M. Bernstein,2015-09-14 In this unflinching look at the experience of suffering and one of its greatest manifestations torture J M Bernstein critiques the repressions of traditional moral theory showing that our morals are not immutable ideals but fragile constructions that depend on our experience of suffering itself Morals Bernstein argues not only guide our conduct but also express the depth of mutual dependence that we share as vulnerable and injurable individuals Beginning with the attempts to abolish torture in the eighteenth century and then sensitively examining what is suffered in torture and related transgressions such as rape Bernstein elaborates a powerful new conception of moral injury Crucially he shows moral injury always involves an injury to the status of an individual as a person it is a violent assault against his or her dignity Elaborating on this critical element of moral injury he demonstrates that the mutual recognitions of trust form the invisible substance of our moral lives that dignity is a fragile social possession and that the perspective of ourselves as potential victims is an ineliminable feature of everyday moral experience meaning and how they are related to our needs and wants This is followed by a unique phenomenological exploration of the emotions guiding such contacts the first time the world of human feelings has been explored in depth and systematically analysed in Gestalt thought These innovative explorations are framed first by a discussion of the historical development of Western conventions regarding everyday behaviour and secondly by an examination of perspectives on climate change Dreitzel analyses the mental and emotional states of potential clients as they are affected by these global processes and the book also includes an epilogue which evaluates how to work with climate anxiety Dreitzel s conception of social change with Gestalt therapy at its core is relevant to all aspects of humanistic psychology It elevates empathy emotional development and the prevention of suffering at all levels of society filling important gaps in Gestalt therapy theory and expanding it into exciting new territory Human Interaction and Emotional Awareness in Gestalt Therapy also contains an insightful foreword by Michael Vincent Miller PhD and will be essential reading for Gestalt therapists other professionals with an interest in Gestalt approaches and readers interested in social interaction climate change and the role of psychotherapy in a changing world

The Possible Life John White Chadwick,1897      Journal Michigan State Medical Society,1910      Forget Them Not Joanne M. Hemenway,2010-07-09 To witness effectively and powerfully to Christian testimonies of care and compassion of justice and mercy of healing and wholeness it is necessary to foster awareness of the realities of the present system of retributive justice if there is to be any hope of transformation to a system of justice which is restorative Forget Them Not provides a history of the prison system as a means of punishment contrasting it with the relatively recent but growing practice of restorative justice Joanne Hemenway explores the concept of disconnection as radical evil as a separation from God who is the source of our being and shows how our present approach to punishment fosters this evil The present system with its motif of retributive justice generates shame rejection and loneliness which stokes the fires of anger and rage This breeds deep disconnection which only serves to fuel further cycles of violence Hemenway presents three vignettes designed to help explore forgiveness in the context of both retributive and restorative justice To promote healing and connection Forget Them Not introduces compassionate witnessing in prison ministry as a way to develop awareness and empowerment

American Magazine ,1929      American Illustrated Magazine ,1929      The Power of Acceptance Annemarie Postma,2009-10-27 The Wheelchair Supermodel is back with an Inspirational Book on the Power of Acceptance What if starting today you stopped thinking in terms of lack and imperfection What if you stopped trying to change reality with the power of our thoughts and intention What if you no longer thought that everything needs to be fixed healed or improved In her new book The Power of Acceptance Postma author of The Deeper Secret and The Secret Within explores the mental and emotional blocks that keep us from true joy She writes Rarely has anything in my life gone the way I had hoped expected or thought There have been some heavy blows However in hindsight I can see that everything turned out just as it should have Calling upon many wisdom traditions and her own hard won insights Postma traces a gentle path that will lead to the renewal of your mind and spirit She writes To embrace reality is an act of total renewal When we dare to see things as they truly are it immediately brings us a feeling of liberation strength and healing Therefore it is no coincidence that Buddhists describe experiencing God as being completely present in reality To surrender means to let go of the control you think you have in your life It means releasing your preconceived thoughts and notions about how you think your life should be It is all about no longer forcing your personal will on reality In fact to surrender is a celebration of real freedom Postma knows whereof she speaks As a precocious 11 year old with her whole life in front of her she was struck with a sudden illness that left her wheelchair bound for the rest of her life Doctors now believe that she was bit by a virulent tick Instead of wallowing in misery however Postma took it as a wake up call From the beginning she says nothing needed to be made bearable for me I knew and felt from the start This is OK Since then she has dedicated her life to overcoming obstacles and helping others do the same She studied law and became the first professional model in Europe with a disability She has been a goodwill ambassador of the Netherlands Foundation for Handicapped Children and speaks frequently across northern Europe on issues of self esteem and self respect Postma is also known for her gentle critique of the hit book The Secret In her two previous titles she urged readers to trust the workings of the Universe rather than try to change them or to manifest a different reality In her latest book she continues the theme and engages in conversations with some of the best known spirituality writers about it With Gregg Braden she has a dialog on life with Lynn McTaggart she discusses the idea that life is not a fight that needs to be won and with Dr Eric Pearl she converses about reconnecting with the cosmic frequencies Writes Postma Spirituality is nothing more than giving up your resistance to what is Living spiritually is daring to see what is in front of you and daring to experience your life as it is right now And experience means conquering our greatest human fear living as a complete human being
