Fields Of Fire 1st Edition:

Into Fields of Fire Austin J. Buchanan, W. L. George Collins, 2004-11-29 This story is taken from notes Austin Buck Buchanan wrote in notebooks he carried in his pocket all during World War II Buck is no longer with us W L George Collins edited and compiled Bucks notes into a manuscript that became this book Here you will ride with Buck as he flies his plane through a field of fire so intense that one shell blows a hole in the plane big enough for a man to go through and uncountable bullet holes perforated the plane All aircraft controls are shot out except elevator and ailerons You will ride with him as he manages to complete his mission and bring his barely flying plane back to England And you will ride with him through hundreds more such harrowing trips in his C 47 with no armor plate and no guns into other fields of fire and often impossible weather W L George Collins was a pilot in the same Troop Carrier Group as Buck His writings have been published in the United States Europe and the Middle East He was awarded the George Washington Honor Medal by Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge among other writing awards

A Field on Fire Mark D. Hersey, Ted Steinberg, 2019-01-29 A frank and engaging exploration of the burgeoning academic field of environmental history Inspired by the pioneering work of preeminent environmental historian Donald Worster the contributors to A Field on Fire The Future of Environmental History reflect on the past and future of this discipline Featuring wide ranging essays by leading environmental historians from the United States Europe and China the collection challenges scholars to rethink some of their orthodoxies inviting them to approach familiar stories from new angles to integrate new methodologies and to think creatively about the questions this field is well positioned to answer Worster s groundbreaking research serves as the organizational framework for the collection Editors Mark D Hersey and Ted Steinberg have arranged the book into three sections corresponding to the primary concerns of Worster s influential scholarship the problem of natural limits the transnational nature of environmental issues and the question of method Under the heading Facing Limits five essays explore the inherent tensions between democracy technology capitalism and the environment The Crossing Borders section underscores the ways in which environmental history moves easily across national and disciplinary boundaries Finally Doing Environmental History invokes Worster s work as an essayist by offering self conscious reflections about the practice and purpose of environmental history The essays aim to provoke a discussion on the future of the field pointing to untapped and underdeveloped avenues ripe for further exploration A forward thinker like Worster presents bold challenges to a new generation of environmental historians on everything from capitalism and the Anthropocene to war and wilderness This engaging volume includes a very special afterword by one of Worster s oldest friends the eminent intellectual historian Daniel Rodgers who has known Worster for close to fifty years
