This is a story of magnificent failures The men who equipped the expeditions of which I shall tell you the story died in the poorhouse The men who took part in these voyages sacrificed their lives as cheerfully as they lighted a new pipe or opened a fresh bottle Some of them were drowned and some of them died of thirst A few were frozen to death and many were killed by the heat of the scorching sun The bad supplies furnished by lying contractors buried many of them beneath the green cocoanut trees of distant lands Others were speared by cannibals and provided a feast for the hungry tribes of the Pacific Islands But what of it It was all in the day s work These excellent fellows took whatever came be it good or bad or indifferent with perfect grace and kept on smiling They kept their powder dry did whatever their hands found to do and left the rest to the care of that mysterious Providence who probably knew more about the ultimate good of things than they did The Golden Book of the Dutch Navigators (Classic Reprint) Hendrik Willem van Loon,2015-07-23 Excerpt from The Golden Book of the Dutch Navigators About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Golden Book of the Dutch Navigators Hendrik Willem van Loon,1938 The Story of Mankind Hendrik Willem Van Loon,2019-11-21 In The Story of Mankind
