Introducing Nicholas of Cusa Bellitto, Christopher M., Izbicki, Thomas M., Christianson, Gerald, 2004 A primer on the the vocabulary ideas and works of this leading Renaissance thinker of the fifteenth century who wrote on everything from papal politics to astronomy to interreligious dialogue Life Achievement in the 21st Century T. C. Lea, 2006 T C Lea created a new paradigm of achievement which he calls the Life Mountain by distilling the essence of Heraclitus Goethe Jung and many others to create an entirely new philosophy He urges all of us to attempt the climb rather than live in a world of darkness Life Philosophy for the 21st Century T. C. Lea, 2008-10 In Life Philosophy for the 21st Century a welcome companion piece to Life Achievement in the 21st Century T C Lea further discusses his life philosophy the Life Mountain and helps readers travel up this mountain in order to create a more productive and cohesive life Leas straightforward explanation of the Life Mountain will allow readers to reach its summit and raise their level of life satisfaction The Search for Truth Maxwell Bennett, 2022-05-01 Universities have searched for truth over nearly a millennium Maxwell Bennett recounts the history of this search during three of its most momentous periods in the 13th 18th and 20th centuries which helped fashion the idea of a university He concludes with a cautionary assessment of whether universities given their present level of material support can reliably continue to protect and advance society The House of Wisdom Jonathan Lyons, 2010-04-04

Traces the scientific and philosophical achievements of medieval Arab scholars exploring such topics as the advances of a group of minds from the royal library of Baghdad and the invaluable contributions they made to Western culture and the Renaissance era The Roots of the Reformation G. R. Evans, 2012-08-02 G R Evans revisits the question of what happened at the Reformation She argues that the controversies that roiled the era are part of a much longer history of discussion and disputation By showing us just how old these debates really were Evans brings into high relief their unprecedented outcomes at the moment of the Reformation The Writer and the Cross Darren J.N. Middleton, 2022-06-27 Spiritually engaged readers commonly look toward fiction to better understand the depth of a faithful life and Christians are no exception Many followers of Jesus value beautifully written deftly characterized and pulse quickening literary art that seems more satisfying than dry tedious doctrinal textbooks This book surveys 12 pieces of historical fiction that feature notable Christian thinkers They include an illustrated children s book about St Irenaeus of Lyons a novel about Martin Luther s Reformation a screenplay focusing on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and even a story about Pope Francis narrated in popular manga style Rather than arcane literary analyses this book provides thoughtful and sometimes painful interviews with the authors of the covered works Most interviewees are little known or emerging writers Some have published their work with a church or denominational press others with a major publishing empire or popular print on demand platforms Storytellers reflect on their literary choices and the contexts of their writing sharing what modern Christians can learn from historical religious fiction William of Malmesbury and the Ethics of History Sigbjørn Olsen Sønnesyn, 2012 William of Malmesbury arguably the greatest English historian of the twelfth century repeatedly emphasises that the primary purpose of all literary and intellectual activities is to provide moral instruction for the reader the most famous of his statements to this effect being found in his monumental work Gesta Regum Anglorum where he categorises history as a sub discipline of ethics However modern studies have chosen to focus on other aspects of William s oeuvre and tended to dismiss such claims as perfunctory nods to a pious commonplace This book differs from recent orthodoxy by being based on the proposition that medieval professions of the moral aims of historiography are in fact genuine It seeks to read William s celebrated historical works in the light of his devotional and didactic texts and in the context of the religious intellectual and literary traditions to which he expressed his allegiance He also demonstrates how William s conception of ethics forms a constitutive element of his historical output The resulting image of William shows a committed monk and man of his time placing his extraordinary learning at the service of his culture his society and his faith Publisher s website The Hermeneutics of the 'Happy' Ending in Job 42:7-17 Kenneth Numfor Ngwa, 2012-02-14 The hermeneutics employed in this work is partly referred to as hindsight hermeneutics and upholds the resonance and dissonance between the Epilogue of the Book of Job and the preceding sections Within the Theophany epilogue continuum rebuke and approval retribution and its suspension divine transcendence and accessibility are all held together The dramatically discordant traditions in the preceding section are not interpreted as competing alternatives but as complementary possibilities for understanding the nature of the divine human relationship and responding to the threat and reality of chaos and suffering

A Companion to St. Paul in the Middle Ages Steven Cartwright, 2012-11-09 Over the last twenty years increasing attention has been given to the interpretation of St Paul in the Middle Ages This is one of the first scholarly volumes to look broadly at the understanding and use of Paul in medieval Europe It focuses not only on the interpretation of the Apostle by patristic and medieval exegetes but also on the use of his teachings by church reformers canon lawyers and spiritual teachers and his portrayal in art and vernacular literature and culture By bringing together both exegetical studies of Pauline interpretation with explorations of newer themes this book provides a more complete view of the medieval Paul than has previously been available Contributors include Csaba Nemeth Ian Levy Thomas Scheck Joshua Papsdorf Valerie Heuchan Ann Collins Lisa Fagin Davis James Morey Ken Grant Colt Anderson Franklin Harkins Steven Cartwright and Aaron Canty
