Golden Dawn American Sourcebook B:

AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 The Routledge Drama Anthology and Sourcebook Maggie B. Gale, John F.

Deeney, 2012-08-06 A groundbreaking compilation of the key movements in the history of modern theatre. Each of the book's parts comprises full reproductions of the plays that defined the period and key critical writings that inform and contextualise their reading. Here is an anthology of plays and criticism that all teachers of drama should take seriously. The fresh angles and approaches the volume offers on topics such as naturalism, the historical avant garde and breakthrough works by innovative performance artists e.g. Laurie Anderson. SuAndi all argue in favor of this collection as required reading in courses on modern stagecraft. CHOICE Feb 2011 Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1950s Susan C. W.

Abbotson, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes. Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged; an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions, social changes, culture, media, technology, industry and political events, while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide-ranging and thorough survey of theatres, companies, dramatists, new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day. The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in-depth analysis and re-evaluation by a team of experts, together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy. A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors, drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material. The major writers and their works to receive in-depth coverage in this volume include William Inge Picnic 1953, Bus Stop 1955 and The Dark at the Top of the Stairs 1957, Stephen Sondheim, Arthur Laurents and Jerome Robbins West Side Story 1957 and Gypsy 1959, Alice Childress Just a Little Simple 1950, Gold Through the Trees 1952 and Trouble in Mind 1955, Jerome Lawrence and Robert Lee Inherit the Wind 1955, Auntie Mame 1956 and The Gang's All Here 1959. Video Sourcebook Supplement Furtaw, 1994-03 Operetta Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2015-10-05 Operetta developed in the second half of the 19th century from the French opéra comique and the more lighthearted German Singspiel. As the century progressed, the serious concerns of mainstream opera were sustained and intensified, leaving a gap between opéra comique and vaudeville that necessitated a new type of stage work. Jacques Offenbach, son of a Cologne synagogue cantor, established himself in Paris with his series of opéras bouffes. The popular success of this individual new form of entertainment, light, humorous, satirical and also sentimental, led to the emergence of operetta as a separate genre, an art form with its own special flavour and concerns and no longer simply a little opera. Attempts to emulate Offenbach's success in France and abroad generated other national schools of operetta and helped to establish the genre internationally in Spain, in England and especially in Austria-Hungary. Here it inspired works by Franz von Supp and Johann Strauss II in the Golden Age and later Franz Lehár and Emmerich Kálmán in the Silver Age Viennese operetta.

flourished conterminously with the Habsburg Empire and the mystique of Vienna but after the First World War an artistically vibrant Berlin assumed this leading position with Paul Lincke Leon Jessel and Edouard Knecke As popular musical tastes diverged more and more during the interwar years with the advent of new influences like those of cabaret the revue jazz modern dance music and the cinema as well as changing social mores the operetta genre took on new guises This was especially manifested in the musical comedy of London's West End and New York's Broadway with their imitators generating a success that opened a new golden age for the reinvented genre especially after the Second World War This source book presents an overview of the operetta genre in all its forms The first volume provides an introduction a representative chronology of the genre from 1840 to 2013 and a survey of the national schools of France and Austria Hungary The principal composers are considered in chronological sequence with biographical material and a list of stage works selected synopses and some commentary

African American Authors, 1745-1945 Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2000-01-30 There has been a dramatic resurgence of interest in early African American writing Since the accidental rediscovery and republication of Harriet Wilson's Our Nig in 1983 the works of dozens of 19th and early 20th century black writers have been recovered and reprinted There is now a significant revival of interest in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s and in the last decade alone several major assessments of 18th and 19th century African American literature have been published Early African American literature builds on a strong oral tradition of songs folktales and sermons Slave narratives began to appear during the late 18th and early 19th century and later writers began to engage a variety of themes in diverse genres A central objective of this reference book is to provide a wide ranging introduction to the first 200 years of African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 78 black writers active between 1745 and 1945 Among these writers are essayists novelists short story writers poets playwrights and autobiographers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography

Golden Dawn American Sourcebook B: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Golden Dawn American Sourcebook B : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Golden Dawn American Sourcebook B : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
