Fields Of Change Among The Iteso Of Kenya:

Fields of Change among the Iteso of Kenya Ivan Karp, 2013-11-05 Fields of Change is a study of the means by which the Iteso adapted to the imposition of colonial rule and the loss of political independence. It explores their pacification and incorporation into a colonial state and the effects that these processes have had on Iteso territorial and political systems. At the same time it examines the way in which the political system both affected and was affected by other aspects of the Iteso social system most notably in the fields of religion, descent and domestic kinship. First published in 1978

First published in 1978

Widows and their families Peter Marris, 2013-11-05 One of the first books to be published in the UK on bereavement, this ground-breaking study presents the results of a survey of widows in London. Focussing on younger women whose husbands had died, the book deals first with grief and mourning, then examines the consequences of bereavement through the help of relatives and friends and the changes it brings about to the widow's family life. Throughout the book the consequences of widowhood are discussed with relevance to psychological theory and to national policy. Originally published in 1958

Spirit Mediumship and Society in Africa John Beattie, John Middleton, 2013-11-05 Gathering together under a single cover material from a wide range of African societies, this volume allows similarities and differences to be easily perceived and suggests social correlates of these in terms of age, sex, marital status, social grading and wealth. It includes material on both traditional and modern cults.

Tribes Without Rulers John Middleton, David Tait, 2013-11-05 Recent research in Africa has shown a wide range of political systems from small societies of wandering hunters to large states of several million people comparable with mediaeval European feudal kingdoms. In between are many societies in which a central government is lacking; the political system is based upon a balance of power between many small groups which, with their lack of classes or specialized political offices, have been called ordered anarchies. First published in 1958

Neighbours and Nationals in an African City Ward David Parkin, 2013-11-05 This study analyses the way in which tribal ties are maintained in the development of a tribally mixed middle class community in Kampala, Uganda. Political independence in the early nineteen sixties in much of Africa created expectations of increased development, education and living standards. There was hope that ethnic tensions arising from false colonial boundaries might be transcended by newly emerging socio-economic status groups. However, the new national boundaries suddenly made aliens of peoples who had migrated and settled in towns distant from their home countries. The interplay of nationality, ethnicity and socio-economic status or class was given a new theatre. Hope was dramatically tempered by nationalist and ethnic conflicts which cut across ethnically mixed small status groups of neighbours and friends In Kampala Uganda this rapidly unfolding drama resulted in the expulsion of two Kenyan ethnic groups and polarised peoples from northern and southern Uganda The essentialisation of ethnic and national identity imposed by colonialism was thus taken on in this new situation by the people themselves with the result that they became cultural starting points of social and political judgement Originally published in 1969     Defeating Mau Mau Louis

Leakey,2013-11-05 The second of two important books by Louis Leakey the renowned expert on the Kikuyu tribe This book examines the organisation of the Mau Mau movement its propaganda the nature of its religious aspects and its oaths and the mistakes its leaders made as well as covering chapters on necessary reforms to prevent further outbreaks of a similar nature

East African Societies Aylward Shorter,2013-11-05 Focussing on the mechanics of social change and the interaction between ethnic groups cultures structures and value systems the background questions of ecology demography and history are also examined and the process of urbanization and rural revolution described Trends in marriage and family life education and religious ideas are also discussed and case studies from each country included First published in 1974

Women of Tropical Africa Denise Paulme,2013-11-05 This book is unique in its approach in that each chapter covers women in their everyday lives and the problems which concern them Until now ethnographic research has almost always been carried out with the help of the male population and as a result the picture that has emerged has been largely the image which the men and the men alone have of their society Originally published in 1963     Western Civilization in

Southern Africa Isaac Schapera,2013-11-05 The book is structured as follows An introduction of old Bantu culture An account of modern Bantu life Discussion of the influence exerted by Christianity and Education upon communal life of the Bantu Examination of special aspects of Bantu culture as they have been modified by Western civilization language and music The economic political and legal positions of the native tribes in South Africa are also covered First published in 1934     Order and Rebellion in Tribal Africa Max Gluckman,2013-11-05 These essays are mainly concerned with the development of some of Max Gluckman s ideas about African politics He regarded frequent rebellions to replace incumbents of political offices as against revolutions to alter the structure of offices as inherent in these politics Later he connected this situation with modes of husbandry problems of the devolution of power types of weapons and the law of treason He advanced to a general theory of ritual as well as to general propositions about the position of officials representing conflicting interests within a hierarchy typified by the African chief under colonial rule Originally published in 1963     The Last Trek Sheila Patterson,2013-11-05

This book evaluates the historical factors that produced the Boer people and the political religious and economic forces that maintain modern Afrikaner Nationalism This last trek brings the Afrikaner back into multi racial integrating industrial society Originally published in 1957     The Niger Journal of Richard and John Lander Robin Hallett,2013-11-05 The journal of the

Lander brothers provides a narrative of one of the most important missions of exploration in the history of West Africa The

editor's introduction contains much new material on the Landers and their journey drawn from hitherto unpublished sources while an epilogue describes Richard Lander's last expedition to the Niger in 1832-4 and his death at Fernando Po Originally published in 1965

Mau Mau and the Kikuyu Louis Leakey, 2013-11-05 This widely acclaimed book on a troubled period of Kenyan history summarizes some of the more important Kikuyu customs and a discussion of their break down under the impact of European civilization This discussion illustrates why and how the Mau Mau came into being and how the situation could be improved so that peace could once again come to Kenya

The Family Estate in Africa Robert F. Gray, P.H. Gulliver, 2013-11-05 Too often accounts of African family life have tended to describe the family in purely static terms The contributors to this book emphasize the developmental or time dimension of the family analysing it as a process In the seven different societies described in East Africa the Congo and the Transvaal the changing nature of the distribution of rights in the family property and resources is directly linked with the growth and change of the family itself First published in 1964

Urban Ethnicity Abner Cohen, 2004 This book examines the complex phenomenon of urban ethnicity including Britain the USA Indonesia Israel and East West and Central Africa

The Samburu Paul Spencer, 2013-11-05 In an era of rapid change for Africa this nomadic tribe clings to its traditional way of life This book examines their society and provides the first full published description of human life in the area The author a social anthropologist spent more than two years among the Samburu as an adopted member of one of their clans he perceived how their values and attitudes are closely interwoven with a social system that resists change Case studies support the general analysis throughout Originally published in 1965

Custom and Politics in Urban Africa Abner Cohen, 2013-11-05 A discussion of the process by which some ethnic groups manipulate values myths symbols and ceremonials from their traditional culture in order to develop an informal political organisation This organisation is then used as a weapon in the struggle for power and privilege within contemporary society

The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville J. Herskovits, 2013-11-05 Focussing on the problems of change and resistance to change that mark the African sub continent this book examines Africa's place in the world from earliest times It considers the nature of its peoples in their prehistoric development the ways in which their cultures were oriented and the ways in which these cultures guided their reactions to European ideas It also assesses the human responses to industrial technological and economic changes and the re-discovery by the Africans of African culture Originally published in 1962

Death and the Ancestors Jack Goody, 2013-11-05 Deliberately considering relevant theories put forward by earlier writers and examining them in the light of the research for this particular book the author spent over 100 days attending funeral ceremonies and he attended 25 burial services First published in 1962
