Good And Mad Women The Historical Construction Of Femininity In Twentieth Century Australia:

Good and Mad Women Jill Julius Matthews, 1984      Colonial Girlhood in Literature, Culture and History, 1840-1950 K. Moruzi, M. Smith, 2014-08-25 Colonial Girlhood in Literature Culture and History 1840 1950 explores a range of real and fictional colonial girlhood experiences from Jamaica Mauritius South Africa India New Zealand Australia England Ireland and Canada to reflect on the transitional state of girlhood between childhood and adulthood      From Superwomen to Domestic Goddesses Natasha Campo, 2009 This book examines the rise and fall of feminism in the public imagination in the last twenty years and explains why feminism failed me has become the catch cry of a generation Today many women turn their back on feminism because they feel betrayed by the promises of feminism Yet during the 1980s the popular ideal of the Superwoman offered a source of empowerment and pride for women and equality with men even having it all seemed possible Through a close reading of popular culture sources this book shows how women s engagement with feminism has shifted over time and considers its future as a social movement      Women in Higher Education, 1850-1970 E. Lisa Panayotidis, Paul Stortz, 2017-09-19 This edited collection illustrates the way in which women s experiences of academe could be both contextually diverse but historically and culturally similar It looks at both the micro individual women and universities and macro level comparative analyses among regions and countries within regional national trans national and international contexts The contributors integrally advance knowledge about the university in history by exploring the intersections of the lived experiences of women students and professors practices of co education and intellectual and academic cultures They also raise important questions about the complementary and multidirectional flow and exchange of academic knowledge and information among gender groups across programmes disciplines and universities Historical inquiry and interpretation serve as efficacious ways with which to understand contemporary events and discourses in higher education and more broadly in community and society This book will provide important historical contexts for current debates about the numerical dominance and significance of women in higher education and the tensions embedded in the gendering of specific academic programs and disciplines and university policies missions and mandates      Australian Mothering Carla Pascoe Leahy, Petra Bueskens, 2020-01-28 This collection defines the field of maternal studies in Australia for the first time Leading motherhood researchers explore how mothering has evolved across Australian history as well as the joys and challenges of being a mother today The contributors cover pregnancy birth relationships childcare domestic violence time use work welfare policy and psychology from a diverse range of maternal perspectives Utilising a matricentric feminist framework Australian Mothering foregrounds the experiences emotions and perspectives of mothers to better understand how Australian motherhood has developed historically and contemporaneously Drawing upon their combined sociological and historical expertise Bueskens and Pascoe Leahy have carefully curated a collection that presents compelling research on past and present perspectives on maternity in Australia which will be relevant to researchers advocates and policy makers interested in the changing role of mothers in Australian society      Gender Fields Sofia Aboim, Pedro Vasconcelos, 2024-09-30 Exploring gender through the lens of field theory Gender Fields proposes a new framework for understanding the social organisation of gender identity In conversation with Pierre Bourdieu's field theory the book conceptualises under theorised situated dimensions of gender bridging the gap between macro and micro theories of gender Drawing on extensive fieldwork conducted over five years in several countries in Europe and beyond the authors situate gender as a critical site of autonomous socio political struggle and highlight the centrality of the transgender experience in redefining gendered personhood and freedom Increased trans visibility catalysed new social and political arenas of contestation that expanded the potential for reimagining gender norms and identities The authors examine political and legal arenas the medical field and health markets gender naming individual practices and material discursive embodiments offering new insights into gender change While numerous explanations have been proposed this book offers a fresh perspective on these revolutionary developments Gender Fields characterises gender as a field of struggle through a set of basic tools that can be usefully applied to studies in diverse settings As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with an interest in issues of gender social theory and identity      The Politics of Australian Child Care Deborah Brennan, 1998-04-06 This revised edition is a political history of child care in Australia from the 1890s to the late 1990s

