Gone For Good Egyptian Migration Processes In The Arab World:

Gone for Good? Ralph R. Sell, 1987 Main Characteristic and Development Trends of Migration in the Arab World Jaroslav Bureš, 2008-01-01 Monografie se zaměřuje na popis a hodnocení historických kořenů a souasných trendů migrace. Hlavní pozornost je věnována oblastem Maghribu, Egyptu, Maroku a zemím Zblív. The Palgrave Handbook of Critical International Political Economy Alan Cafruny, Leila Simona Talani, Gonzalo Pozo Martin, 2016-07-05 Challenging the assumptions of mainstream International Political Economy (IPE) this Handbook demonstrates the considerable value of critical theory to the discipline through a series of cutting edge studies. The field of IPE has always had an inbuilt vocation within Historical Materialism with an explicit ambition to make sense from a critical standpoint of the capitalist mode of production as a world system of sometimes paradoxically and sometimes smoothly overlapping states and markets. Having spearheaded the growth of a vigorous critical scholarship in the 1960s and 1970s however Marxism and neo Gramscian approaches became increasingly marginalized over the course of the 1980s. The authors respond to the exposure of limits to mainstream contemporary scholarship in the wake of the onset of the Global Financial Crisis and provide a comprehensive overview of the field of Critical International Political Economy. Problematizing socioeconomic and political structures and considering these as potentially transitory and subject to change the contributors aim not simply to understand a world of conflict but furthermore to uncover the ways in which purportedly objective analyses reflect the interests of those in positions of privilege and power. The Modern Middle East Camron Michael Amin, Benjamin C. Fortna, Elizabeth B. Frierson, 2006-04-06 Collects English translations of various sources from 1700 to 2005 that offer information on the history, development and policies of the Middle East. The International Political Economy of Migration in the Globalization Era Leila Simona Talani, 2021-09-28 This book concerns with the analysis of the impact of globalization on international migration from a distinct international political economy perspective. It confronts theoretical debates from the different international political economy (IPE) approaches and elaborates on the implications of different theories in policymaking and political realms. Here migration is examined as an integral part of the global political economy that is structurally connected to the process of globalization although the definition of globalization itself is a subject of enquiry. From Egypt to Europe Leila Simona Talani, 2009-11-30 How does the process of globalisation relate to the increase of migratory flows from less developed countries to western ones? This book explores the impact of globalisation upon migration from an international political economy perspective, paying particular attention to the dynamics of migration from the Middle East and North Africa area, especially Egypt, to the EU member countries. The theoretical aims of the book are to understand the problem of migration both legal and illegal in the context of globalisation and to assess the relation between globalisation, marginalisation and the EU response to threats of mass immigration from less developed countries. The Arab Spring in the Global Political Economy L. Talani, 2014-07-29 Although it is still early for an established academic account of the motivations behind the dramatic events in the Arab world in 2010 11 Leila Simona Talani believes that it is about time to try and place this issue into the broader picture of the latest changes in the global political economy

Media of the Masses Andrew Simon, 2022-04-19 Media of the Masses investigates the social life of an everyday technology the cassette tape to offer a multisensory history of modern Egypt Over the 1970s and 1980s cassettes became a ubiquitous presence in Egyptian homes and stores Audiocassette technology gave an opening to ordinary individuals from singers to smugglers to challenge state controlled Egyptian media Enabling an unprecedented number of people to participate in the creation of culture and circulation of content cassette players and tapes soon informed broader cultural political and economic developments and defined modern Egyptian households Drawing on a wide array of audio visual and textual sources that exist outside the Egyptian National Archives Andrew Simon provides a new entry point into understanding everyday life and culture Cassettes and cassette players he demonstrates did not simply join other twentieth century mass media like records and radio they were the media of the masses Comprised of little more than magnetic reels in plastic cases cassettes empowered cultural consumers to become cultural producers long before the advent of the Internet Positioned at the productive crossroads of social history cultural anthropology and media and sound studies Media of the Masses ultimately shows how the most ordinary things may yield the most surprising insights Handbook of the International Political Economy of Migration Leila Simona Talani, Simon McMahon, 2015-08-28 This Handbook discusses theoretical approaches to migration studies in general as well as confronting various issues in international migration from a distinctive and unique international political economy perspective With a focus on the relation bet Gulf and Gender Soraya Duval de Dampierre, 1996 Iraq St. Antony's College (University of Oxford), 1993 Redefining the Egyptian Nation, 1930-1945 Israel Gershoni, I. Gershoni, James P. Jankowski, 2002-08-08 The authors examine the emergence of nationalism among the Egyptian middle class during the 1930s and 1940s and its growing awareness of an Arab and Muslim identity Previously Egypt did not define itself in these terms but adopted a territorial and isolationist outlook It is the revolutionary transformation in Egyptian self understanding which took place during this period that provides the focus of this study The authors demonstrate how the growth of an urban middle class combined with economic and political failures in the 1930s eroded the foundations of the earlier order Alongside domestic events the momentum of Arabism abroad and the impact of events in Palestine necessitated Egyptian regional involvement Egypt's present position as a major player in Arab Muslim and Third World affairs has its roots in the fundamental transition of Egyptian national identity at this time Pop Culture Arab World! Andrew Hammond, 2004-12-15 The first book to explore how Arab pop culture has succeeded in helping forge a pan Arab identity where Arab nationalism has failed Pop Culture Arab World is the first volume to explore the full scope of Arab cultural life since World War II The book reveals a homogeneous yet richly diverse culture across the Arab nations In depth chapters feature radio TV particularly the satellite revolution which has fostered a shared Arab identity the press vibrant and controversial cinema once thriving now in crisis music the beating heart of modern Arabness theater a largely assimilated Western import popular religion belly dance originating in the Arab world Western consumerism sport and the Arabic language for Muslims the tongue of God's final revelation At a time when almost all we see of the Middle East is violence oppressive nationalism dangerous zealotry and despair this book is a vivid reminder of the humanity of the region's diverse people

