Golden Age Of Dutch Painting In Historical Perspective:

Picturing Men and Women in the Dutch Golden Age Muizelaar Klaske, Klaske Muizelaar, Derek L. Phillips, 2003-01-01 Taking as their premiss the subjective experience of art the authors look at how paintings by Rembrandt Vermeer other masters were displayed comprehended in the 17th century The Golden Age of Dutch Painting in Historical Perspective Henk van Veen, Frans Grijzenhout, 1999-06-28 This is the first survey of the diverse critical understandings of seventeenth century Dutch art from its origins to the present Appreciated in the eighteenth century by amateurs and collectors Dutch art during the Romantic age became a focus of ideological interest From the late nineteenth century onward it developed into a subject of scholarly research indeed one of the foundational fields of art history in the modern era This study provides insight into the various artistic literary political and philosophical approaches that Dutch painting has inspired over the ages The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public s ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently The Cambridge Companion to the Dutch Golden Age Helmer J. Helmers, Geert H. Janssen, 2018-08-23 An accessible introduction to the political economic literary and artistic heritage of the Dutch Republic in the seventeenth century The Historical Imagination in Nineteenth-Century Britain and the Low Countries Hugh Dunthorne, Michael Wintle, 2012-11-01 The 19th century laid the foundations of history both professional and popular The authors of this collection compare Britain the Netherlands and Belgium unearthing the ways in which history was conceived and then utilized usually for nationalistic purposes The Frigid Golden Age Dagomar Degroot, 2018-02-08 Dagomar Degroot offers the first detailed analysis of how a society thrived amid the Little Ice Age a period of climatic cooling that reached its chilliest point between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The precocious economy unusual environment and dynamic intellectual culture of the Dutch Republic in its seventeenth century Golden Age allowed it to thrive as neighboring societies unraveled in the face of extremes in temperature and precipitation By tracing the occasionally counterintuitive manifestations of climate change from global to local scales Degroot finds that the Little Ice Age presented not only challenges for Dutch citizens but also opportunities that they aggressively exploited in conducting commerce waging war and creating culture The overall success of their Republic in coping with climate change offers lessons that we would be wise to heed today as we confront the growing crisis of global warming Negotiating Differences Els

Stronks,2011-03-21 This book explores the dynamics of peaceful coexistence in the Dutch Republic by tracing the literary responses to one of the key controversies between Protestants and Catholics the role of religious imagery in worship Why and to what extent were people in the Republic willing to reconcile theological differences and combine elements from their own religious cultural practices with those of another The intermingling of practices the author shows was unexpectedly complicated in the Republic Restraints were imposed on the use of images in religious literature of all denominations till 1650 Evidence of negotiations appears after 1650 however as Dutch Protestants absorbed significant aspects of Catholic visual traditions into their own Religious toleration had clearly become a matter of sharing rather than enduring for the Protestants but retained features of a monologue since Dutch Catholics were then developing a new idiosyncratic identity of their own

Creating Distinctions in Dutch Genre Painting Angela Ho,2025-10-01 In the mid to late seventeenth century a number of Dutch painters created a new type of refined genre painting that was much admired by elite collectors In this book Angela Ho uses the examples of Gerrit Dou Gerard ter Borch and Frans van Mieris to show how this group of artists made creative use of repetition such as crafting virtuosic self referential compositions around signature motifs or engaging esteemed predecessors in a competitive dialogue through emulation to project a distinctive artistic personality The resulting paintings enabled purchasers and viewers to exercise their connoisseurial eye and claim membership in an exclusive circle of sophisticated enthusiasts making creative repetition a successful strategy for both artists and viewers Angela Ho shows how Dutch painters in the mid to late 17th century used repetition to project a distinctive artistic personality

Horace across the Media Karl A.E. Enenkel,Marc Laureys,2022-09-26 This volume explores various perceptions adaptations and appropriations of both the personality and the writings of Horace in the early modern age The fifteen essays in this book are devoted to uncharted facets of the reception of Horace and thus substantially broaden our picture of the Horatian tradition Special attention is given to the legacy of Horace in the visual arts and in music beyond the domain of letters By focusing on the multiple channels through which the influence of Horace was felt and transmitted this volume aims to present instances of the Horatian heritage across the media and to stimulate a more thorough reflection on an interdisciplinary and multi medial approach to the exceptionally rich and variegated afterlife of Horace Contributors Veronica Brandis Philippe Canguilhem Giacomo Comiati Karl A E Enenkel Carolin A Giere Inga Mai Groote Luke B T Houghton Chris Joby Marc Laureys Grantley McDonald Lukas Reddemann Bernd Roling Robert Seidel Marcela Slav kov Paul J Smith and Tijana akula

Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter,2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture

