War II Stephen W. Sears, 2015-11-27 the greatest war of all time told as it is best told by the people who lived it The Washington Post All first person accounts of great events have their own fascination but the editors of American Heritage have discovered that people writing about World War II seem to tell their own story with particular passion and eloquence That is one reason American Heritage has published so many of them and why noted military historian Stephen W Sears has selected the most compelling The result of his search is a uniquely moving and valuable anthology a series of personal histories that marshaled together become an intimate history of the Second World War Here is Edward Beach the highly decorated submarine skipper and author of Run Silent Run Deep recalling what it was like to be sent into hostile waters with torpedoes that didn't work Charles Cawthon recounts the landing at Normandy Beach in a restrained and poetic narrative whose quiet humor does nothing to blunt the savagery of the experience General James Gavin tells of the jump into Sicily and of a battle fought that never should have been fought Hughes Rudd watched the war from overhead in a flimsy spotter plane his Maytag Messerschmitt and William Manchester remembers a particularly audacious and hilarious scam that a reckless Marine buddy played on the entire army Some of the stories are heartbreaking some amusing some horrifying but every one of them whether told by the women who hammered fighter planes together or the men who flew them glows with hard won experience Eyewitness To Power David Gergen, 2001-02-21 From Nixon to Clinton Watergate to Whitewater few

Americans have observed the ups and downs of presidential leadership more closely over the past thirty years than David Gergen A White House adviser to four presidents both Republican and Democrat he offers a vivid behind the scenes account of their struggles to exercise power and draws from them key lessons for leaders of the future Gergen begins Eyewitness to Power with his reminiscence of being the thirty year old chief of the White House speechwriting team under Richard Nixon a young man at the center of the Watergate storm He analyzes what made Nixon strong and then brought him crashing down Why Nixon was the best global strategist among recent presidents How others may gain his strategic sense How Nixon allowed his presidency to spin out of control Why the demons within destroyed him What lessons there are in Nixon's disaster Gergen recounts how President Ford recruited him to help shore up his White House as special counsel Here Gergen considers Why Ford is one of our most underrated presidents Why his pardon of Nixon was right on the merits but was so mishandled that it cost him his presidency Even in his brief tenure Ford offers lessons of leadership for others as Gergen explains Though Gergen had worked in two campaigns against him Ronald Reagan called him back to the White House again where he served as the Gipper's first director of communications Here he describes How Reagan succeeded where others have failed Why his temperament was more important than his intelligence How he mastered relations with Congress and the press The secrets of the Great Communicator and why his speeches were the most effective since those of John Kennedy and Franklin Roosevelt In 1993 Bill Clinton surprised Gergen and the political world when he recruited the veteran of Republican White Houses to join him as counselor after his early stumbles Gergen reveals Why Clinton could have been one of our best presidents but fell short How the Bill and Hillary seesaw rocked the White House How failures to understand the past brought Ken Starr to the door Why the new ways in which leadership was developed by the Clinton White House hold out hope and what dangers they threaten As the twenty first century opens Gergen argues a new golden age may be dawning in America but its realization will depend heavily upon the success of a new generation at the top Drawing upon all his many experiences in the White House he offers seven key lessons for leaders of the future What they must have he says are inner mastery a central compelling purpose rooted in moral values a capacity to persuade skills in working within the system a fast start a strong effective team and a passion that inspires others to keep the flame alive Eyewitness to Power is a down to earth authoritative guide to leadership in the tradition of Richard Neustadt's Presidential Power and the Modern Presidents
