Field Notes Stories:

The Elements of Story Francis Flaherty, 2009-06-23 In the spirit of The Elements of Style this nonfiction writing guide by a New York Times editor presents 50 secrets of successful narratives Teacher's Stories, Teacher's Lives Carola Conle, 2006 In this book we demonstrate a mode of teacher education that is practical in a non technical sense and relies on Dewey's notion of curriculum as the reconstruction of experience We present a curriculum that emerged through collaborative self reflection and seeks to reconstruct personal histories of schooling As four former preservice teachers and their instructor we engaged in jointly constructed autobiographical inquiry in order to generate data on our own past and on our current histories of teaching and learning We wanted to illuminate parts of our lives in schools that until now belonged to our normal and taken for granted past We did this in order to enjoy certain degrees of awareness and choice as to which of our living stories to reinforce and which to let run out in our classrooms today Field Notes and Other Stories Mike Lunsford, 2017-10-15 A collection of essays many of which that deal with the natural world and the writer's interaction with it

Jean Clandinin, Janice Huber, Marilyn Huber, M. Shaun Murphy, Anne Murray Orr, Marni Pearce, Pam Steeves, 2006-04-18 In a climate of increasing emphasis on testing measurable outcomes competition and efficiency the real lives of children and their teachers are often neglected or are too messy and intricate to legislate and quantify As such curricula are designed without including the very people that compose the identities of schools Here Clandinin takes issue with this tendency bringing together a collection of narratives from seven writers who spent a year in an urban school exploring the experiences and contributions of children families teachers and administrators These stories show us an alternative way of attending to what counts in schools shifting away from the school as a business model towards an idea of schools as places to engage citizenship and to attend to the wholeness of people's lives Articulating the complex ethical dilemmas and issues that face people and schools every day this fascinating study puts school life under the microscope raises new questions about who and what education is for The Ladies, the Gwich'in, and the Rat Clara Vyvyan, 2015-01-02 In 1926 two British women came from Cornwall to Edmonton and travelled through northern Alberta the Northwest Territories and the Yukon by rail sternwheeler and canoe For the women it was a liberating experience yet Vyvyan's narrative supported by MacLaren and LaFramboise's insightful editorial work reveals the imperialist attitudes underlying their travels
