Holman,2011-12-15 Travel with Deacon Emily around the world as she discovers what world markets the fauna of Ecuador Buddhism Michelangelo s sculpture and the message of Christ have in common Gospel Journeys Travels of a a collection of sermons and essays reflects her passion as a deacon in the Episcopal Church to bring the needs of the world to the church and the light of Christ of to the world From Ecuador to Siberia she transports us to the sights of the stark reality of Nelson Mandela s tiny prison cell on Robben Island in South Africa to the smile on the faces of Salvadoran children reading a book Through each adventure she surprises us with where she sees the Hands of God Going Places Harriet Webster,1991 Describes how to plan a trip adjust to different time zones find your way around and a place to stay make the most of cultural and recreational opportunities and enjoy traveling whether in town or country Contesting Peace in the Postwar City Ivan Gusic,2019-12-03 Contesting Peace in the Postwar City is key reading for urban and peace and conflict scholars In this impressive and meticulously researched book Gusic reflects on the ways in which divisions are routinised in the everyday landscape of divided cities and skilfully investigates how change and continuity are governed in postwar urban spaces The book provides rich empirical material from the cities of Mostar Mitrovica and Belfast drawing on nuanced fieldwork insights Stefanie Kappler Durham University UK Ivan Gusic sets out a powerful theoretically critical and empirically rich account of the trajectories of cities after war The strength of the work is that it brings an understanding of the urban condition into relation with ethno national conflict and the survival of violence Gusic unsettles dominant narratives in peace studies by offering a grounded evaluation of three cities coming out of violence and points to the importance of place in peacebuilding processes Brendan Murtagh Queen s University Belfast UK Detailed case studies of Belfast Mitrovica and Mostar show how cities are often engines of what Ivan Gusic calls war in peace This on trend study combines the latest research from critical urban studies with peace and conflict studies to produce a very accessible and internationally relevant book It is highly recommended Roger Mac Ginty Durham University UK This book explores why the postwar city reinforces rather than transcends its continuities of war in peace It theorises war to peace transitions as conflicts over how to socio politically order society and then analyses different urban conflicts over peace s in postwar Belfast Northern Ireland Mitrovica Kosovo and Mostar Bosnia Herzegovina Focusing on themes such as educational segregation clientelism fear paramilitaries and infrastructure it shows how conflict lines from war are perpetuated in and by the postwar city Yet it also discovers instances where antagonisms are bridged by utilising the postwar city s transcending potential While written in the nexus between peace research and urban studies this book also speaks to political geography international relations anthropology and planning Foxfire 11 Foxfire Fund, Inc.,1999-12-01 First published in 1972 The Foxfire Book was a surprise bestseller that brought Appalachia's philosophy of simple living to hundreds of thousands of readers. Whether you wanted to hunt, game, bake the old-fashioned way, or learn the art of successful moonshining, The Foxfire Museum and Heritage Center had a contact who could teach you how with clear step-by-step instructions. This eleventh volume celebrates the rituals and recipes of the Appalachian homeplace, including a one-hundred-page section on herbal remedies and segments about planting and growing a garden, preserving and pickling, smoking and salting, honey making, beekeeping, and fishing, as well as hundreds of the kind of spirited firsthand narrative accounts from Appalachian community members that exemplify the Foxfire style. Much more than how-to books, the Foxfire series is a publishing phenomenon and a way of life teaching creative self-sufficiency, the art of natural remedies, home crafts, and other country folkways fascinating to everyone interested in rediscovering the virtues of simple life.

STEAM Teaching and Learning Through the Arts and Design Debrah C. Sickler-Voigt, 2023-04-11. In this book, award-winning art educator Debrah C. Sickler Voigt offers user-friendly, approachable strategies for STEAM planning, instruction, and assessment to help cultivate PK-12 students' full potential and draws from wide-ranging artists and designers to help you develop inspired creative approaches to teaching STEAM in your classroom. Beginning with the basics and best practices of STEAM planning, instruction, and assessment, Sickler Voigt then encourages readers to move full steam ahead with chapters based around diverse contemporary and historical artists and designers. In helping you to explore the interdisciplinary connections between Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics, Sickler Voigt identifies strategies to build off from STEM subjects to form authentic, well-designed, and age-appropriate learning tasks that encourage your students to make deep connections and learn subject matter in context through art, media, and technologies. Each chapter includes flexible, choice-based classroom resources with tips for adapting to different grade levels and STEAM amplifiers which fuse contextual learning on artists and designers with real-world STEAM topics to spark student learning and ignite creative approaches to planning, instruction, and assessment. Featuring 150 visually stunning, full-color images, this book fuses tried-and-true best practices with highly applicable instructional models inspired by artists and STEAM professionals, ideal for PK-12 teachers and STEAM specialists.

The subjects discussed in this book will focus on a parolee and other released prisoners living out here on these streets twenty-four hours a day. My attempt is to help a parolee and other released prisoners survive out here. Every sentence, phrase, and paragraph underlined in this book is why a parolee's parole was either violated or revoked. And it is why other released prisoners end up back in jail or prison. I think future parolees and other prisoners who will be released from prison should know the mistakes past parolees and released prisoners made. I also shared the personal experiences of other parolees and released prisoners with future parolees and released prisoners Every parolee and released prisoner in this country lives different lifestyles in different communities with different circumstances and situations I hope this book will plant in their minds what to consider and what to think about that will be the cause of them encountering direct or indirect police contact Going Places with God Wayne Stiles,2011-08-26 Where does God want me to walk What path do I take These 90 devotional readings each based on a specific biblical place invite readers to embark on their own spiritual journey As the spectacular backdrop of biblical lands unfolds readers gain insights on how the lives of those in the Bible were shaped and influenced by the contours of the countries they lived in Pertinent Scripture historical quotes and a prayer for each day further help the reader apply the truths of the devotion to their own journey of faith Quality maps lend context to each reading Through visiting these holy places through the pages of this book the reader is invited to reshape his or her own life They will also discover anew how God teaches us to trust in his love protection and provision for our lives Troubled in the Land of Enchantment Janis H. Jenkins,Thomas J. Csordas,2020-08-25 In this groundbreaking study based on five years of in depth ethnographic and interdisciplinary research Troubled in the Land of Enchantment explores the well being of adolescents hospitalized for psychiatric care in New Mexico Anthropologists Janis H Jenkins and Thomas J Csordas present a gripping picture of psychic distress familial turmoil and treatment under the regime of managed care that dominates the mental health care system The authors make the case for the centrality of struggle in the lives of youth across an array of extraordinary conditions characterized by personal anguish and structural violence Critical to the analysis is the cultural phenomenology of existence disclosed through shifting narrative accounts by youth and their families as they grapple with psychiatric diagnosis poverty misogyny and stigma in their trajectories through multiple forms of harm and sites of care Jenkins and Csordas compellingly direct our attention to the conjunction of lived experience institutional power and the very possibility of having a life

Going Places Where People Live: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Going Places Where People Live : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Going Places Where People Live : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
