Concurrent Imaginaries, Postcolonial Worlds Diana Brydon, Peter Forsgren, Gonlög Fur, 2017-04-24. Brydon, Forsgren, and Fur's Concurrent Imaginaries: Postcolonial Worlds demonstrates the value of reading for concurrences in situating discussions of archives, voices, and history in colonial and postcolonial contexts. Starting with the premise that our pluriversal world is constructed from concurrent imaginaries, yet the role of concurrences has seldom been examined, the collection brings together case studies that confirm the productivity of reading, looking, and listening for concurrences across established boundaries of disciplinary or geopolitical engagement. Contributors working in art history, sociology, literary, and historical studies bring examples of Nordic colonialism together with analyses of colonial practices worldwide. The collection invites uptake of the study of concurrences within the humanities and in interdisciplinary fields such as postcolonial, cultural, and globalization studies.

Forbidden Sex, Forbidden Texts Hoshang Merchant, 2020-11-29. The book argues that there is no monolithic homosexuality; there are only homosexualities. That is, there are as many reasons for being gay as there are gays. Some people are born gay, some have gayness thrust upon them, and some do indeed achieve to great gayness. Representation of homosexuality/homosexuality as it is understood today is thus a western import. The act and public social discourses on same-sex love are still illegal; it is according to many, against the Indian tradition, and a sense of history is seriously problematic when we dig out for a past tradition of homoerotic love and desire. Hoshang Merchant, through an examination of texts, films, poetry, attempts to analyse and crack the codes of sexual misconduct in contemporary India, giving short histories of the fate of several gay writers and explaining the difficulties of coming out.

Earth Polyphony Suhasini Vincent, 2024-02-19. In Earth Polyphony, Suhasini Vincent analyzes the theory of ecocriticism in its entirety and its existence in the global paradigm of climate change. Vincent shows how a polyphony of voices can affect law and decision making in the era of the Anthropocene and aptly shows how voices can coexist as in Bakhtinian polyphony, where multiple perspectives coexist despite contradictions and differences. Vincent argues that both material and non-material worlds are endowed with storied forms of knowledge that prompt ecocritical writers to engage in new experimental modes of expression. She explores the material turn, the animal turn, and the narrative turn to highlight how law meets literature prompts eco activism and how these crisscrossing narratives influence each other to spark judicial activism in forums around the planet Postcolonial Hauntings Sushmita Chatterjee, 2024-09-10 Often examined separately play and hauntings in fact act together to frame postcolonial issues Sushmita Chatterjee showcases their braided workings in social and political fabrics Drawing on this intertwined idea of play and hauntings Chatterjee goes to the heart of conundrums within transnational postcolonial feminisms by examining the impossible echoes of translations differing renditions of queer and the possibilities of solidarity beyond the fraternal friendships that cement nation states Meaning plays or slippages through language systems as we move from one language to another play a pivotal role in a global world As Chatterjee shows an attentiveness to meaning plays discerns the past and present here and there and moves us toward responsive ethics in our theories and activism Insightful and stimulating Postcolonial Hauntings centers the inextricable work of play and hauntings as a braided ethics for postcolonial transnational struggles