Structural Flaws in the Middle East Process J. W. Wright Jr, 2002-02-07 Negotiations between Israel and the Arab states have continued in one form or another for over a decade through three Israeli administrations the death of a King of Jordan and through countless riots and incidences of protest by Palestinians and Jews alike The agreements that have been reached and some situations established by defacto rule and force majeure have created possibly irreversible economic and political structures This collection presents a debate among eminent scholars and public officials over the power these structures engender in the region

The Palgrave Handbook of International Labour Migration M. Panizzon, G. Zurcher, E. Fornalé, 2016-01-18 This Handbook focuses on the complexity surrounding the interaction between trade labour mobility and development taking into consideration social economic and human rights implications and identifies mechanisms for lawful movements across borders and their practical implementation

Handbook of Culture and Migration Jeffrey H. Cohen, Ibrahim Sirkeci, 2021-01-29 Capturing the important place and power role that culture plays in the decision making process of migration this Handbook looks at human movement outside of a vacuum taking into account the impact of family relationships access to resources and security and insecurity at both the points of origin and destination

Fortress Europe? Annette Jünemann, Nikolas Scherer, Nicolas Fromm, 2017-03-16 An unprecedented number of people is currently on the move seeking refuge in Europe Large parts of European societies respond with anxiety and mistrust to the influx of people Nationalist anti migrant parties from Slovakia over Germany to the UK have gained increasing support among the electorate and challenge the political mainstream Europe is struggling how to respond While the search for solutions is ongoing one pattern seems to be emerging Fortress Europe is in the making Unfortunately few of these discussions and measures consider the structural root causes and dynamics of migration the motives of migrants or societal challenges more thoroughly This book seeks to address this deficit Taking migration and asylum policies as a starting point it analyses the various dimensions underpinning migration In doing so it identifies why receiving countries are in many ways part of the problem To eschew an overtly Euro centric perspective and stimulate a debate between science and politics it contains contributions by academics and practitioners alike from both shores of the Mediterranean

The Israeli-Egyptian Peace Process in the Reporting of Western Journalists Mohammed el-Nawawy, 2002-01-30 Of the enormous number of books published on the Arab Israeli conflict most focus on its history or the political dimensions of the current peace process None however has provided an in depth look at the relationship between those who shape the events and the Western journalists who cover them In this bold new study Mohammed A el Nawawy explores the ways in which government officials try to manipulate the news media how the reporters contend with such interference the professional and newsmaking roles of the journalists and how their demographic and educational backgrounds influence their coverage of this crucial time and place Through interviews with 168 Western correspondents 94 in Israel and 74 in Egypt who together represent more than 88 percent of the whole population of foreign correspondents in the Middle East the author provides an invaluable source of information on the day to day activities of reporters in the region as well as their interactions with government officials

The Economic Development Process in the Middle East and North Africa Alessandro Romagnoli, Luisa Mengoni, 2013-11-12 Offering a comprehensive analysis of the development of economies in the Middle East and North Africa over the past half century this book charts the progress of these countries through an examination of an Islamic model of economic development reform processes and economic integration Far from being a simple process economic development in the Middle East and North Africa is dependent on the interaction of a set of changing systems including international relations the political regime economy and society By analysing these interdependent factors The Economic Development Process in MENA seeks to provide answers to the most pressing issues facing the economies in this area Providing an interpretation of regional development in light of dialectics between state and society this book will be of value to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East Economics and International Relations

Religious Strife in Egypt (RLE Egypt) Nadia Farah, 2013-01-03 This critical analysis investigates the causes that brought about one of the most tumultuous periods in modern Egyptian history the clashes between the Muslims and Copts during the 1970s A unique retrospective it features probing interviews with Egyptian intellectuals writers political and religious leaders as well as common citizens from both the Muslim and Copt communities Within a framework of economic political and ideological factors Nadia Ramsis Farah is able to synthesize a compelling portrait of a troubled national conscience in the face of religious strife First published 1986
