Gold Silver And Bronze Metal Sculpture Of The Roman Baroque:

Gold, Silver, and Bronze Jennifer Montagu, 1996 Roman baroque sculpture is usually thought of in terms of large scale statues in marble and bronze tombs or portrait busts Smaller bronze statuettes are overlooked and the extensive production of sculptural silver much of which is now lost but can be studied from drawings is omitted from the histories of art In these lectures Jennifer Montagu enriches our understanding of the sculpture of the period by investigating these works in metal the bronzes that adorn the great tabernacles which are a prominent feature of Roman churches the often gilded silver both secular and ecclesiastical and elaborately embossed display dishes She also looks at the production of medals an essential aspect of metal sculpture that is usually confined to specialist literature The book concentrates on selected pieces by such master sculptors as Bernini and leading metal workers such as Giovanni Giardini Making extensive use of archival documents and drawings Montagu examines the often tortuous relationship between the patrons and the artists and elucidates the relationship between those who provided the drawings or models and the craftsmen who executed the finished sculptures In this way she provides insights into the procedures of the workshops and at the same time opens our eyes to a new and fascinating area of sculpture

Gold, Silver, and Bronze Jennifer Montagu, 2023-10-17 An in depth look at the exquisite metal sculpture of the Roman baroque Roman baroque sculpture is usually thought of in terms of large scale statues in marble and bronze tombs or portrait busts Smaller bronze statuettes are often overlooked and the extensive production of sculptural silver much of which is now lost but can be studied from drawings is frequently omitted from the histories of art In this book Jennifer Montagu enriches our understanding of the sculpture of the period by investigating the bronzes that adorn the great tabernacles of Roman churches gilded silver both secular and ecclesiastical elaborately embossed display dishes and the production of medals Concentrating on selected pieces by such master sculptors as Bernini and leading metal workers such as Giovanni Giardini Montagu examines the often tortuous relationship between patrons and artists and elucidates the relationship between those who provided the drawings or models and the craftsmen who executed the finished sculptures

Bernini Claude Douglas Dickerson (III),Gian Lorenzo Bernini,Anthony Sigel,Ian Wardropper,2012 The brilliantly expressive clay models created by Gian Lorenzo Bernini 1598 1680 as sketches for his works in marble offer extraordinary insights into his creative imagination Although long admired the terracotta models have never been the subject of such detailed examination This publication presents a wealth of new discoveries including evidence of the artist's fingerprints imprinted on the clay resolving lingering issues of attribution while giving readers a vivid sense of how the artist and his assistants fulfilled a steady stream of monumental commissions Essays describe Bernini's education as a modeler his approach to preparatory drawings his use of assistants and the response to his models by 17th century collectors Extensive research by conservators and art historians explores the different types of models created in Bernini's workshop Richly illustrated Bernini transforms our understanding of the sculptor and his distinctive and fascinating working methods

Publisher's website      Taking Shape Martina Droth, Penelope Curtis, 2009 This exhibition challenges the reasons why sculpture is usually considered alone in the gallery and the decorative arts are considered as part of a period setting It suggests that by breaking away from these conventional categories we can see how sculpture is also part of a spatial conversation and how furniture and fittings can be appreciated as unique works With five original essays and forty complete catalogue entries this publication both documents an exhibition and goes beyond it opening our eyes to the fluidity of formal language in the long eighteenth century and to the ways in which objects can change according to whether they are seen together or apart as mobile or fixed as two or three dimensional as ideal or as functional Book Jacket      Adriaen de Vries 1556-1626 Frits Scholten, Adriaen de Vries, Rosemarie Mulcahy, 1998 This elegant exhibition catalog includes sixty six works of art by this virtuoso sculptor plus accompanying essays Born in The Hague Adriaen de Vries worked with the official sculptor to the Medici dukes beginning in 1580s and in 1601 he was appointed official court sculptor to Rudolf II in Prague where he worked until his death Some of his best known works are illustrated and described in this comprehensive volume including the Bust of Emperor Rudolph II the fountain Mercury and Cupid Psyche Born Aloft by Putti Juggling Man and The Wrestlers

