Field Of Life Death Tales Of Hulan River:

The Field of Life and Death & Tales of Hulan River Hong Xiao, 2002 Xiao Hong is considered by many to be China's first feminist novelist Field of Life & Death/Tales of Hulan River, 2nd Edition Xiao Hong, 2023-12 The Field of Life and Death and Tales of Hulan River 1979 The Field of Life and Death and Tales of Hulan River Hong Xiao, 1998

Manchukuo Perspectives Annika A. Culver, Norman Smith, 2019-12-09 This groundbreaking volume critically examines how writers in Japanese occupied northeast China negotiated political and artistic freedom while engaging their craft amidst an increasing atmosphere of violent conflict and foreign control. The allegedly multiethnic utopian new state of Manchukuo, 1932-1945, created by supporters of imperial Japan, was intended to corral the creative energies of Chinese, Japanese, Koreans, Russians, and Mongols. Yet the twin poles of utopian promise and resistance to a contested state pulled these intellectuals into competing loyalties, selective engagement, or even exile and death, surpassing neat paradigms of collaboration or resistance. In a semicolony wrapped in the utopian vision of racial inclusion, their literary works articulating national ideals and even the norms of everyday life subtly reflected the complexities and contradictions of the era. Scholars from China, Korea, Japan, and North America investigate cultural production under imperial Japan's occupation of Manchukuo. They reveal how literature and literary production more generally can serve as a penetrating lens into forgotten histories and the lives of ordinary people confronted with difficult political exigencies. Highlights of the text include transnational perspectives by leading researchers in the field and a memoir by one of Manchukuo's last living writers. This first-rate collection offers the most comprehensive overview of Manchukuo literature in any language. Containing an abundance of very original research and analysis with relevant references to diverse sources in Chinese, English, Japanese, Korean, and Russian, the essays will be welcomed by scholars dealing with literary, historical, political, and colonization issues in Manchukuo and its neighbors. Ronald Suleski, Suffolk University, Boston. Manchukuo Perspectives is an excellent contribution to the field. Manchukuo was a fascinating and fraught experiment. Colonialism, imperialism, modernism, and nationalism were just some of the many different forces at play there. With an impressive set of contributors bringing both breadth and depth to the study of these issues, this collection fills a void in our understanding of the cultural and literary production of Manchukuo. wonderfully, James Carter, Saint Joseph's University. Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai, 2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth-century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism. Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty: peasants suffering from famine, exploited urban laborers, homeless orphans, to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness. The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique. Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative, innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreiev Chekhov Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai s multi scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans Eurasian axis of world literature Fragmenting Modernisms Carolyn FitzGerald,2013-07-07 In Fragmenting Modernisms Carolyn FitzGerald traces the evolution of Chinese modernism during the War of Resistance against Japan 1937 45 and Chinese Civil War 1945 49 through a series of close readings of works of fiction poetry film and visual art produced in various locations throughout wartime China Showing that the culture of this period was characterized by a high degree of formal looseness she argues that such aesthetic fluidity was created in response to historical conditions of violence and widespread displacement Moreover she illustrates how the innovative formal experiments of uprooted writers and artists expanded the geographic and aesthetic boundaries of Chinese modernism far beyond the coastal cities of Shanghai and Beijing
