Movie Houses of Greater Newark Philip M. Read, 2013-07-15 For decades Newark and its environs have been lit up by the bright neon lights of grand movie palaces and theaters In the early 20th century stages that were originally built for vaudeville acts were turned over to silver screens and the flickering images from motion picture projectors This new technology ushered Hollywood movies to the East Coast and made cinema accessible for locals to enjoy Movie houses and palaces provided moviegoers a new type of viewing experience With ornate interiors and rich architecture these institutions offered their patrons a beautiful setting to watch classic films Over time these establishments evolved and began hosting burlesque shows and rock concerts Today many of these downtown landmarks have been demolished replaced or adaptively renovated into the modern multiplexes of today Images of the Paramount and the Mosque Theater help Movie Houses of Greater Newark tell the story of an era when going to the movies was an event

The American Homefront During WWII C D Peterson, 2024-09-30 Captures the transformation of America during WWII highlighting daily life wartime economy and the profound patriotism that united the nation Don't you know there's a war on Use it up Wear it out Make it do Or do without Loose Lips Sink Ships Any Bonds Today Remember Pearl Harbor Those were the slogans Americans called out to each other on the home front during WWII They forged their days surrounded by fellow patriots sharing in the greatest endeavor of their lives winning the war The American Home Front in WWII presents the striking story of those times starting with little known events well before Pearl Harbor the clashes between isolationists and those favoring intervention and America's first peacetime draft The shock of Pearl Harbor transformed America from a peacetime country to a full wartime economy Factories produced an airplane every sixty one minutes Women and Blacks entered the workforce as never before bringing about earthshaking changes Americans describe in their own words the rigors of everyday life rationing air raid drills rigging up black curtains and scrap drives But Americans found ways to enjoy themselves movie attendance swelled with films such as Casablanca while Broadway brought audiences Oklahoma The music of Glen Miller and the voice of a skinny newcomer named Frank Sinatra had Americans swinging and swooning The American Home Front in WWII brings this story to life to capture the extraordinary level of patriotism and teamwork on the home front It truly was a time when there were no strangers
