and Social Change in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union Charles Walker,Svetlana Stephenson,2013-09-13 Two decades have now passed since the revolutions of 1989 swept through Eastern Europe and precipitated the collapse of state socialism across the region engendering a period of massive social economic and political transformation This book explores the ways in which young people growing up in post socialist Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union negotiate a range of identities and transitions in their personal lives against a backdrop of thoroughgoing transformation in their societies Drawing upon original empirical research in a range of countries the book s contributors explore the various freedoms and insecurities that have accompanied neo liberal transformation in post socialist countries in spheres as diverse as consumption migration political participation volunteering employment and family formation and examine the ways in which they have begun to re shape different aspects of young people s lives In addition while social change is a central theme of the issue all of the chapters in the collection indicate that the new opportunities and risks faced by young people continue both to underpin and to be shaped by familiar social and spatial divisions not only within and between the countries addressed but also between East and West This book was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Youth Studies

Schools, Curriculum and Civic Education for Building Democratic Citizens Murray Print,Dirk Lange,2013-02-12 How can schools and the school curriculum contribute to building democratic citizens This is a major question posed by governments educational systems schools teachers and researchers around the world One important way is to identify the competences needed for preparing democratic citizens and incorporate these within both the formal and informal school curriculum Another question must then be posed what competences do young citizens need to be considered as active and engaged in modern democracies In 2011 an invited research symposium of leading civic and political educators and social scientists from across Europe met in Hannover Germany to consider this key concern facing Europe today In examining the above questions the symposium addressed two significant issues 1 Identify key competencies required for active citizenship of young people in Europe of the future 2 Translate those competencies to school based activities in the form of curricular and pedagogical strategies The publication Civic Education and Competences for Engaging Citizens in Democracies addressed the first issue and this volume addresses the second issue Through discussion in the invited symposium previously prepared papers and participation in a modified Delphi Technique the participants have prepared chapters for this book The chapters of this book represent the contribution of the participants before during and after the symposium with opportunities for review and reflection about competences for democratic citizenship and the role of schools and the curriculum Murray Print and Dirk Lange are professors from the University of Sydney and Leibniz University of Hannover respectively and are national leaders in civics and citizenship education in their respective countries They have brought together a group of leading European civic and citizenship educators from different academic fields to explore the key issue and to identify the competences for young people to become active and engaged European citizens

Citizenship and Moral Education Mark Halstead,Mark Pike,2006-08-21 Moral and citizenship education are again at the forefront of educational attention with the recent governmental announcements about revisions to the National Curriculum frameworks to 2000 and beyond This book addresses some of the central issues in moral and citizenship education facing teachers today embedding practical considerations in a theoretical context and reviewing teaching learning and assessment strategies It draws extensively on research but is written in a clear accessible style Citizenship and Moral Education examines the key concepts and provides an up to date overview of policy particularly addressing theoretical issues aims and approaches in relation to moral and citizenship education in a pluralist society the contributions of the curriculum extra curricular activities and the school ethos to citizenship and moral education in school teaching strategies materials pupil assessment and school evaluation The book also focuses on key professional and personal issues for teachers in undertaking moral citizenship education Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times Beth C. Rubin, James M. Giarelli, 2013-10-11 This book explores four interrelated themes rethinking civic education in light of the diversity of U S society re examining these notions in an increasingly interconnected global context re considering the ways that civic education is researched and practiced and taking stock of where we are currently through use of an historical understanding of civic education There is a gap between theory and practice in social studies education while social studies researchers call for teachers to nurture skills of analysis decision making and participatory citizenship students in social studies classrooms are often found participating in passive tasks e g quiz and test taking worksheet completion listening to lectures rather than engaging critically with the curriculum Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times directed at students researchers and practitioners of social studies education seeks to engage this divide by offering a collection of work that puts practice at the center of research and theory

2.1 Evolution of Indian Education Credits:4 Semester: S-1 KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2025-04-03 As the author of Evolution of Indian Education I am delighted to present this comprehensive text meticulously crafted for the ITEP 4 year Undergraduate Programme FYUP In an era where the role of an educator is constantly evolving it is paramount for aspiring teachers to not only grasp contemporary pedagogical practices but also to deeply understand the historical currents that have shaped our educational landscape This book embarks on an enlightening journey through the annals of Indian education from the profound wisdom of ancient Gurukuls to the transformative vision of Education 4.0 and the National Education Policy 2020 Our aim is to foster a nuanced understanding among student teachers enabling them to locate themselves effectively within the broader educational ecosystem By exploring the genesis vision and evolution of education in India from the Vedic period through the Mauryan Gupta colonial and post independence eras we seek to provide a robust historical perspective Furthermore this text highlights the invaluable contributions of towering Indian thinkers such as Savitribai and Jyotiba Phule Rabindranath Tagore Swami Vivekananda Mahatma Gandhi and Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar whose philosophies continue to inspire and guide our educational endeavors Ultimately this book is not merely a historical account it is a vital tool designed to empower student teachers to critically analyze educational paradigms anticipate future developments and most importantly to shape their own educational perspectives to act as effective and impactful educators in the 21st century
