for Dharma Discourse      The Life of the Buddha Bhikkhu Ñanamoli, 2013-05-09 Composed entirely of texts from the Pali canon this unique biography presents the oldest authentic record of the Buddha's life and revolutionary philosophy The ancient texts are rendered here in a language marked by lucidity and dignity and a framework of narrators and voices connect the canonical texts Vivid recollections of his personal attendant Ananda and other disciples bring the reader into the Buddha's presence where his example offers profound inspiration and guidance on the path to freedom      Mindfulness in Early Buddhism Tse-fu Kuan, 2007-12-18 This book identifies what is meant by sati smṛti usually translated as mindfulness in early Buddhism and examines its soteriological functions and its central role in the early Buddhist practice and philosophy Using textual analysis and criticism it takes new approaches to the subject through a comparative study of Buddhist texts in Pali Chinese and Sanskrit It also furnishes new perspectives on the ancient teaching by applying the findings in modern psychology In contemporary Buddhism the practice of mindfulness is zealously advocated by the Theravada tradition which is the only early Buddhist school that still exists today Through detailed analysis of Theravada's Pali Canon and the four Chinese Agamas which correspond to the four main Nikayas in Pali and belong to some early schools that no longer exist this book shows that mindfulness is not only limited to the role as a method of insight vipassana meditation as presented by many Theravada advocates but it also has a key role in serenity samatha meditation It elucidates how mindfulness functions in the path to liberation from a psychological perspective that is how it helps to achieve an optimal cognitive capability and emotional state and thereby enables one to attain the ultimate religious goal Furthermore the author argues that the well known formula of ekaayano maggo which is often interpreted as the only way implies that the four satipa t thaanas establishments of mindfulness constitute a comprehensive path to liberation and refer to the same as kaayagataa sati which has long been understood as mindfulness of the body by the tradition The analysis shows that kaayagataa sati and the four satipa t thaanas are two different ways of formulating the teaching on mindfulness according to different schemes of classification of phenomena
