The Viking's Woman Heather Graham, 2010-09-22 Her wild spirit made him crave her Her firebrand hair blazed as glorious as a sunrise Her long limbs promised the sweet mysteries of the night Rhiannon King Alfred s favorite niece was enraged when her uncle sealed an alliance of war by pledging her to Eric the towering golden haired prince whose blue eyes penetrated her with a glacial stare But the more she fought the marriage the man the more she became inflamed by the fire that lay beneath his Viking ice His passion pierced her heart His broad shoulders as hard as the steel of his sword Eric bowed to no man The only battle he feared losing was with Rhiannon For she had reached into the savage recesses of his heart No campaign on the field no treason from within would he fight as fiercely or with such desire as the war he waged to possess what was his The Routledge Handbook of Insurgency and Counterinsurgency Paul B. Aspiration and Ambivalence Vanda Felbab-Brown, 2012-11-05 After more than a decade of great effort and sacrifice by America and its allies the Taliban still has not been defeated and many Afghans believe that a civil war is coming Aspiration and Ambivalence analyzes the U S and international efforts in Afghanistan and offers detailed recommendations for dealing with the precarious situation leading up to the 2014 transition to Afghan control and beyond Vanda Felbab Brown argues that allied efforts in Afghanistan have put far too little emphasis on good governance concentrating too much on short term military goals to the detriment of long term peace and stability The Western tendency to ally with bullies warlords smugglers and other shady characters in pursuit of short term military advantage actually empowers the forces working against good governance and long term political stability Rampant corruption and mafia rule thus persist making it impossible for Afghans to believe in the institutional reforms and rule of law that are clearly necessary This must change otherwise the chances of building responsive and sustainable governmental structures are slim indeed Felbab Brown combines thorough research and analysis with vivid personal accounts of her time spent in the war torn nation powerful vignettes illustrating the Afghan aspirations for peace stability and sovereignty and the stubborn obstacles to securing them The year 2014 will mark a critical juncture in Afghanistan s odyssey After more than a decade of arduous fighting and political involvement the U S and international presence there will be significantly reduced and circumscribed Although the international community has committed itself not to abandon Afghanistan as it did in the 1990s the onus will be on the Afghan government to provide for the security of the country its economic development and governance that attempts to meet the needs of the Afghan people Difficult challenges major unresolved questions and worrisome trends surround all three sets of processes The biggest hole in the U S strategy and international efforts to stabilize the country is the failure to adequately address the country s fractured and brittle political system and very poor governance from Aspiration and Ambivalence The Great Power Competition Volume 1 Adib Farhadi,Anthony J. Masys,2021-06-22 Over the past decade the international political system has come to be characterized as a Great Power Competition in which multiple would be hegemons compete for power and influence Instead of a global climate of unchallenged United States dominance revisionist powers notably China and Russia alongside other regional powers are vying for dominance through political military and economic means A critical battleground in the Great Power Competition is the Middle East the Horn of Africa and the Central Asia South Asia CASA also known as the Central Region With the planned withdrawal of U S military forces from Afghanistan the U S has stated its intention of shifting attention away from the CASA Region in favor of a more isolationist foreign policy approach This book provides an in depth understanding of the implications for this shift related to regional diplomacy politics economic opportunities rivalries security considerations interests and the information environment Amplifying the vital importance of success in the Central Region to U S prosperity and security this volume advances dialogue in identifying key issues for stakeholders within and beyond the Central Region to gain a holistic perspective that better informs decision making at various levels This collection of work comes from scholars strategic thinkers and subject matter experts who participated in the Great Power Competition Conference hosted by the University of South Florida in partnership with the National Defense University Near East South Asia Center for Strategic Strategies in January 2020 Pride and Fall Sergio Miller,2024-11-14 A detailed new account of the British military campaign in Afghanistan from 2001 to 2014 based on the experiences of those who served On 11 September 2001 19 al Qaeda inspired jihadists hijacked four aircraft and mounted the deadliest terrorist attack in history The outrage triggered a chain of events that saw British forces drawn into a lengthy military campaign against a fierce insurgency in Afghanistan In the immediate aftermath of the 9 11 attacks NATO invoked Article 5 of the Washington Treaty that obligated military assistance to the United States The British government supported the initial US invasion of Afghanistan in 2001 and subsequently committed troops to Kabul and northern Afghanistan from 2002 onwards However in January 2006 following NATO s expansion southwards Britain committed a battlegroup from the Parachute Regiment to Helmand Province in what became known as Operation Herrick with Defence Secretary John Reid stating he would be perfectly happy to leave in three years and without firing one shot The reality was very different From 2006 to 2014 a succession of British task forces rotated through Helmand and fought against an implacable enemy When they finally withdrew in 2014 British forces had suffered losses of more than 450 killed and 2 000 wounded The Taliban were not defeated and would grow stronger Sergio Miller served in Defence Intelligence in Whitehall throughout the campaign and Pride and Fall answers the many questions surrounding the conflict Based on abundant open source material generated by the war and first hand testimonies this is the story of the men and women who served

