Good Company A. R. Adams, 1976 The Analogue Alternative James S. Small, 2013-06-17 We are in the midst of a digital revolution until recently the majority of appliances used in everyday life have been developed with analogue technology Now either at home or out and about we are surrounded by digital technology such as digital film audio systems computers and telephones From the late 1940s until the 1970s analogue technology was a genuine alternative to digital and the two competing technologies ran parallel with each other During this period a community of engineers scientists academics and businessmen continued to develop and promote the analogue computer At the height of the Cold War this community and its technology met with considerable success in meeting the urgent demand for high speed computing for use in the design and simulation of rockets aircraft and manned space vehicles The Analogue Alternative tracks the development commercialisation and ultimate decline of the electronic analogue computer in the USA and Britain It examines the roles played by technical economic and cultural factors in the competition between the alternative technologies but more importantly James Small demonstrates that non technical factors such as the role of military enterprise and the working practices of analogue engineers have been the most crucial in analogue s demise l This book will be of interest to students of the history and sociology of science and technology particularly computing It will also be relevant to those interested in technical change and innovation and the study of scientific cultures British Aircraft Corporation Charles Gardner, 1981 Beskriver baggrunden for og dannelsen af BAC og gennemg r den produktion BAC har haft del i Viser hvordan den tekniske udvikling har gjort det n dvendigt af konomiske grunde at slutte sig sammen endog flere lande om f lles projekter One Hundred Years of Air Power and Aviation Robin Higham, 2003 In this precise interpretive and informative volume Higham looks at everything from the roots of strategic bombing and tactical air power to the lessons learned and unlearned during the invasion of Ethiopia the war in China and the Spanish Civil War He also considers the problems posed by jet aircraft in Korea and the use of Patriot missiles in the Persian Gulf He covers anti guerrilla operations doctrine industrial activities and equipment as well as the development of commercial airlines British Aircraft Corporation Stephen Skinner, 2012-08-01 The British Aircraft Corporation was formed from The Bristol Aeroplane Company English Electric Vickers Armstrong and Hunting in 1960 In its short seventeen year life the British Aircraft Corporation built some of the most important aircraft and missiles of the 1960s 1970s and beyond its best known products included the Jaguar and Tornado warplanes Rapier missile and One Eleven airliner It was also responsible for the stillborn TSR2 strike aircraft the 1965 cancellation of which remains controversial to this day Most famously the Anglo French Concorde supersonic airliner came from the BAC stable BAC was subsumed into British Aerospace now BAE Systems in 1977 but many of its products remain in service to this day This book tells their complete story Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense A Business and Labour History of Britain M. Richardson,P. Nicholls,2011-08-31 By bringing together and critically engaging with accounts of certain themes in business and labour history and utilizing original research this book aims to widen understanding of industrial society and provide a background to further study and research in the area management and labour relations history A Bibliography of British Business Histories Francis Goodall,1987 The 'Secret' World of Vickers Guided Weapons John Forbat,2012-05-30 Based on the author s own involvement as an engineer at the company through the 1950s and early 1960s and on more recent research of the archives at Brooklands Museum and the PRO this book explains the successes and failures of leading edge developments at Vickers in the early days of guided weapons John Forbat explains missile and avionics systems and trials with diagrams and photographs and tells the story of the company and its individuals Projects covered in depth include Red Rapier Blue Boar Red Dean and Vigilant anti tank missile of which the author has first hand experience as he started working for Vickers as a graduate apprentice assembling airplanes and soon graduated into Special Projects where he was responsible for many of the trials Dangerous Energy Wayne D. Cocroft,2014-06-15 This book comprises a national study of the explosives industry and provides a framework for identification of its industrial archaeology and social history Few monuments of gunpowder manufacture survive in Britain from the Middle Ages although its existence is documented Late 17th century water powered works are identifiable but sparse In the later 18th century however the industry was transformed by state acquisition of key factories notably at Faversham and at Waltham Abbey In the mid 19th century developments in Britain paralleled those in continental Europe and in America namely a shift to production on an industrial scale related to advances in armaments technology The urgency and large scale demands of the two world wars brought state directed or state led solutions to explosives production in the 20th century The book s concluding section looks at planning preservation conservation and presentation in relation to prospective future uses of these sites The Aeronautical Journal ,1983 Air Force Magazine ,1988 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery

Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 53, 1967 , Engineering ,1884 History of Strategic Air and Ballistic Missile Defense: 1945-1955 ,2009 From the book s Foreword In the early 1970s the U S Army Center of Military History contracted with BDM Corporation for a history of U S efforts to counter Soviet air and missile threats during the Cold War The resulting two volume History of Strategic Air and Ballistic Missile Defense covers the years 1945-1972 when the strategic arms competition between the United States and the Soviet Union was at its height. The study was first published for limited distribution in 1975 and recently declassified with minimal redaction. These volumes address the passive and active defense strategies, technologies and techniques adopted by both U.S. and Soviet defense planners. Much of their actions centered around three common questions: How might we be attacked? How shall we defend our country? What can technology do to solve the basic problems of defending against this new intercontinental threat.

Sweeping Circles in the Sky Tom Cockbain, 2003 Anglo-American News, 1960 Vault Guide to the Top Manufacturing Employers Vault Editors, 2007-01-11 Terrorists, drug traffickers, mafia members and corrupt corporate executives have one thing in common: most are conspirators subject to federal prosecution. Federal conspiracy laws rest on the belief that criminal schemes are equally or more reprehensible than are the substantive offenses to which they are devoted. The essence of conspiracy is an agreement of two or more persons to engage in some form of prohibited misconduct. The crime is complete upon agreement, although some statutes require prosecutors to show that at least one of the conspirators has taken some concrete steps or committed some overt act in furtherance of the scheme. There are dozens of federal conspiracy statutes. This book examines conspiratorial crimes and related federal criminal law with a focus on the federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization (RICO) provision of the Organized Crime Control Act of 1970, money laundering and the 18 U.S.C. 1956 statute on mail and wire fraud, and an overview of federal criminal law.
