RECOLLECTIONS of MY FIFTY YEARS HUNTING and FISHING

by WILLIAM B. MERSHON

As the title indicates, this book relates the author's hunting and fishing experiences covering half a century.

THE hunting stories begin before the author was old enough to shoot and they describe the plentifulness of quail and wild turkeys in Michigan at that time. Then there are chapters about old deer hunting parties, quail shooting, the dance of the sandhill crane, wild fowl and goose shooting on the Dakota prairies in the old days, Sora rail shooting and wild pigeon hunting.

From a fishing standpoint this book will be of great interest and value to many readers, for the history of the first brook trout in Michigan is given. There is also much information about grayling fishing and salmon fishing.

The volume is profusely illustrated