Key Concepts in Gender Studies Jane Pilcher, Imelda Whelehan, 2016-12-13 The new edition of Key Concepts in Gender Studies is a lively and engaging introduction to this dynamic field Thoroughly revised throughout the second edition benefits from the addition of nine new concepts including Gender Social Movements Intersectionality and Mainstreaming Each of the entries begins with a concise definition outlines the history of each term and the debates surrounding it includes illustrations of how the concept has been applied within the field offers examples which allow a critical re evaluation of the concept is cross referenced with the other key concepts ends with guidance on further reading A must buy for undergraduate and postgraduate students in a range of social science and humanities disciplines      Schooling Reform In Hard Times Bob Lingard, John Knight, Paige Porter, 2003-09-02 Based on research carried out under Labour governments throughout the 1990s in Western Australia the authors consider the social political and economic conditions under which policy is formulated understood and enacted They look at how the state structure affects the content and nature of policy statements and provide an outline of the history of policy developments and point to future possibilities and probabilities Outcomes within funding ceilings accountability frameworks and national guidelines are but some of the changes referred to The emergence of competency based standards in education and training in schools workplaces and the professions is evident throughout Australia at state level but the concern is whether issues of education should be played out within the state and outside civil society The authors argue for the mediation in implementation of policy rather than a lambasting of policy formulation and implementation This text is intended for heads of education departments PGCE BEd MEd students and researchers interested in education policy and planning Education policymakers and educational historians Women's Work in Rural China Tamara Jacka, 1997 Based on interviews with rural Chinese women officials and social scientists and on Chinese newspapers journals and academic reports Analyses the situation of women of Han nationality with rural household registration most of whom worked in townships and villages but some of whom worked in cities Delineates patterns in gender divisions of labour in the context of economic reform 50 Key Concepts in Gender Studies Jane Pilcher, Imelda Whelehan, 2004-04-10 The authors introduction gives an account of gender studies what it is and how it originated Their selection of topics is authoritative and the 50 entries reflect the complex multi faceted nature of the field in an accessible dictionary format Distorted Bodies and Suffering Souls. Chantal Kwast-Greff, 2013 Chaos Pain Self mutilation Women starve themselves They burn or slash their own flesh or their babies throats and slam their newborns against walls Their bodies are the canvases on which the suffering of the soul carves itself with knife and razor In Australian fiction written by women between 1984 and 1994 female characters inscribe their inner chaos on their bodies to exert whatever power they have over themselves Their self inflicted pain is both reaction and language the bodily sign not only of their enfeeblement but also to a certain extent of their empowerment of themselves and their world The texts considered in this book chiefly by Margaret Coombs Kate Grenville Fiona Place Penelope Rowe Leone Sperling and Amy Witting function as both defiance and acceptance of prevailing discourses of femininity and patriarchy between submission and a possible future The narratives of anorexia bulimia fatness self mutilation incest and murder shock the reader into an understanding of deeper meanings of body and soul and prompt a tentative interpretation of fiction in relation to the world of real women and men in contemporary white Australia This is affective literature with the reader in voyeuristic complicity Holding up the mirror of fiction the women writers act perforce as a social lever their narratives as Bildungsromane But there is a risk that of reinforcing stereotypes and codes of conduct which supposedly long gone still represent women as victims Why are the female characters self destroyers and victims Why are they not heroes saviours or conquerors If women read about women themselves and feel pity for the Other they read about they will also feel pity for themselves there is little happiness in being a woman But infanticide and distorting the body are problem solving behaviours In truth the bodies of the female characters bear the marks and scars of the history of their mothers and the history of their grandmothers indeed that of their own the history of survivors Homophobia Shirleene Robinson, 2008 Homophobia is a prejudice with effects that extend far beyond the gay and lesbian community While its physical emotional and social effects have been charted to some extent the development of homophobia in Australia has yet to be fully explored Homophobia An Australian History is the first book to consider homophobia in a distinctively Australian context In this collection thirteen well known scholars examine the embedded homophobic attitudes that Australian gay and lesbian activists have fought to change The book traces the evolution of homophobia from its expression in Australia's past as a colonial settler society through to manifestations in present day society The compilation of this text is timely given the 2007 release of the Same Sex Same Entitlements report of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission The release of this report which focused on institutionalised and legal homophobia has raised public awareness of these issues and sparked broader debates about homosexual rights The thirtieth anniversary of Sydney's Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras earlier this year also offers an ideal opportunity to reflect on the past gains and future goals of the gay and lesbian rights movement The collected chapters in this book argue that homophobia developed in conjunction with the growth of a modern homosexual identity in the second half of the nineteenth century To various extents the legal and medical professions and other social institutions have perpetuated homophobic attitudes Homophobia An Australian History raises awareness of the devastating impact these attitudes can have on individuals and on society Addendum At the commencement of Page IX Dr Ruth Ford's name and academic position was omitted Dr Ford's biographical entry under Notes on Contributors should read Dr Ruth Ford is a lecturer in Australian history at La Trobe University She has published extensively on Australian lesbian queer and gender history She is currently attempting to combine motherhood with researching writing and teaching Her publications include articles in Labour History Gender and History UK and Australian Historical Studies as well as book chapters in Madness in Australia histories heritage and the asylum edited by Catharine Coleborne and Dolly MacKinnon Gender and War Australians at war in the twentieth century edited by Joy Damousi and Marilyn Lake and Sex Power and Justice historical perspectives on the law in Australia 1788 1990 edited by Diane Kirkby

