Milne,Susan Shingles,Rodney Jones,2003-04 Fungi of Australia Volume 2B Catalogue and Bibliography of Australian Fungi 2 is an essential reference for taxonomists working on Australian fungi and anyone who wishes to use up to date names of Australian fungi Together with its companion volume Fungi of Australia Volume 2A it lists all the names applied to Australian macrofungi and provides the up to date accepted name for each species along with a comprehensive listing of relevant literature Volume 2B covers larger fungi in the Basidiomycota along with the larger Myxomycota Groups dealt with in this volume include bracket fungi slime moulds puffballs earthballs earthstars stinkhorns birds nest fungi coral fungi jelly fungi polypores and stereoid corticioid and thelephoroid fungi This important work includes entries for more than 1 700 accepted names For each name the catalogue lists place and date of publication taxonomic synonyms cross references to misidentifications and a comprehensive list of all works in which the name has been used in an Australian context The extensive bibliography contains over 1 800 entries and includes not only taxonomic publications relevant to species described from Australia but also publications on fungi in relation to forestry agriculture ecology medicine chemistry and general biology Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food Joshua Zeunert,Tim Waterman,2018-02-02 Since the turn of the millennium there has been a burgeoning interest in and literature of both landscape studies and food studies Landscape describes places as relationships and processes Landscapes create people's identities and guide their actions and their preferences while at the same time are shaped by the actions and forces of people Food as currency medium and sustenance is a fundamental part of those landscape relationships This volume brings together over fifty contributors from around the world in forty profoundly interdisciplinary chapters Chapter authors represent an astonishing range of disciplines from agronomy anthropology archaeology conservation countryside management cultural studies ecology ethics geography heritage studies landscape architecture landscape management and planning literature urban design and architecture Both food studies and landscape studies defy comprehension from the perspective of a single discipline and thus such a range is both necessary and enriching The Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food is intended as a first port of call for scholars and researchers seeking to undertake new work at the many intersections of landscape and food Each chapter provides an authoritative overview a broad range of pertinent readings and references and seeks to identify areas where new research is needed though these may also be identified in the many fertile areas in which subjects and chapters overlap within the book

Discovering Australian Flora Fanny Karouta-Manasse, 2017-05 Australia's complex beautiful and diverse flora is showcased in stunning botanic gardens across the continent Through exquisite colour photographs taken at the Australian National Botanic Gardens ANBG Fanny Karouta Manasse celebrates the minute and intriguing details of these plants Discovering Australian Flora explains how plants are displayed in the ANBG according to themes and provides clear and simple geographical historical and botanical information It also describes the unique features of Australian flora including their reliance on fire and ability to survive in poor soil and looks in detail at the two dominant genera in the Australian landscape Eucalyptus and Acacia This fresh and intimate view of some of Australia's native flora will serve not only as a companion to visitors to the ANBG but will also allow others to explore the wonders of Australia's botanical treasures This book will appeal to both local and overseas readers wishing to become more familiar with Australian native flora The striking photographs will appeal to anyone with an appreciation and passion for nature's beauty Encyclopaedia of Australian Plants Suitable for Cultivation Winston Rodger Elliot, David Lloyd Jones, 1980 This publication caters for the professional horticulturist and amateur gardening enthusiast and is written in an easy to understand style Scientific terms where used have been explained or included in the comprehensive glossary The text is complemented by many delicately executed line drawings by Trevor Blake and a wonderful selection of colour photographs This is the fourth of a multi volume set in which the authors have drawn on their extensive experience of years devoted to the culture of Australian plants Volume Four treats the following genera in great detail EUCALYPTUS with the most comprehensive cultivation details available FICUS FLINDERSIA GASTROLOBIMUM GOMPHOLOBIUM GOODENIA and GOSSYPIUM Seed Dispersal Andrew J. Dennis, R.J. Green, E.W. Schupp, 2007 Fresh concepts in the study of seed dispersal are spurring a host of exciting new questions new answers to old questions new methods and approaches and a reinvigoration of the field Seed Dispersal Theory and its Application in a Changing World presents both recent advances and reviews of current knowledge demonstrating the vigour and vibrancy of the field. It provides new perspectives and directions at a time when efforts to meet growing environmental challenges threatening natural systems are of utmost importance. On the Ecology of Australia's Arid Zone Hans Lambers, 2018-08-21. This book will appeal to an international audience as well as be irresistible to local readers. Anyone working or with an interest in Australia's arid zone should need ready access to this book. There is no equivalent publication out there at the moment and this book has many authoritative chapters richly illustrated with colourful material. The challenge of this book was to assemble current knowledge on particular topics and concepts and principles relating to them. It is also forward looking by identifying where there are gaps or inadequacies in knowledge and where future research needs to be directed. Lead authors were encouraged to take such an approach; they had the opportunity to involve any author they considered appropriate. The final product should be a fabulous resource also for university courses especially at MSc level.