Vanishing Roads and Other Essays Richard Le Gallienne, 2019-11-29 In Vanishing Roads and Other Essays Richard Le Gallienne delves into the nuanced landscape of human experience through a series of reflective essays marked by lyrical prose and keen observation Spanning themes such as nature travel and the ephemeral beauty of life Le Gallienne's work invites readers to ponder the transient paths we traverse His style imbued with a romantic sensibility places him within the rich literary context of the late 19th and early 20th centuries a time when writers like John Burroughs and Thomas Hardy similarly explored humanity's relationship with the natural world Richard Le Gallienne a prominent figure in Edwardian literature was influenced by his experiences as a traveler and a passionate advocate for the art of living A poet and critic Le Gallienne's literary journey was shaped by his fascination with aesthetics and the fleeting moments of beauty in everyday life His diverse experiences ranging from a stint in journalism to a profound engagement with nature led to the contemplative wisdom reflected in this collection resonating with a generation seeking depth amidst the burgeoning modernity This remarkable compilation is highly recommended for readers seeking introspection and a deeper understanding of life's transitory nature Vanishing Roads and Other Essays not only captivates with its poetic eloquence but also serves as a meditative guide urging readers to explore the roads less traveled and embrace the beauty of fleeting existence

An Enemy We Created Alex Strick van Linschoten, Felix Kuehn, 2012 To this day the belief is widespread that the Taliban and al Qaeda are in many respects synonymous that their ideology and objectives are closely intertwined and that they have made common cause against the West for decades Yet this view have hardly ever been scrutinized or tested empirically This is all the more surprising given that the West's present entanglement in Afghanistan is commonly predicated on the need to defeat the Taliban in order to forestall further terrorist attacks worldwide There is thus an urgent need to re-examine the known facts of the Taliban al Qaeda relationship and to tell the story of the Taliban's encounter with internationalist militant Islamism In An Enemy We Created Alex Strick van Linschoten and Felix Kuehn focus on the complexity of the relationship between the two groups and the individuals who established them The book which has already been cited prominently in The New Yorker is the first to examine in detail the relationship from the Taliban's perspective based on Arabic Dari and Pashtu sources drawing on the authors many years of experience in southern Afghanistan the Taliban's heartland They also interviewed Taliban decision makers field commanders and ordinary fighters while immersing themselves in Kandahar's society The story of those individuals who were to become the key decision makers and the relationships among all those involved from the mid 1990s onward reveal how frequently the Taliban and al Qaeda diverged rather than converged An Enemy We Created concludes that there is room to engage the Taliban on two fundamental issues renouncing al Qaeda and guaranteeing that Afghanistan will not be a sanctuary for international terrorists Yet the insurgency is changing and it could soon be too late to find a political solution The authors contend that certain aspects of the campaign in Afghanistan especially night raids and attempts to fragment and decapitate the Taliban are transforming the resistance creating more opportunities for al Qaeda and helping it to attain its objectives Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare ,2012 Farewell to Arms Rumela Sen,2021 How in the absence of institutional mechanisms do Maoist rebels in India quit an ongoing insurgency without getting killed How do rebels give up arms and return to the same political processes that they had once sought to overthrow The question of weaning rebels away from extremist groups is highly significant in counterinsurgency and in the pacification of insurgencies In Farewell to Arms Rumela Sen goes to the rebels themselves and breaks down the protracted process of rebel retirement into a multi staged journey as the rebels see it She draws on several rounds of interviews with current and former Maoist rebels as well as security personnel administrators activists politicians and civilians in two conflict zones in North and South India The choice to quit an insurgency she finds depends on locally embedded informal exit networks The relative weakness of these networks in North India means that fewer rebels quit than in the South where more feel that they can disarm without getting killed Sen shows that these networks grow out of the grassroots civic associations in the gray zone of state insurgency interface Correcting the course for future policy Sen provides a new explanation of rebel retirement that will be essential to any policymaker or scholar working to end protracted insurgencies The Smart Set ,1913 Preliminary Study of Certain Financial Laws and Institutions : France United States. Department of the Treasury. Office of the General Counsel,James R. Brooks,1944 Transitional Justice in South Asia Tazreena Sajjad,2013-08-21 Offering a comparative case study of transitional justice processes in Afghanistan and Nepal this book critically evaluates the way the local is consulted in post conflict efforts toward peace and reconciliation It argues that there is a tendency in transitional justice efforts to contain the discussion of the local within religious and cultural parameters thus engaging only with a static local as interpreted by certain local stakeholders Based on data collected through interviews and participant observation carried out in the civil societies of the respective countries this book brings attention to a dynamic local where societal norms evolve and realities on the ground are shaped by shifting power dynamics local hierarchies and inequalities between actors It suggests that the local must be understood as an inter subjective concept the meaning of which is not only an evolving and moving target but also dependent on who is consulted to interpret it to external actors This timely book engages with the divergent range of civil society voices and offers ways to move forward by including their concerns in the efforts to help impoverished war torn societies transition from a state of war to the conditions of peace Cities of Gold Douglas Preston,1999-03 A modern horseback journey across 1 000 miles of desert and wilderness following the trail of the first European explorer in the American Southwest The Laws of the Gold Coast Gold Coast,1954 SEC Docket United States.
