west side of Washington and it served as the terminus for the transcontinental railroad's northern route. Now you can discover all the hidden clues about this wonderful city's past. From outlandish mansions to the largest private collection of cast iron in the world, there are so many hidden parts of Tacoma that should be cherished. Tacoma once hosted some of the most exciting innovations like the world's longest wheat warehouse and the first police crime lab in the nation. It also welcomed visionaries like Mark Twain and George Francis Train, the man who inspired Around the World in 80 Days. All of these incredible people left behind clues and hidden hangouts today like the abandoned bathhouse beneath a family restaurant you just need to know where to look to find them.
