Fetish visions Reed 013,2001 Grotesque Visions Thomas O. Haakenson,2021-05-06 Grotesque Visions focuses on the radical avant garde interventions of Salomo Friedl nder aka Mynona Til Brugman and Hannah H ch as they challenged the questionable practices and evidentiary claims of late 19th and early 20th century science Demonstrating the often excessive measures that pathologists anthropologists sexologists and medical professionals went to present their research in a seemingly unambiguous way this volume shows how Friedl nder Mynona Brugman H ch and other Berlin based artists used the artistic grotesque to criticize satirize and subvert a variety of forms of supposed scientific objectivity The volume concludes by examining the exhibition Grotesk 130 Jahre Kunst der Frechheit Comic Grotesque Wit and Mockery in German Arts 1870 1940 In contrast to the ahistorical and amorphous concept informing the exhibition Thomas O Haakenson reveals a unique deployment of the artistic grotesque that targeted specific established and emerging scientific discourses at the turn of the last fin de si cle Empowering Visions Christiane Brosius,2005 An examination of the politics of representation in Hindu nationalism The Fetish Massimo Fusillo,2017-09-21 Object fetishism is becoming a more and more pervasive phenomenon Focusing on literature and the visual arts including cinema this book suggests a parallelism between fetishism and artistic creativity based on a poetics of detail which has been brilliantly exemplified by Flaubert s style After exploring canonical accounts of fetishism Marx Freud Benjamin by combining a historicist approach with theoretical speculation Massimo Fusillo identifies a few interpretive patterns of object fetishism such as seduction from Apollonius of Rhodes to Max Oph ls memory activation from Goethe to Louise Bourgeois and Pamuk and the topos of the animation of the inanimate Whereas all these patterns are characterized by a projection of emotional values onto objects modernism highlights a more latent component of object fetishism the fascination with the alterity of matter variously inflected by Proust Woolf Joyce Barnes and Mann The last turning point in Fusillo s analysis is postmodernism and its obsession with mass media icons from DeLillo s maximalist frescos and Zadie Smith s reflections on autographs to Palahniuk s porn objects from pop art to commodity sculpture Gothic (Re)Visions Susan Wolstenholme,1993-01-01 Gothic fiction usually has been perceived as the special province of women an attraction often attributed to a thematics of woman identified issues such as female sexuality marriage and childbirth But why these issues What is specifically female about Gothic This book argues that Gothic modes provide women who write with special means to negotiate their way through their double status as women and as writers and to subvert the power relationships that hinder women writers Current theories of gendered observation complicate the idea that Gothic marked fiction relies on composed individual scenes and visual metaphors for its effect The texts studied here by Ann Radcliffe Mary Shelley Charlotte Bront Harriet Beecher Stowe George Eliot and Edith Wharton explode the authority of a unitary centralized narrative gaze and establish instead a diffuse multi angled textual position for woman Gothic moments in these novels create a textualized space for the voice of a woman writer as well as inviting the response of a woman reader Programmed Visions Wendy Hui Kyong Chun, 2013-01-11 A theoretical examination of the surprising emergence of software as a guiding metaphor for our neoliberal world New media thrives on cycles of obsolescence and renewal from celebrations of cyber everything to Y2K from the dot com bust to the next big things mobile mobs Web 3.0 cloud computing In Programmed Visions Wendy Hui Kyong Chun argues that these cycles result in part from the ways in which new media encapsulates a logic of programmability New media proliferates programmed visions which seek to shape and predict even embody a future based on past data These programmed visions have also made computers based on metaphor metaphors for metaphor itself for a general logic of substitutability Chun argues that the clarity offered by software as metaphor should make us pause because software also engenders a profound sense of ignorance who knows what lurks behind our smiling interfaces behind the objects we click and manipulate The combination of what can be seen and not seen known knowable and not known its separation of interface from algorithm and software from hardware makes it a powerful metaphor for everything we believe is invisible yet generates visible logical effects from genetics to the invisible hand of the market from ideology to culture Visions of the Courtly Body Christiane Hille, 2013-01-09 In 1603 the beginning of the Stuart reign painting was of minor importance at the English court where the elaborately designed masques of Inigo Jones served as the prime medium of royal representation Only two decades later their most celebrated performer George Villiers the First Duke of Buckingham had assembled one of the largest and most significant collections of painting in early seventeenth century Europe His career as the personal and political favourite of two succeeding monarchs James I and Charles I