. Across seventeen productions of Shakespeare as well as several by his contemporaries and other European dramatists, Cheek by Jowl's experiments with text, space, light and bodies have produced bold reinventions of canonical and lesser explored plays. Despite the pre-eminence of the company, its multiple awards and central place in the European repertory, this is the first substantive study of the company's body of work. This book situates Cheek by Jowl's work within the key institutions and traditions that have shaped the company's development from low budget beginnings at the Edinburgh Festival to international celebration while also focusing specifically on the company's use of Shakespeare to drive forward its practice. Drawing on the company's work in English, Russian and French, the book uses key productions as case studies to interrogate the company's unique style and build an argument for the distinctive insights offered by Cheek by Jowl's approach. The book draws on new interviews with creative and administrative company members from the full span of Cheek by Jowl's history as well as a full appraisal of the Cheek by Jowl archives offering the first scholarly overview of the company's work.

Russian Theatre in Practice Amy Skinner, 2019-04-18 Amidst the turmoil of political revolution, the stage directors of twentieth century Russia rewrote the rules of theatre, making. From realism to the avant garde, politics to postmodernism and revolution to repression, these practitioners shaped perceptions of theatre direction across the world. Strongly practical in its approach, Russian Theatre in Practice: The Director's Guide equips readers with an understanding of the varying approaches of each director as well as the opportunity to participate and explore their ideas in practice. The full range of the director's role is covered, including work on text, rehearsal technique, space and proxemics, audience theory and characterization.