Chryselephantine Statuary in the Ancient Mediterranean World Kenneth D. S. Lapatin, 2001 Composite statues of gold chrysolite ivory elephas and other precious materials were the most celebrated artworks of classical antiquity Greek and Latin authors leave no doubt that such images provided a centrepiece for religious and civic life and that vast sums were spent to produce them A number of these statues were the creations of antiquity's most highly acclaimed artists Polykleitos Alkamenes Leochares and of course Pheidias whose magnificent Zeus Olympios came to be ranked among the Seven Wonders of the World Although a few individual images such as Pheidias Athena Parthenos have been the subject of detailed scholarly analysis chryselephantine statuary as a class from the exquisite statuettes of Minoan Crete to the majestic temple images constructed by classical Greek city states and imitated by the Romans has not received comprehensive study since 1815 This book presents not only the ancient literary and epigraphical evidence for lost statues and examines representations of them in other media but also assembles and analyses much neglected physical survivals elucidating throughout the innovative techniques such as ivory bending employed in their production as well as the variety of social religious and political roles they played within the ancient societies that produced them

Art of the Royal Court Wolfram Koeppe, Anna Maria Giusti, Cristina Acidini Luchinat, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2008 In the royal and princely courts of Europe artworks made of multicolored semiprecious stones were passionately coveted objects Known as pietre dure or hardstones this type of artistic expression includes paintings in stone which were composed of intricately cut separate pieces that were made into magnificent tabetops cabinets and wall decorations Other works included vessels and ornaments carved with virtuosic skill from a single piece of rare and brilliant lapis lazuli chalcedony jasper or similarly prized substance exquisite objects such as boxes clocks and jewelry and portraits of nobles sculpted in variously colored stones Derived from ancient Roman decorative stonework the art of pietre dure was developed in Renaissance Florence where the manufacture of such objects was enthusiastically sponsored by Medici princes Ideally suited for ostentatious display the works sent an unmistakable message of wealth and political might that was understood in centers of power everywhere From Italy the medium spread across Europeto Prague Madrid Naples Paris and later Saint Petersburg Precious and fragile pietre dure objects are rarely brought together in large numbers This richly illustrated catalogue contains more than 150 masterworks from across Europe dating from five centuries including almost every artistic use of semiprecious stone during this time as well as some of the finest examples of the medium Eight essays by European and American experts discuss the individualized development of pietre dure in every European region the latest developments in scholarship the interrelationships between art and dynastic politics and between cultures and a variety of techniques used to produce these luxurious masterworks Metropolitan Museum of Art website Sense and the Senses in Early Modern Art and Cultural Practice SivToveKulbrandstad Walker,2017-07-05 Employing a wide range of approaches from various disciplines contributors to this volume explore the diverse ways in which European art and cultural practice from the fourteenth through the seventeenth centuries confronted interpreted represented and evoked the realm of the sensual Sense and the Senses in Early Modern Art and Cultural Practice investigates how the faculties of sight hearing touch taste and smell were made to perform in a range of guises in early modern cultural practice as agents of indulgence and pleasure as bearers of information on material reality as mediators between the mind and the outer world and even as intercessors between humans and the divine The volume examines not only aspects of the arts of painting and sculpture but also extends into other spheres philosophy music and poetry gardens food relics and rituals Collectively the essays gathered here form a survey of key debates and practices attached to the theme of the senses in Renaissance and Baroque art and cultural practice The matter of miracles Helen Hills,2021-02-02 This book investigates baroque architecture through the lens of San Gennaro s miraculously liquefying blood in Naples This vantage point allows a bracing and thoroughly original rethink of the power of baroque relics and reliquaries It shows how a focus on miracles produces original interpretations of architecture sanctity and place which will engage architectural historians everywhere The matter of the baroque miracle extends into a rigorous engagement with natural history telluric philosophy new materialism theory and philosophy The study will transform our understanding of baroque art and architecture sanctity and Naples Bristling with new archival materials and historical insights this study lifts the baroque from its previous marginalisation to engage fiercely with materiality and potentiality and thus unleash baroque art and architecture as productive and transformational New Perspectives on Historical Writing

