Golden Mean Signed:

Philosophy of the Sign Josef Simon,1995-01-01 In this book Simon wields Ockham's razor like a scythe to argue historically and systematically for a coherent philosophy of the sign as sign with an unprecedented minimum of ontological and semantical commitments Deconstructing Plato Frege and Husserl he accounts for signs without positing the existence either of meanings which they express or of things to which they refer Indeed he shows that one cannot understand anything that is not a sign so that one never gets to meanings without signs or things beyond signs The Astrological Houses Bruno Huber,Louise Huber,1984-01-01 HAG Fine Art Signature Auction Catalog #638 Ivy Press,2006-10 Rosalie Gascoigne Martin Gascoigne,2019-09-16 Rosalie Gascoigne 1917 1999 was a highly regarded Australian artist whose assemblages of found materials embraced landscape still life minimalism arte povera and installations She was 57 when she had her first exhibition Behind this late coming out lay a long and unusual preparation in looking at nature for its aesthetic qualities collecting found objects making flower arrangements and practising ikebana Her art found an appreciative audience from the start She was a people person and it pleased her that through her exhibiting career of 25 years her works were acquired by people of all ages interests and backgrounds as well as by the major public institutions on both sides of the Tasman Sea Music in the Human Experience Donald A. Ford,2024-10-17 There is a unifying Pattern that underlies much if not all of science which manifests itself in the measures of dimension i e time distance volume mass and of those measures that derive from them This Pattern arises from a simple geometric progression based on the numbers 2 and 3 Deus Ordini Fundamentum God Begins Lays the Order of the Foundation traces this Pattern through much of modern science including astronomy physics geodesy metrology cartography etc and arrives at the almost inescapable conclusion that mankind did not devise this system since it is all too perfect rather it was given to him by the Creator of the cosmos Deus Ordini Fundamentum then proceeds to examine several world renowned ancient monuments and documents a startling sophistication of knowledge embedded in them that embodies many of the measures from the Pattern These monuments were specifically designed and built to memorialize much of this vast knowledge the collected inheritance of a sophisticated civilization Number and Geometry were central to this process And finally Deus Ordini Fundamentum examines six carved stelae in the Step Pyramid complex of Saqqara Egypt and finds that they hold mankind's deepest held beliefs and understandings regarding the origins and manifestations of time and the other dimensions that are the framework of our perceived reality

Never Pure Steven Shapin, 2010-06-01 Steven Shapin argues that science for all its immense authority and power is and always has been a human endeavor subject to human capacities and limits Put simply science has never been pure To be human is to err and we understand science better when we recognize it as the laborious achievement of fallible imperfect and historically situated human beings Shapin's essays collected here include reflections on the historical relationships between science and common sense between science and modernity and between science and the moral order They explore the relevance of physical and social settings in the making of scientific knowledge the methods appropriate to understanding science historically dietetics as a compelling site for historical inquiry the identity of those who have made scientific knowledge and the means by which science has acquired credibility and authority This wide ranging and intensely interdisciplinary collection by one of the most distinguished historians and sociologists of science represents some of the leading edges of change in the scholarly understanding of science over the past several decades

been condemned and banished by society That image fits the scholar priest Joseph de Pr mare who spent the last thirty eight years of his life 1698 1736 mainly in remote areas of China He was condemned to silence by not only his religious superiors but also by intellectuals in Europe He was silenced because his Figurist theories were regarded as dangerous and implausible And yet the irony of this silencing is that Father Pr mare was one of the most knowledgeable Sinologists of all time As a missionary in towns in the southern province of Jiangxi he was freed from many pastoral duties by an assisting catechist and able to devote himself to intensive study of Chinese texts He was practically a scholar hermit who left the urban politicized atmosphere of Beijing after only two years to return to Jiangxi province There he cultivated Chinese literati who helped him assemble a remarkable collection of classical texts He was prolific in producing a wide body of works in philology history philosophy religion and drama Faced by critics who were claiming that Chinese culture was alien to Christianity Pr mare joined the effort led by his fellow Jesuit Joachim Bouvet to save the Christian mission in China from destruction The Figurists were radical in arguing that the ancient Chinese texts like the Old Testament anticipated the coming of Christ long before his birth They claimed that Chinese commentators erred in viewing these ancient texts as records of history when in fact they were works of metaphorical and figurative meaning Influenced by a Chinese scholar Pr mare made a philological analysis of Chinese characters to explain his theory When Figurism was condemned by his religious superiors Pr mare attempted to circumvent their prohibition by sending his manuscripts to the proto Sinologist Etienne Fourmont in Paris asking that they be published anonymously Fourmont criticized Pr mare s theories and failed to publish them By the time of his death Pr mare had sent most of his manuscripts to Paris where they remained buried for many years
