Ana en el Trópico Nilo Cruz, 2004-03-01 The Spanish language edition of the 2003 Pulitzer Prize Winner for Drama Fervor desde el trópico Carlos Pellicer, León Guillermo Gutiérrez, 2007 Cuban Fiestas Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-01-01

A luminous history of Cuba's most dynamic and defining rituals and the ever improvisational character of Cuban culture In the Cuban town of Sagua la Grande a young Roberto González Echevarría peers out the window of his family home on the morning of the Nochebuena fiesta as preparations begin for the slaughter of a feast day pig The author recalls watching them at a distance though thinking fearing that once I grew older I would have to participate in the whole event Now an acclaimed scholar of Latin American literature Gonz lez Echevarra returns to the rituals that defined his young life in Cuban Fiestas Drawing from art literature film and even the national sport of baseball he vividly reveals the fiesta as a dynamic force of both destruction and renewal in the life of a people Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra masterfully exposes the distinctive elements of the fiesta cubana that give depth and coherence to more than two centuries of Cuban cultural life Reaching back to nineteenth century traditions of Cuban art and literature and augmenting them in the twentieth with the arts of narrative the esthetic performances of sport and entertainment in nightclubs on the baseball diamond and in movie theaters Cuban Fiestas renders the lilting strains of the fiesta and drum beats of the passage of time as keys to understanding the dynamic quality of Cuban culture Gonz lez Echevarra's explorations are also illuminated by autobiographical vignettes that unveil the ever shifting impact of the fiesta on the author's own story of exile and return
