50 Years Before Crack Thomas G. Rolston, 2004 Angela's Ashes tells of life in Ireland in the mid twentieth century as seen through the eyes of a poor boy. Fifty Years Before Crack describes the culture of blue collar Baltimore during that same period, fifty years before crack cocaine distribution became the principal industry. In an era before credit cards, two car garages, shopping malls, mutual funds, designer jeans, Little Leagues, TV PCs, and civil rights legislation, boys earned pennies to supplement family income; parents believed the word of adults rather than that of their children, and the kids had a knack for entertaining themselves without adult involvement. It also was a time when politicians were servants of the people rather than being self-serving, and teachers, pastors, police, and lawyers were held in high esteem.
