Travels in the Interior of Africa (Complete) Mungo Park,2010 Soon after my return from the East Indies in 1793 having learnt that the Noblemen and Gentlemen associated for the purpose of prosecuting Discoveries in the Interior of Africa were desirous of engaging a person to explore that continent by the way of the Gambia river I took occasion through means of the President of the Royal Society to whom I had the honour to be known of offering myself for that service I had been informed that a gentleman of the name of Houghton a Captain in the army and formerly Fort Major at Goree had already sailed to the Gambia under the direction of the Association and that there was reason to apprehend he had fallen a sacrifice to the climate or perished in some contest with the natives but this intelligence instead of deterring me from my purpose animated me to persist in the offer of my services with the greater solicitude I had a passionate desire to examine into the productions of a country so little known and to become experimentally acquainted with the modes of life and character of the natives I knew that I was able to bear fatigue and I relied on my youth and the strength of my constitution to preserve me from the effects of the climate The salary which the Committee allowed was sufficiently large and I made no stipulation for future reward If I should perish in my journey I was willing that my hopes and expectations should perish with me and if I should succeed in rendering the geography of Africa more familiar to my countrymen and in opening to their ambition and industry new sources of wealth and new channels of commerce I knew that I was in the hands of men of honour who would not fail to bestow that remuneration which my successful services should appear to them to merit The Committee of the Association having made such inquiries as they thought necessary declared themselves satisfied with the qualifications that I possessed and accepted me for the service and with that liberality which on all occasions distinguishes their conduct gave me every encouragement which it was in their power to grant or which I could with propriety ask It was at first proposed that I should accompany Mr James Willis who was then recently appointed Consul at Senegambia and whose countenance in that capacity it was thought might have served and protected me but Government afterwards rescinded his appointment and I lost that advantage The kindness of the Committee however supplied all that was necessary Being favoured by the Secretary of the Association the late Henry Beaufoy Esq with a recommendation to Dr John Laidley a gentleman who had resided many years at an English factory on the banks of the Gambia and furnished with a letter of credit on him for 200 I took my passage in the brig Endeavour a small vessel trading to the Gambia for bees wax and ivory commanded by Captain Richard Wyatt and I became impatient for my departure My instructions were very plain and concise I was directed on my arrival in Africa to pass on to the river Niger either by the way of Bambouk or by such other route as should be found most convenient That I should ascertain the course and if possible the rise and termination of that river That I should use my utmost exertions to visit the principal towns or cities in its neighbourhood particularly Tombuctoo and Houssa and that I should be afterwards at liberty to return to Europe either by the way of the Gambia or by such other route as under all the then existing circumstances of my situation and prospects should appear to me to be most advisable We sailed from Portsmouth on the 22d day of May 1795 On the 4th of June we saw the mountains over Mogadore on the coast of Africa and on the 21st of the same month after a pleasant voyage of thirty days we anchored at Jillifree a town on the northern bank of the river Gambia opposite to James s Island where the English had formerly a small fort