Flaten, 2012 Spanning six centuries and seven countries the Middeldorf Collection assembled by the late eminent art historian Ulrich Middeldorf provides an extraordinary overview of major personalities and of political social cultural and religious events as depicted in more than 350 medals and plaquettes Illustrated in full color and accompanied by extensive documentation are commemorations of kings queens emperors poets composers physicians artists inventors popes cardinals and bishops Papal annual and jubilee medals and delightful French reliefs from the Belle époque complement medals from the eras of Louis XIV and XV Napoleon and the Risorgimento Highlights of the collection are Italian medals from the 17th century and later periods that until recently have received little scholarly attention

A Printed Icon in Early Modern Italy Lisa Pon, 2015-03-23 In 1428 a devastating fire destroyed a schoolhouse in the northern Italian city of Forl leaving only a woodcut of the Madonna and Child that had been tacked to the classroom wall The people of Forl carried that print now known as the Madonna of the Fire into their cathedral where two centuries later a new chapel was built to enshrine it In this book Lisa Pon considers a cascade of moments in the Madonna of the Fire's cultural biography when ink was impressed onto paper at a now unknown date when that sheet was recognized by Forl's people as miraculous when it was enshrined in various tabernacles and chapels in the cathedral when it or one of its copies was and still is carried in procession In doing so Pon offers an experiment in art historical inquiry that spans more than three centuries of making remaking and renewal

Reactions to the Master Francis Ames-Lewis, 2017-09-29 The immense effect that Michelangelo had on many artists working in the sixteenth century is widely acknowledged by historians of Italian Renaissance art Yet until recently greater stress has been placed on the individuality of these artists styles and interpretation rather than on the elucidation of their debts to others There has been little direct focus on the ways in which later sixteenth century artists actually confronted Michelangelo or how those areas or aspects of their artistic production that are most closely related to his reveal their attitudes and responses to Michelangelo's work Reactions to the Master presents the first coherent study of the influence exerted by Michelangelo's work in painting and sculpture on artists of the late

Renaissance period including Alessandro Allori Agnolo Bronzino Battista Franco Francesco Parmigianino Jacopo Pontormo Francesco Salviati Raphael Giorgio Vasari Marcello Venusti and Alessandro Vittoria The essays focus on the direct relations such as copies and borrowings previously underrated by art historians but which here form significant keys to understanding the aesthetic attitudes and broader issues of theory advanced at the time

The Lustrous Trade Cinzia Sicca, Alison Yarrington, 2001-01-01 In recent years the Anglo Italian sphere of artistic exchange in relation to painting has been an increasingly productive area of research Here contributors shift the focus onto the two countries equally significant sculpture trade This volume of selected essays by economic and social historians and historians of material culture and art investigates the varied roles and functions of sculpture and the ways in which this particular cultural exchange was manifested Issues of business and the markets for sculpture are highlighted both in the context of producers of highart and in the wider market of religious garden and decorative sculpture

Bramante's Tempietto, the Roman Renaissance, and the Spanish Crown Jack Freiberg, 2014-11-10 This groundbreaking book situates Bramante s Tempietto at the center of an arts program that exalted Spain s quest for Christian hegemony

Zinc Sculpture in America, 1850-1950 Carol A. Grissom, 2009 Introduced in the United States as a new material for statuary in the mid nineteenth century zinc has properties that allowed replication at low cost It was used to produce modestly priced serial sculpture displayed throughout the nation on fountains public monuments and war memorials Imitative finishes created the illusion of more costly bronze stone or polychrome wood This first comprehensive overview of American zinc sculpture is interdisciplinary engaging aspects of art history popular culture local history technology and art conservation Included is a generously illustrated catalogue presenting more than eight hundred statues organized by type trade figures and Indians gods and goddesses fountain figures animals famous men military figures firemen cemetery memorials and religious subjects The compilation of data on these statues will be valuable to scholars filling the current void in research libraries The author s experience as a conservator will also make the an essential resource for historic preservationists seeking to repair statues now damaged by years of outdoor exposure This book has 555 illustrations 354 of which are in color Carol Grissom is Senior Objects Conservator at the Smithsonian s Museum Conservation Institute