The Rise of the Therapeutic Society Katie Wright, 2015-02-25 An examination of the Western world's contemporary fascination with psychological life and the historical developments that fostered it In this book sociologist Katie Wright traces the ascendancy of therapeutic culture from nineteenth century concerns about nervousness to the growth of psychology the diffusion of an analytic attitude and the spread of therapy and counseling using Australia as a focal point Wright's analysis which draws on social theory cultural history and interviews with therapists and people in therapy calls into question the pessimism that pervades many accounts of the therapeutic turn and provides an alternative assessment of its ramifications for social political and personal life in the globalized West Special Commendation TASA Raewyn Connell Prize

School-smart and Mother-wise Wendy Luttrell, 2016-02-04 School smart and Mother wise illustrates how and why American education disadvantages working class women when they are children and adults In it we hear working class women black and white rural and urban southern and northern recount their childhood experiences describing the circumstances that led them to drop out of school Now enrolled in adult education programs they seek more than a diploma respect recognition and a public identity Drawing upon the life stories of these women Wendy Luttrell sensitively describes and analyzes the politics and psychodynamics that shape working class life schooling and identity She examines the paradox of women's education particularly the relationship between schooling and mothering and offers practical suggestions for school reform exciting and unique new book offers a post modern analysis linking the contemporary social crisis of masculine subjectivity and the law and order crisis over escalating violence In doing so it examines the major biological psychological sociological and anthropological theoretical models of masculinity and violence and formulates an integrated theoretical approach to the relationship between violence and masculinity In essence the book focuses on violence as a gendered activity specifically a masculine activity Early chapters define and theorize both violence and masculinity and subsequent chapters focus on representations of violence and masculinity in popular culture Familiar but insightful examples from cartoons fiction television and the movies are used to illustrate the construction of masculinity in popular culture as well as the range of images of violence that dominate our senses Drawing from diverse literatures and traditions this engaging book is directed to advanced undergraduate and graduate students as well as professionals in Criminology Legal Studies Psychology Sociology Gender Studies and Cultural Studies Because of its theoretical aspects it will be of interest to students and scholars in the United Kingdom Australia and Canada as well as in the United States     On the Home Front Kate Darian-Smith,2009-04-01 What really happened on the Australian home front during the Second World War For the people of Melbourne these were years of social dislocation and increased government interference in all aspects of daily life On the Home Front is the story of their work leisure relationships and their fears for by 1942 the city was pitted with air raid trenches and in the half light of the brownout Melburnians awaited a Japanese invasion As women left the home to replace men in factories and offices the traditional roles of mothers and wives were challenged The presence of thousands of American soldiers in Melbourne raised new questions about Australian nationalism and identity and the carnival spirit of many on the home front created anxiety about the issues of drunkenness gambling and sexuality Kate Darian Smith s classic and evocative study of Melbourne in wartime draws upon the memories of men and women who lived through those turbulent years when society grappled with the tensions between a restrictive government and new opportunities for social and sexual freedoms     Where it Hurts Cherry Russell,Toni Schofield,2024-07-05 First published in 1986 Where it hurts provides a straightforward and accessible introduction to sociology for beginning students In dealing with key areas of sociology such as class gender race and ethnicity age work and the state and grounding theory and concepts in real issues it demonstrates how sociology works in a specific application the social history of health and health care Students for whom sociology is part of a health or welfare related course will find this a lively and thought provoking text But in its style and content it responds equally well to the demands of all beginning students in sociology for a clear and relevant introduction to the critical tradition     The Making and Breaking of the Australian Family Michael Gilding,2020-07-31 Once everyone knew what the family was It was something natural and without a history mum dad and the kids Divorce women in the workforce de facto relationships and the sexual liberation movements have fractured the old certainties Nowadays there is more talk about the family than ever even if no one is quite sure what it is anymore The making and breaking of the Australian family looks at the family in history

It traces the shift from the household economy of the late nineteenth century to the child centred nuclear family of the mid twentieth century to the recent proliferation of households The book argues that the so called traditional family was a quite recent creation and that its fragmentation is obscured by new redefinitions of the family The making and breaking of the Australian family addresses the changing experiences of childhood parenting home neighbourhood work birth and sexuality It examines the expansion of the market and the state patterns of class mobilisation the reconstruction of masculinity and femininity and the creative strategies of ordinary people in everyday life This is a lively and accessible book which will prove a valuable reference for students of history sociology women s studies and Australian studies and will generate wide discussion amongst people concerned with family policy welfare and contemporary social issues Gender and Power Raewyn Connell, 2014-05-15 This book is an important introductory textbook on sexual politics and an original contribution to the reformulation of social and political theory In a discussion of among other issues psychoanalysis Marxism and feminist theories the structure of gender relations and working class feminism Connell has produced a major work of synthesis and scholarship which will be of unique value to students and professionals in sociology politics women s studies and to anyone interested in the field of sexual politics Visit www.raewynconnell.net
