Festschrift Herbert A Cahn:

The Caves of Qumran Marcello Fidanzio, 2016-11-01 In Qumran studies the attention of scholars has largely been focused on the Dead Sea Scrolls while archaeology has concentrated above all on the settlement This volume presents the proceedings of an international conference Lugano 2014 dedicated entirely to the caves of Qumran The papers deal with both archaeological and textual issues comparing the caves in the vicinity of Qumran between themselves and their contents with the other finds in the Dead Sea region The relationships between the caves and the settlement of Qumran are re examined and their connections with the regional context are investigated The original inventory of the materials excavated from the caves by Roland de Vaux is published for the first time in appendix to the volume German Yearbook on Business History 1986 Beate Brüninghaus, Hans Pohl, Monika Pohle, Bernd Rudolph, Manfred Pohl, 2012-12-06 The German Yearbook on Business History is a source of insights into the entrepreneurial economy of the 19th and 20th centuries It contains translations of topical journal articles and informative reviews of results and trends in business history research As in the previous Yearbooks the authors of this volume are experts in economic theory and practice whose contributions cover a wide spectrum Jerusalem Under Siege Jonathan J. Price, 2024-01-15 This internal history of the Jewish rebellion traces factionalism among the Jews from the decades before the war's outbreak through the constantly shifting and dangerous alliances that reigned in Jerusalem from 66 to 70 C E rivalries and divisions are revealed even in the structure of the Jewish army and in the patterns of famine and desertion during the siege Classical rabbinic archaeological and numismatic evidence are brought to bear on a new interpretation of Josephus Bellum Judaicum Sol: Image and Meaning of the Sun in Roman Art and Religion, Volume II Steven E. Hijmans, 2024-04-02 With this analysis of Sol images Steven E Hijmans paints a new picture of the solar cult in ancient Rome The paucity of literary evidence led Hijmans to prioritize visual sources and he opens this study with a thorough discussion of the theoretical and methodological issues involved Emphasizing the danger of facile equivalencies between visual and verbal meanings his primary focus is Roman praxis manifest in for instance the strict patterning of Sol imagery These patterns encode core concepts that Sol imagery evoked when deployed and in those concepts we recognize the bedrock of Rome's understandings of the sun and his cult Case studies illustrate these concepts in action and the final chapter analyzes the historical context in which previous now discredited views on Sol could arise This is volume II of a two volume set The Art and Culture of Early Greece, 1100-480 B.C. Jeffrey M. Hurwit, 1985 This handsomely illustrated book offers a broad synthesis of Archaic Greek culture Unlike other books dealing with the art and architecture of the Archaic period it places these subjects in their historical social literary and intellectual contexts Origins and originality constitute a central theme for during this period representational and narrative art monumental sculpture and architecture epic lyric and dramatic poetry the city state polis tyranny and early democracy and natural philosophy were all born The Houses of Roman Italy, 100 B.C.- A.D. 250 John R. Clarke, 1991 Extensively documented with well chosen good quality photographs Clarke's book effectively surveys these representative examples from the Late Republic to the Late Empire illustrating the shift in the agendas of decoration as well as in the patterns of the lives played out behind closed doors within these highly charged domestic interiors Richard Brilliant author of Visual Narratives: Storytelling in Etruscan Roman Art An enlightening and engaging walk through Roman cultural history This book will be essential to anyone interested in the classical past in artistic ensembles or in the experience of architecture Diane Favro University of California Los Angeles Real experts in Roman painting are few This book should be very welcome to Roman art historians and social historians wanting to present this material to their students Eleanor Winsor Leach author of The Rhetoric of Space The Eye of Greece

Donna Kurtz, 1982-09-16 An exploration of the subjects and problems in the art of Archaic and Classical Athens The End of Paganism in the North-western Provinces of the Roman Empire Eberhard Sauer, 1996 The decline of Mithraism in the fourth century AD is used as a case study for understanding the end of other classes of paganism in the Roman western provinces The author reviews epigraphic and numismatic evidence to date the final uses of Mithraea He then discusses examples of wilful damage to Mithraic monuments Drawing all this archaeological evidence into a historical framework Sauer argues that rather than losing its social function as the Roman army became splintered Mithraism was a healthy religion with active shrines until the very late fourth century Rather than fading away its desecrated monuments indicate that the religion was the victim of a sustained Christian attack which was also directed at other established faiths in the western provinces Euripides and the Language of Craft Mary C. Stieber, 2011 This first in depth account of Euripides relationship with the visual arts demonstrates how frequently the tragedian used language to visual effect whether through allusion or actual references to objects motifs built around real or imaginary objects or the use of technical terminology

Warriors Into Traders David W. Tandy, 2000-11-27 A look at the shift in the economic model of ancient Greece at the brink between what we consider to be the dark ages and the golden age The newly emerged economic elite of this period introduced or reemphasized a variety of tools of exclusion Numismatic Literature, 1989 Festschrift Herbert A. Cahn zum 70. Geburtstag Beatrice Schärli, 1985 Lorenzo Ghiberti's Gates of Paradise Amy R. Bloch, 2016-02-09 This book examines the heretofore unsuspected complexity of Lorenzo Ghiberti's sculpted representations of Old Testament narratives in his Gates of Paradise 1425-52 the second set of doors he made for the Florence Baptistery and a masterpiece of Italian Renaissance sculpture One of the most intellectually engaged and well read artists of his age Ghiberti found inspiration in ancient and medieval texts many of which he and his contacts in Florence's humanist community shared read and discussed He was fascinated by the science of vision by the functioning of nature and above all by the origins and history of art These unusually well defined intellectual interests reflected in his famous Commentaries shaped his approach in the Gates Through the selection imaginative interpretation and arrangement of biblical episodes Ghiberti fashioned multi textured narratives that explore the human condition and express his ideas on a range of social political artistic and philosophical issues The End of the Pagan City Anna Leone,2013-06-27 This book focuses primarily on the end of the pagan religious tradition and the dismantling of its material form in North Africa modern Algeria Tunisia and Libya from the 4th to the 6th centuries AD Leone considers how urban communities changed why some traditions were lost and some others continued and whether these carried the same value and meaning upon doing so Addressing two main issues mainly from an archaeological perspective the volume explores the change in religious habits and practices and the consequent recycling and reuse of pagan monuments and materials and investigates to what extent these physical processes were driven by religious motivations and contrasts or were merely stimulated by economic issues Iron Age Coinage and Ritual
