ROHINTON MISTRY'S FICTION: A SOCIO-CULTURAL STUDY

Dr. Umar Farooque, 2019-10-10 Rohinton Mistry is an important Indian English fiction writer. He is a Parsi writer of Indian Diaspora in Canada. There are two factors which entitle him to be called Indian writer in English and his works to be studied as Indian literature in English despite the fact that he migrated to Canada in 1975 much before the publication of his first book a short story collection Tales from Firozsha Baag in 1987. The fact that Mistry being born brought up and educated in India his novels and most of his short stories are thoroughly Indian in theme and language are these factors which make him an Indian writer in English.

Multiculturalism

and Identity Politics Kalika Shah, 2019-12-20 This book aims at analysing the fiction produced by the expatriate Parsee writers of the Indian subcontinent Bapsi Sidhwani, Rohinton Mistry and Boman Desai. These Parsee writers of the South Asian origin have emigrated to Canada and USA in the latter part of the twentieth century. Their works offer several possibilities seen from the multicultural point of view. The fiction of these Parsee diasporic writers examines the problem of migration, relocation and changing identities from a vantage point of distance gained by an insider's view of their community and an outsider's view from the host country. Dislocations even when voluntary always have a traumatic side to it due to the process of acculturation, assimilation into or differences with the host country and the issue of rights and privileges in the new location. For the diasporic communities of different backgrounds their memory history and cultural beliefs are the important factors that determine their identities. These Parsee novels demonstrate how individual and group collective identities of the Parsees get constructed and reconstructed redefined against the changing multinational contexts
