The Necklace of Princess Fiorimonde and Other Stories Mary de Morgan, 2020-09-28 Once there lived a King whose wife was dead but who had a most beautiful daughter so beautiful that every one thought she must be good as well instead of which the Princess was really very wicked and practised witchcraft and black magic which she had learned from an old witch who lived in a hut on the side of a lonely mountain This old witch was wicked and hideous and no one but the King's daughter knew that she lived there but at night when every one else was asleep the Princess whose name was Fiorimonde used to visit her by stealth to learn sorcery It was only the witch's arts which had made Fiorimonde so beautiful that there was no one like her in the world and in return the Princess helped her with all her tricks and never told any one she was there The time came when the King began to think he should like his daughter to marry so he summoned his council and said We have no son to reign after our death so we had best seek for a suitable prince to marry to our royal daughter and then when we are too old he shall be king in our stead And all the council said he was very wise and it would be well for the Princess to marry So heralds were sent to all the neighbouring kings and princes to say that the King would choose a husband for the Princess who should be king after him But when Fiorimonde heard this she wept with rage for she knew quite well that if she had a husband he would find out how she went to visit the old witch and would stop her practising magic and then she would lose her beauty When night came and every one in the palace was fast asleep the Princess went to her bedroom window and softly opened it Then she took from her pocket a handful of peas and held them out of the window and chirruped low and there flew down from the roof a small brown bird and sat upon her wrist and began to eat the peas No sooner had it swallowed them than it began to grow and grow and grow till it was so big that the Princess could not hold it but let it stand on the window sill and still it grew and grew and grew till it was as large as an ostrich Then the Princess climbed out of the window and seated herself on the bird s back and at once it flew straight away over the tops of the trees till it came to the mountain where the old witch dwelt and stopped in front of the door of her hut SNOWDROP AND
