Golden Jubilee Commemoration Volume, 1916-1966 Gangadhar Balkrishna Sardar, Shakuntala Mehta, Neera Desai, 1968

Ireland's 1916 Rising Mark McCarthy, 2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland's 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising's undeniable influence upon modern Ireland's evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire's foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland's 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising's commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising's 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance

Ashton, Tanya Evans, Paula Hamilton, 2020-09-21 If historical culture is the specific and particular ways that a society engages with its past this book aims to situate the professional practice of public history now emerging across the world within that framework It links the increasingly varied practices of memory and history making such as genealogy podcasting re enactment family histories memoir writing film making and facebook histories with the work that professional historians do both in and out of the academy Making Histories asks questions about the role of the expert and notions of authority within a landscape that is increasingly concerned with connection to the past and authenticity The book is divided into four parts 1 Resistance Rights Authority 2 Memory Memorialization Commemoration 3 Performance Transmission Reception 4 Family Private Self The four sections outline major themes emerging in public history across the world in the 21st century which are all underpinned by the impact of new media on historical practice and our central argument for the volume which advocates a more capacious definition of what constitutes public history Education and Empowerment of Women in India Dr.

Vidyadhar S. Naganahalli, The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 A Town Abandoned Steven P. Dandaneau, 1996-04-11 Hometown to both General Motors and the United Auto Workers and the setting for the documentary film Roger and Me Flint Michigan is a striking example of a declining city in America's Rust Belt A Town Abandoned examines Flint's response to its own social and economic decline and at the same time pursues a broad analysis of class and culture in America's late capitalist society It tells the story of how Flint's local institutions and citizens interpret and rationalize their city's massive auto industry job loss and consequent decline and it relates these interpretations to statewide national and international forces that led to the deindustrialization Using a critical theory approach Dandaneau reveals the futility of Flint's efforts to confront essentially global problems and moreover depicts the disturbing conceptual and cultural distortions that result from its sustained powerlessness Dandaneau shows that all policy solutions to Flint's problems were in essence public relations solutions and he gives a moving portrayal of the consequences for local communities of the internationalization of American business Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, 1917 The Long Shadow: The Legacies of the Great War in the Twentieth Century David Reynolds, 2014-05-12 Winner of the 2014 PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize for the Best Work of History If you only read one book about the First World War in this anniversary year read The Long Shadow David Reynolds writes superbly and his analysis is compelling and original Anne Chisolm Chair of the PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize Committee and Chair of the Royal Society of Literature One of the most violent conflicts in the history of civilization World War I has been strangely forgotten in American culture It has become a ghostly war fought in a haze of memory often seen merely as a distant preamble to World War II In The Long Shadow critically acclaimed historian David Reynolds seeks to broaden our vision by assessing the impact of the Great War across the twentieth century He shows how events in that turbulent century particularly World War II the Cold War and the collapse of Communism shaped and reshaped attitudes to 1914-18 By exploring big themes such as democracy and empire nationalism and capitalism as well as art and poetry The Long Shadow is stunningly broad in its historical perspective Reynolds throws light on the vast expanse of the last century and explains why 1914-18 is a conflict that America is still struggling to comprehend Forging connections between people places and ideas The Long Shadow ventures across the traditional subcultures of historical scholarship to offer a rich and layered examination not only of politics diplomacy and security but also of economics art and literature The result is a magisterial reinterpretation of the place of the Great War in modern history Year Book Carnegie Institution of Washington, 1918 List of the names of persons engaged in the various activities v 10 p 243-257 Year Book - Carnegie Institution of Washington Carnegie Institution of Washington, 1918 Indian Books in Print, 2003 The Cloister's Pale Aruna Tikekara, 2006 The Long Shadow David Reynolds, 2013-11-07 In Britain we have lost touch with the Great War Our overriding sense now is of a meaningless futile bloodbath in the mud of Flanders of young men whose lives were cut off in their prime for no evident purpose But by reducing the conflict to personal tragedies however moving we have lost the big picture the history has been distilled into poetry In The Long Shadow critically acclaimed author David Reynolds seeks to redress the balance by exploring the true impact of 1914-18 on the 20th century Some of the Great War's legacies were negative and pernicious but others proved transformative in a positive sense Exploring big themes such as democracy and empire nationalism and capitalism and re-examining the differing impacts of the War on Britain Ireland and the United States The Long Shadow throws light on the whole of the last century and demonstrates that 1914-18 is a conflict that Britain more than any other nation is still struggling to comprehend Stunningly broad in its historical perspective The Long Shadow is a magisterial and seismic re-presentation of the Great War Never See a Need Marie Therese Foale, 2016-06-30 Never See a Need is an account of the lives and works of the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart in South Australia from the time of their foundation in 1866 until Mary MacKillop's canonisation in 2010 Much happened during those 144 years There were dark times and bright times times of growth and expansion interspersed with times of decline times of stability and times of change and through it all the members of the Congregation never forgot their call to do what they could to remedy the evils and ills of their society They were educators but they also looked out for the welfare of the poor and disadvantaged in different ways as they moved across the landscape to wherever they were needed always a people on the move but always stable in their devotion to their ministry History of Educational Development in Vidarbha, 1882-1923 A.D. S.
