The Critical Imagination in African Literature Maik Nwosu, Obiwu, 2015-06-09 In African studies the Echeruoan ideal is understood as an intervention or intellectual engagement characterized by a broadness of vision as well as a depth of analysis The essays gathered in this volume celebrate that ideal and honor Echeruo's contribution to the African intellectual tradition Editors Nwosu and Obiwu explore the driving forces in the literature of Africa and the African diaspora Contributors examine such themes as migration and exile trauma and repression violence and rebellion and gender and human rights Showcasing a rich diversity of cultural and academic backgrounds this volume inaugurates a new paradigm for further examination of African literature as world literature and for analysis of African literature through the lens of psychoanalytic semiotics While varied in modes of inquiry the essays are unified in their ambition to explore new theoretical directions reinvigorating the conversation around how African literature is read and studied

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Parekh, 1998-07-17 Postcolonial African writers have made an enormous contribution to world literature These writers frequently examine such issues as emerging identities in the postcolonial climate neo colonialism and new forms of oppression cultural and political hegemonies neo elitism language appropriation and economic instability During the last decade their works have elicited increasing critical attention This reference book overviews the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume focuses on how postcoloniality is reflected in the novels poetry prose and drama of major minor and emerging writers from diverse countries in Africa including representative North and South African writers as well as writers of the Indian diaspora born in Africa While authors in indigenous African languages continue to produce valuable works the volume principally considers Anglophone and Francophone authors along with two Lusophone writers The reference book begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing The volume then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of approximately 60 writers such as Chinua Achebe Ama Ata Aidoo Tsitsi Dangarembga Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Tabar Ben Jelloun Doris Lessing Peter Nazareth Gabriel Okara Femi Osofisan and Efua Theodora Sutherland Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's works and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many valuable perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu, Iniobong I. Uko, 2004 Chinua Achebe's influence on contemporary African literature is as much in evidence in his art of the novel as his theory of African literature and literary criticism ISINKA Igbo term for artistic purpose establishes Achebe's legacy as a literary theorist and critic In these essays scholars from around the globe assess and establish how much Achebe's extra-fictional ideas about African literature and literature in general are justified in his own creative works

Remembering a Legend: Chinua Achebe Emenyonu, Ernest N., Nnolim, Charles E., 2014-12-01 Remembering a Legend Chinua Achebe recaptures for the literary world the inimitable legacies of Chinua Achebe 1930-2013 Africa's leading novelist and literary philosopher of the 20th century It addresses the questions of Achebe's role in establishing the African art of the novel his theories and standards for the criticism of African writing The volume articulates unequivocally how Achebe provided the message and pioneered a confident voice to African writers to express the message with audacity repudiate without equivocation any form of distortions of African past and present realities The essays remind the reader how Achebe brought to the field of world literature new perspectives and vitality that distinguished the African art of storytelling from imaginative creativities elsewhere This volume presents Achebe's articulation of the traditional and modern in African narrative techniques linking the skills of the traditional artist oral performer to those of the modern writer how the modern African creative artist can embellish his her art with oral resources such as folktales proverbs sayings festivals songs riddles and myths Chinua Achebe s unique distinctions as a novelist lie in the areas of informed vision and artistic integrity His greatest legacy to 20th century world literature probably is his pioneer role in the nativization and ingenious use of the English language The exceptional genius of Achebe touched many traditional and cultural bases in his fiction essays and memoirs The critical responses to Achebe s works in this book address adequately almost every aspect of his creative imagination and craftsmanship The reader will find in this convenient volume several seminal studies by two eminent scholars of Achebe s intriguing genius that authenticate him as among the best literary craftsmen of the 20th century and undeniably Africa s best African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe,2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa s literature is different from West Africa s which is quite different from South Africa s which has different influences on it than North Africa s Africa s literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes Chinua Achebe Jago Morrison,2016-05-16 Chinua Achebe has long been regarded as Africa s foremost writer In this major new study Jago Morrison offers a comprehensive reassessment of his work as an author broadcaster editor and political thinker With new historically contextualised readings of all of his major works this is the first study to view Achebe s oeuvre in its entirety from Things Fall Apart and the early novels through the revolutionary Ahiara Declaration previously attributed to Emeka Ojukwu to the revealing final works The Education of a British Educated Child and There Was a Country Contesting previous interpretations which align Achebe too easily with this or that nationalist programme the book reveals Achebe as a much more troubled figure than critics have habitually assumed Authoritative and wide ranging this book will be essential reading for scholars and students of Achebe s work in the twenty first century

The Life and Times of Chinua Achebe Kalu Ogbaa,2021-08-31 The Life and Times of Chinua Achebe introduces readers to the life literary works and times of arguably the most widely read African novelist of recent times an icon both in continental Africa and abroad The book weaves together the story of Chinua Achebe a young Igboman whose novel Things Fall Apart opened the eyes of the world to a more realistic image of Africa that was warped by generations of European travelers colonists and writers Whilst continuing to write further influential novels and essays Achebe also taught other African writers to use their skills to help their national leaders to fight for their freedoms in the post colonial era as internal warfare compounded the damage caused by European powers during the colonial era In this book Kalu Ogbaa an esteemed expert on Achebe and his works draws on extensive research and personal interviews with the great man and his colleagues and friends to tell the story of Achebe and his work This intimate and powerful new biography will be essential reading for students and scholars of Chinua Achebe and to anyone with an interest in the literature and post colonial politics of Africa

Poetry, Print, and the Making of Postcolonial Literature Nathan Suhr-Sytsma, 2017-07-10 Poetry Print and the Making of Postcolonial Literature reveals an intriguing history of relationships among poets and editors from Ireland and Nigeria as well as Britain and the Caribbean during the mid twentieth century era of decolonization The book explores what such leading anglophone poets as Seamus Heaney Christopher Okigbo and Derek Walcott had in common peripheral origins and a desire to address transnational publics without expatriating themselves The book reconstructs how they gained the imprimatur of both local and London based cultural institutions It shows furthermore how political crises challenged them to reconsider their poetry s publics Making substantial use of unpublished archival material Nathan Suhr Sytsma examines poems in print often the pages on which they first appeared in order to chart the transformation of the anglophone literary world He argues that these poets achievements cannot be extricated from the transnational networks through which their poems circulated and which they in turn remade

Yansané, 1996-07-11 This text examines development and related factors such as foreign trade politics indigenous traditions and international relations The strengths and weaknesses of various development strategies including ideas for the future such as the inclusion of the human dimension are discussed

Digging the Africanist Presence in American Performance Brenda D. Gottschild, 1996-05-28 This ground breaking work brings dance into current discussions of the African presence in American culture Dixon Gottschild argues that the Africanist aesthetic has been invisibilized by the pervasive force of racism This book provides evidence to correct and balance the record investigating the Africanist presence as a conditioning factor in shaping American performance onstage and in everyday life She examines the Africanist presence in American dance forms particularly in George Balanchine's Americanized style of ballet post modern dance and blackface minstrelsy Hip hop culture and rap are related to contemporary performance showing how a disenfranchised culture affects the culture in power

African Writers and Their Readers Bernth Lindfors, 2002 Like its companion volume African Writers and Their Readers is a magnificent and monumental tribute to Bernth Lindfors the scholar who transformed African literary studies in North America The quality of scholarship that has gone into these essays and their range of cultural and historical reference is perhaps one of the most vocal testaments to the significance of the Lindfors factor in African literary scholarship Simon Gikandi Professor of English Language and Literature at the University of Michigan
