Fiftyone Pieces Of Wedding Cake A Biography Of Caroline Chisholm:

Fifty-one Pieces of Wedding Cake Mary Hoban,1973 Fifty-one Pieces of Wedding Cake Mary Hoban,1973

Philanthropy and Settler Colonialism A. O'Brien,2014-12-15 This book the first long range history of the voluntary sector in Australia and the first internationally to compare philanthropy for Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples in a settler society explores how the race and gender ideologies embedded in philanthropy contributed to the construction of Australia s welfare state Caroline Chisholm Mary Hoban,1984 Caroline Chisholm Margaret Kiddle,2016-10-18 The most astonishing thing about her is that she did such work at a time when women were still imprisoned in the strait jacket of Victorian convention Margaret Kiddle Caroline Chisholm was the most remarkable woman in early Australian colonial history Her national importance has been marked by the use of her portrait on Australian stamps and currency This is the classic biography of the woman whose remarkable and hard won achievements first asserted the place of women in Australian public life Almost single handedly and against strenuous and sometimes malicious opposition the indomitable Chisholm worked to establish a Female Immigrants Home to encourage family immigration and to fight for better conditions on immigrant ships Her biography has rightly been acclaimed as outstanding a landmark in the study of women in Australia s history The author was herself a pioneer among Australian women historians Caroline Chisholm Joanna Bogle,1993 Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport,2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women s struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world

Far Above Rubies Richard Symonds,1993 Women, Gender and Labour Migration Pamela Sharpe,2002-01-31 Approximately half of all migrants are today are female The contributors to this volume consider the ways in which attention to gender is moving debates away from old theories that have long dominated the field of migration studies Catalogue Maggs Bros,1892 Victorian Year Book ,1982 Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society,1975 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts One Continuous Picnic Symons, Michael,2016-10-17 2007 marks the twenty fifth anniversary of the first publication of One Continuous Picnic a frequently acclaimed Australian classic on the history of eating in Australia The text remains gratifyingly accurate and prescient and has helped to shape subsequent developments in food in Australia Until recently historians have tended to overlook eating and yet through meat pies and lamingtons Symons tells the history of Australia gastronomically He challenges myths such as that Australia is too young for a national cuisine and that immigration caused the restaurant boom Symons shows us that Australia is unique because its citizens have not developed a true contact with the land have not had a peasant society Australians have enjoyed plenty to eat but food had to be portable witness the weekly rations of mutton flour tea and sugar that made early settlers a mobile army clearing a whole continent and the tins of jam condensed milk camp pie and bottles of tomato sauce and beer that turned its citizens into early suburbanites By the time of screw top riesling takeaway chicken and frozen puff pastry Australians were hypnotised consumers on one continuous picnic But good food has never come from factory farms process lines supermarkets and fast food chains Only when we enjoy a diet of fresh local produce treated with proper respect when we learn from peasants might we at last have found a national cuisine and cultivated a continent

Freedom Bound 1 Patricia Grimshaw, 2023-04-14 Over generations Australian women have envisaged a world of freedom This new collection of documents letters diary extracts poems public speeches charts the visions that inspired women and the obstacles that confronted them Dealing with a period from colonisation to early Federation in 1901 Freedom Bound I shows how intertwined were women's public and personal lives and how bound by custom ties affection and duties The different meanings of freedom have been shaped by the nature of women's oppression their quests given focus by their different points of departure Convict women protested often violently at the indignities they endured Aboriginal women protested at the cruelty of the frontier and the paternalism of the mission and white middle class women demanded the freedom to participate in the public world Together with its companion volume Freedom Bound II which deals with the twentieth century this volume documents the dreams that inspired women the pleasures and pain that informed their politics and the desires that enthralled them even as they bade them to be free It is an essential resource for students and teachers of Australian women's history

Unfeigned Love Rod Stinson, 2008 Unfeigned Love Historical Accounts of Caroline Chisholm and Her Work is a very useful collection of source materials almost all of which have long been out of print or otherwise unavailable It includes Caroline Chisholm's most interesting book Female Immigration Considered which deals with the stated topic and the operation of the female immigrants home in Sydney in 1841-42 correspondence showing the initial misgivings of colonial clergy to the home's establishment the Rev John Dunmore Lang's sectarian attack on Caroline Chisholm in 1846 and her superb response the main memoirs from the early 1850s relating her life and work to that time interlaced with many anecdotes about bush life and colonial personalities and articles published between 1909 and 1916 that cover similar ground and promote her saintly that is challenging worthy and spiritual qualities To assist today's readers the book also has sub headings and an index for Female Immigration Considered in addition to informative introductory chapters and notes specially written for the various historical accounts Women, Social Science and Public Policy Jacqueline Goodnow, Carole Pateman, 2024-11-20 Originally published in 1985 Women Social Science and Public Policy looks at what difference the debate over the position of women had made to the way social scientists worked and thought or to law and social policies at the time Debate had been widespread during the 1960s and 1970s and this book takes stock It avoids the standard statistics on the position of women and concentrates instead on the challenges contained in this long debate to the way research topics and method are selected challenges in effect to the assumption of business as usual with the addition of a few details on women Sponsored by the Academy of Social Sciences in Australia this book is deliberately multi disciplinary Chapters are written by leading scholars in anthropology economics history law politics psychology sociology and government These authors share both a theoretical and practical knowledge of ideas and policies They share also a concern with analysing basic assumptions and to set Australian research and debate in an international context This thoughtful book will be of interest to all who wish to understand the theoretical and the policy issues underpinning much of the feminist debate and the way in which it affects their own thinking about issues of social science social policy and social structure

The Kingdom of the Ryans Malcolm Campbell, 1997 This work is an important contribution to the new historiography on Irish emigration which has changed our understanding of the Irish emigrant experience adding another dimension to the Irish diaspora following the devastating series of famines in Ireland Riverview Errol Lea-Scarlett, 1989 A Bibliography of Australian Women's History Susan Magarey, Lyndall Ryan, 1990 Australian Books ,1976
