Psalms are songs They are powerful songs of prayer hymns for the worship of God Pilgrims sang the Psalms as they travelled to Jerusalem and it is their link with a journey that so appropriately connects the Psalms with the life and work of Salvatore Zofrea Zofrea is a pre eminent expressionist in the story of Australian art and an unquestionably dedicated one Thirty years ago he declared his intention to paint the one hundred and fifty Psalms The themes of the Psalms are identifiable in Zofrea s paintings however his interpretation goes beyond the literal and references a wide range of influences from Renaissance European art to the Australian bush Salvatore Zofrea the Psalms of Life an illustrated record with full colour plates of Zofrea s first 100 Psalm paintings with an essay on his work by Andrew Sayers Director and National Portrait Gallery of Australia is now available APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1993 Quadrant ,1982 Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney,2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels It puts the often trenchantly anti suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs suburban interiors homes streets forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong Artbibliographies Modern ,1999 The Hawkesbury River Paul Boon,2017-07-01 The Hawkesbury River is the longest coastal river in New South Wales A vital source of water and food it has a long Aboriginal history and was critical for the survival of the early British colony at Sydney The Hawkesbury s weathered shores cliffs and fertile plains have inspired generations of artists It is surrounded by an unparalleled mosaic of national parks including the second oldest national park in Australia Ku ring gai National Park Although it lies only 35 km north of Sydney to many today the Hawkesbury is a hidden river its historical and natural significance not understood or appreciated Until now the Hawkesbury has lacked an up to date and comprehensive book describing how and when the river formed how it functions ecologically how it has influenced humans and their patterns of settlement and in turn how it has been affected by those settlements and their people The Hawkesbury River A Social and Natural History fills this gap With chapters on the geography geology hydrology and ecology of the river through to discussion of its use by Aboriginal and European people and its role in transport defence and culture this highly readable and richly illustrated book paints a picture of a landscape worthy of protection and conservation It will be of value to those who live visit or work in the region those interested in Australian environmental history and professionals in biology natural resource management and education Australian Limited Edition Art Books Robert Holden,1984 Australian National Bibliography ,1984 Australian Book Review ,1992 Report of the Library Council of New South Wales Library Council of New South Wales,1989 Biography Index Bea Joseph,1986 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines The Art Sales Index ,1986 Joint Volumes of Papers Presented to the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly New South Wales.
