Fifty Years Of Prosopography The Later Roman Empire Byzantium And Beyond:

Fifty Years of Prosopography Averil Cameron, 2003-07-17 Prosopography is the collection of all known information about individuals within a given period With the advent of computer technology it is now possible to gather and store such information in increasingly sophisticated and searchable databases which can bring a new dimension to traditional historical research The book surveys the transition in prosopographical research from more traditional methods to the new technology and discusses the central role of the British Academy as well as that of French German and Austrian academic institutions in developing prosopographical research on the Later Roman Empire Byzantium and now Anglo Saxon and other periods The book demonstrates mutual benefits and complementarity in such studies between the use of new technology and the highest standards of traditional scholarship and in doing so it sets forth new perspectives and methodologies for future work

Fifty Years of Prosopography Averil Cameron, 2003 Examining the effect of new technology on the science of prosopography this academic text also discusses the role of the British Academy and parallel European institutions in developing prosopographical research on the Later Roman Empire Byzantine Anglo Saxon and other time periods Fifty Years of Prosopography Averil Cameron, 2003-07-17 Prosopography is the collection of all known information about individuals within a given period With the advent of computer technology it is now possible to gather and store such information in increasingly sophisticated and searchable databases which can bring a new dimension to traditional historical research The book surveys the transition in prosopographical research from more traditional methods to the new technology and discusses the central role of the British Academy as well as that of French German and Austrian academic institutions in developing prosopographical research on the Later Roman Empire Byzantium and now Anglo Saxon and other periods The book demonstrates mutual benefits and complementarity in such studies between the use of new technology and the highest standards of traditional scholarship and in doing so it sets forth new perspectives and methodologies for future work

A.H.M. Jones and the Later Roman Empire David Morton Gwynn, 2008 This volume offers a reassessment of the life and scholarship of A H M Jones and of the impact and legacy of his great work The Later Roman Empire 284a 602 A Social

Economic and Administrative Survey 1964 Fifty Years of Prosopography Averil Cameron, 2003 From the Later Roman Empire to Late Antiquity and Beyond Averil Cameron, 2023-05-23 Averil Cameron is one of the leading historians of late antiquity and Byzantium This collection Cameron s third in the Variorum series discusses the changing approach among historians of the later Roman empire from the 1960s to the present and the articles reproduced have been chosen to reflect both these wider changes in treatments of the subject as well as Cameron s own development as a historian over many decades It provides a revealing and important survey of some profound historiographical changes Her volume contains fundamental papers and reviews that tell a story in which she has played a leading part They move from her early days as an ancient historian to her important contribution in the establishment of the field of late antiquity and point to her later work as a Byzantinist a trajectory rivalled by few other scholars The book will be important for scholars and students of the later Roman empire and late antiquity and for anyone interested in the inheritance of Edward Gibbon the perennial questions about the end of the Roman empire and its supposed decline or the emergence of Islam in the early seventh century and its relation to the late antique world CS 1113 Collaborative Research in the Digital Humanities Willard McCarty, Marilyn Deegan, 2016-05-23 Collaboration within digital humanities is both a pertinent and a pressing topic as the traditional mode of the humanist working alone in his or her study is supplemented by explicitly co operative interdependent and collaborative research This is particularly true where computational methods are employed in large scale digital humanities projects This book which celebrates the contributions of Harold Short to this field presents fourteen essays by leading authors in the digital humanities It addresses several issues of collaboration from the multiple perspectives of institutions projects and individual researchers Prosopography Approaches and Applications K. S. B. Keats-Rohan, 2007 This collection of 29 essays ranging from ancient to modern history and including Arabic Islamic prosopography covers all aspects of prosopography as currently practised On Making in the Digital Humanities Julianne Nyhan, Geoffrey Rockwell, Stéfan Sinclair, Alexandra Ortolja-Baird, 2023-03-13 On Making in the Digital Humanities fills a gap in our understanding of digital humanities projects and craft by exploring the processes of making as much as the products that arise from it The volume draws focus to the interwoven layers of human and technological textures that constitute digital humanities scholarship To do this it assembles a group of well known experienced and emerging scholars in the digital humanities to reflect on various forms of making we privilege here the creative and applied side of the digital humanities The volume honours the work of John Bradley as it is totemic of a practice of making that is deeply informed by critical perspectives A special chapter also honours the profound contributions that this volume s co editor St fan Sinclair made to the creative applied and intellectual praxis of making and the digital humanities St fan Sinclair passed away on 6 August 2020 The chapters gathered here are individually important but together provide a very human view on what it is to do the digital humanities in the past present and future This book will accordingly be of interest to researchers teachers and students of the digital humanities creative humanities including maker spaces and culture information studies the history of computing and technology and the history of science and the humanities

Social Mobility in Late Antique Gaul Allen E. Jones, 2009-07-20 In Social Mobility in Late Antique Gaul Allen Jones explores the situation of the non-elite living in Gaul during the late fifth and sixth centuries Drawing especially on evidence from Gregory of Tours writings he formulates a social model based on people of all ranks who were acting in ways that were socially advantageous to them such as combining resources serving at court and participating in ostentatious religious pursuits such as building churches Viewing the society as a whole and taking into account specific social groups such as impoverished prisoners paupers active at churches physicians and wonder-working enchanters Jones creates an image of Barbarian Gaul as an honor-driven brutal and flexible society defined by social mobility His work also addresses topics such as social engineering and competition