coincides with the commission of a number of highly ambitious portraits from the hands of Peter Paul Rubens and Anthony van Dyck that displayed his body in spectacular manner As the first comprehensive study of Buckingham's patronage of the visual arts this book is concerned with the question of how the painted image of the courtier transferred strategies of social distinction that had originated in the masque to the language of painting Establishing a new grammar in the competing rhetorics of bodily self-fashioning this recast notion of portraiture contributed to an epistemological change in perceptions of visual representation at the early modern English court in the course of which painting advanced to the central art form in the aesthetics of kingship Empires of Vision Martin Jay, Sumathi Ramaswamy, 2014-03-14 Empires of Vision brings together pieces by some of the most influential scholars working at the intersection of visual culture studies and the history of European imperialism The essays and excerpts focus on the paintings maps geographical surveys postcards photographs and other media that comprise the visual milieu of colonization struggles for decolonization and the lingering effects of empire Taken together they demonstrate that an appreciation of the role of visual experience is necessary for understanding the functioning of hegemonic imperial power and the ways that the colonized subjects spoke and looked back at their imperial rulers Empires of Vision also makes a vital point about the complexity of image culture in the modern world We must comprehend how regimes of visibility emerged globally not only in the metropole but also in relation to the putative margins of a world that increasingly came to question the very distinction between center and periphery photorealism and reality TV A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof,1991 Lesbianism in literature has been dealt with rather indirectly in the past Editors have led readers to the artistry of a work containing lesbianism emphasizing instead the literary history and historical context of the work rather than the representations of lesbianism The editor for Colette s The Pure and the Impure for instance affirms that Colette has a knowledge of a strange sisterhood but assures readers she has never strayed from the normal In the groundbreaking A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof demonstrates that representations of lesbian sexuality occupy specific locations or positions in the arguments subject matter and rhetoric of Western European and American literary criticism She examines the political context of representations how lesbian sexuality is used as a signifier and why it appears when and where it does Roof argues that attempts to depict or explain lesbian sexuality spur anxieties about knowledge and identity In reaction to and denial of these anxieties lesbian sexuality is represented in film literature theory and criticism as foreplay as simulated heterosexuality as erotic excess as joking inauthenticity as artful compromise or as masculine mask in a specific repertoire of neutralization and evasion Challenging the heterosexism of film theory and feminist theory this book analyzes the rhetorical use of lesbian sexuality Roof explores a range of discourses from the works of such authors as Anais Nin Olga Broumas Julia Kristeva Jane Rule Luce Irigaray and Sigmund Freud to films such as Emmanuelle Desert Hearts Entre Nous and I ve Heard the Mermaids Singing to professional tennis Dancing

Lorand Matory,2018-10-04 Since the early modern encounter between African and European merchants on the Guinea Coast European social critics have invoked African gods as metaphors for misplaced value and agency using the term fetishism chiefly to assert the irrationality of their fellow Europeans Yet as J Lorand Matory demonstrates in The Fetish Revisited Afro Atlantic gods have a materially embodied social logic of their own which is no less rational than the social theories of Marx and Freud Drawing on thirty six years of fieldwork in Africa Europe and the Americas Matory casts an Afro Atlantic eye on European theory to show how Marx s and Freud s conceptions of the fetish both illuminate and misrepresent Africa s human made gods Through this analysis the priests practices and spirited things of four major Afro Atlantic religions simultaneously call attention to the culture specific materially conditioned physically embodied and indeed fetishistic nature of Marx s and Freud s theories themselves Challenging long held assumptions about the nature of gods and theories Matory offers a novel constructive and engaging agenda the handbook invites readers to collaborate with rather than resist automation agendas It does so by pushing the agenda for social science humanities and design beyond merely assessing and evaluating existing technologies Instead the handbook demonstrates how the humanities and social sciences are essential to the design and governance of sustainable sociotechnical systems Methodologically the handbook is underpinned by a pedagogical approach to staging co learning and co creation of automated futures with rather than simply for people In this way the handbook encourages readers to explore new and alternative modes of research fostering a deeper engagement with the evolving landscape of automation