The Making of Home Judith Flanders, 2015-09-08 The idea that home is a special place a separate place a place where we can be our true selves is so obvious to us today that we barely pause to think about it But as Judith Flanders shows in her best and most ambitious work to date home is a relatively new idea In The Making of Home Flanders traces the evolution of the house from the sixteenth to the early twentieth century across northern Europe and America showing how the homes we know today bear only a faint resemblance to homes though history What turned a house into the concept of home Why did northwestern Europe a politically unimportant sociologically underdeveloped region of the world suddenly become the powerhouse of the Industrial Revolution the capitalist crucible that created modernity While investigating these important questions Flanders uncovers the fascinating development of ordinary household items from cutlery chairs and curtains to the fitted kitchen plumbing and windows while also dismantling many domestic myths In this prodigiously researched and engagingly written book Flanders brilliantly and elegantly draws together the threads of religion history economics technology and the arts to show not merely what happened but why it happened how we ended up in a world where we can all say like Dorothy in Oz There s no place like home

The Origins of Baroque Art in Rome

Alois Riegl, Alina Alexandra Payne, 2010 Delivered at the turn of the twentieth century Riegl's groundbreaking lectures called for the Baroque period to be judged by its own rules and not merely as a period of decline The Artful Mind Mark Turner, 2006-10-26 All normal human beings alive in the last fifty thousand years appear to have possessed in Mark Turner's phrase irrepressibly artful minds Cognitively modern minds produced a staggering list of behavioral singularities science religion mathematics language advanced tool use decorative dress dance culture art that seems to indicate a mysterious and unexplained discontinuity between us and all other living things This brute fact gives rise to some tantalizing questions How did the artful mind emerge What are the basic mental operations that make art possible for us now and how do they operate These are the questions that occupy the distinguished contributors to this volume which emerged from a year long Getty funded research project hosted by the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford These scholars bring to bear a range of disciplinary and cross disciplinary perspectives on the relationship between art broadly conceived the mind and the brain Together they hope to provide directions for a new field of research that can play a significant role in answering the great riddle of human singularity The Rise of the Cult of Rembrandt Alison McQueen, 2003 Rembrandt's life and art had an almost mythic resonance in nineteenth century France with artists critics and collectors alike using his artistic persona both as a benchmark and as justification for their own goals This first in depth study of the traditional critical reception of Rembrandt reveals the preoccupation with his perceived authenticity naturalism and naiveté demonstrating how the artist became an ancestral figure a talisman with whom others aligned themselves to increase the value of their own work And in a concluding chapter the author looks at the play Rembrandt staged in Paris in 1898 whose production and advertising are a testament to the enduring power of the artist's myth Inherit the Holy Mountain Mark Stoll, 2015-04-30 Inherit the Holy Mountain puts religion at the center of the history of American environmentalism rather than at its margins demonstrating how religion provided environmentalists with content direction and tone for the environmental causes they espoused The Enlightenment's Animals Nathaniel Wolloch, 2025-10-01 In The Enlightenment's Animals Nathaniel Wolloch takes a broad view of changing conceptions of animals in European culture during the long eighteenth century Combining discussions of intellectual history the history of science the history of historiography the history of economic thought and not least art history this book describes how animals were discussed and conceived in different intellectual and artistic contexts underwent a dramatic shift during this period While in the seventeenth century and the first half of the eighteenth century the main focus was on the sensory and cognitive characteristics of animals during the late Enlightenment a new outlook emerged emphasizing their conception as economic resources Focusing particularly on seventeenth century Dutch culture and on the Scottish Enlightenment Wolloch discusses developments in other countries as well presenting a new look at a topic of increasing importance in modern scholarship Crowning Glories Harriet Stone, 2019-01-01 Crowning Glories integrates Louis XIV's propaganda campaigns the transmission of Northern art into France and the rise of empiricism in the eighteenth century three historical touchstones to examine what it would have meant for France's elite to experience the arts in France simultaneously with Netherlandish realist painting In an expansive study of cultural life under the Sun King Harriet Stone considers the monarchy's elaborate palace decors the court's official records and the classical theatre alongside Northern images of daily life in private homes urban markets and country fields Stone argues that Netherlandish art assumes an unobtrusive yet for the history of ideas surprisingly dramatic role within the flourishing of the arts both visual and textual in France during Louis XIV's reign Netherlandish realist art represented thinking about knowledge that challenged the monarchy's hold on the French imagination and its efforts to impose the king's portrait as an ideal and proof of his authority As objects appreciated for their aesthetic and market value Northern realist paintings assumed an uncontroversial place in French royal and elite collections Flemish and Dutch still lifes genre paintings and cityscapes however were not merely accoutrements of power acquisitions made by those with influence and money Crowning Glories reveals how the empirical orientation of Netherlandish realism exposed French court society to a radically different mode of thought one that would gain full expression in the Encyclopédie of Diderot and d'Alembert
