The Global Reach of the Fandango in Music, Song and Dance K. Meira Goldberg, Antoni Pizà, 2017-01-06 The fandango emerging in the early eighteenth century Black Atlantic as a dance and music craze across Spain and the Americas came to comprise genres as diverse as Mexican son jarocho the salon and concert fandangos of Mozart and Scarlatti and the Andalusian fandangos central to flamenco From the celebrations of humble folk to the theaters of the European elite with boisterous

castanets strumming strings flirtatious sensuality and dexterous footwork the fandango became a conduit for the syncretism of music dance and people of diverse Spanish Afro Latin Gitano and even Amerindian origins Once a symbol of Spanish Empire it came to signify freedom of movement and of expression given powerful new voice in the twenty first century by Mexican immigrant communities What is the full array of the fandango The superb essays gathered in this collection lay the foundational stone for further exploration

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

All Ears Peter Szendy, 2016-12-01 The world of international politics has recently been rocked by a seemingly endless series of scandals involving auditory surveillance the NSA's warrantless wiretapping is merely the most sensational example of what appears to be a universal practice today What is the source of this generalized principle of eavesdropping All Ears The Aesthetics of Espionage traces the long history of moles from the Bible through Jeremy Bentham's panacoustic project all the way to the intelligence gathering network called Echelon Together with this archeology of auditory surveillance Szendy offers an engaging account of spy craft's representations in literature Sophocles Shakespeare Joyce Kafka Borges opera Monteverdi Mozart Berg and film Lang Hitchcock Coppola De Palma Following in the footsteps of Orpheus the book proposes a new concept of overhearing that connects the act of spying to an excessive intensification of listening At the heart of listening Szendy locates the ear of the Other that manifests itself as the originary division of a split hearing that turns the drive for mastery and surveillance into the death drive

The Trickster in Contemporary Film Helena Bassil-Morozow, 2013-03-01 This book discusses the role of the trickster figure in contemporary film against the cultural imperatives and social issues of modernity and postmodernity and argues that cinematic tricksters always reflect psychological economic and social change in society It covers a range of films from Charlie Chaplin's classics such as Modern Times 1936 and The Great Dictator 1940 to contemporary comedies and dramas with trickster actors such as Jim Carrey Sacha Baron Cohen Andy Kaufman and Jack Nicholson The Trickster in Contemporary Film offers a fresh perspective on the trickster figure not only in cinema but in Western culture in general Alongside original film analyses it touches upon a number of psychosocial issues including sovereignty of the individual tricksterish qualities of the media and human relationships in the mercurial digital age Further topics of discussion include common motifs in trickster narratives the trickster and personal relationships gonzo trickster and the art of comic insurrection Employing a number of complementary approaches such as Jungian psychology film semiotics narrative structure theories Victor Turner's concept of liminality and Mikhail Bakhtin's theory of the carnivalesque this book is essential reading for students and scholars of film as well as anyone with an interest in analytical psychology and wider critical issues in contemporary culture

The Trickster and the System Helena Bassil-Morozow, 2014-09-25 For centuries the trickster has been used in various narratives including mythological literary and cinematic to convey the idea of agency rebellion and often turbulent progress In The Trickster and the System Identity and Agency in Contemporary Society Helena

Bassil Morozow shows how the trickster can be seen as a metaphor to describe the psycho anthropological concept of change an impulse that challenges the existing order of things a progressive force that is a structural and anti structural in its nature The book is about being able to see things from an unusual even odd perspective which does not coincide with the homogenous normality of the mass or the social system or a political ideology or some other kind of authority The Trickster and the System offers an analytical paradigm which can be used to examine relationships between tricksters and systems change and stability in a wide range of social political and cultural contexts It covers a range of systems describes different types of tricksters and discusses possible conflicts tensions and dialogues between the two opposing sides One of the central ideas of the book is that social systems use shame as a tool to control and manage all kinds of tricksters individuality agency creativity spontaneity innovation and initiative to name but a few The author argues that any society that neglects its tricksters agents of change ends up suffering from decay stagnation or even mass hysterical outbursts The Trickster and the System Identity and Agency in Contemporary Society provides a fresh perspective on the trickster figure in a variety of cultural contexts It covers a range of psychological cultural social and political phenomena from personal issues to the highest level of society s functioning self esteem and shame lifestyle and relationships creativity and self expression media advertising economy political ideology and most importantly human identity and authenticity The book is essential reading for scholars in the areas of psychoanalysis analytical psychology myth cultural and media studies narrative analysis cultural anthropology as well as anyone interested in critical issues in contemporary culture Helena Bassil Morozow is a cultural philosopher film scholar and academic writer whose many publications include Tim Burton The Monster and the Crowd Routledge 2010 and The Trickster in Contemporary Film Routledge 2011 Helena is currently working on another Routledge project Jungian Film Studies the Essential Guide co authored with Luke Hockley Her principal academic affiliation is the University of Bedfordshire Faculty of Creative Arts Technologies Science
