Golden Wings And Other Stories About Birders And Birding:

Golden Wings and Other Stories about Birders and Birding Pete Dunne, 2003-04-01 Dubbed the Bard of America's Bird Watchers by the Wall Street Journal Pete Dunne knows birders and birding instinctively and completely He understands the compulsion that drives other birders to go out at first light whatever the weather for a chance to maybe just maybe glimpse that rare migrant that someone might have spotted in a patch of woods the day before yesterday And yet he also knows how well strange the birding obsession becomes when viewed through the eyes of a nonbirder His dual perspective totally engrossed in birding yet still aware of the odd birdness of some birders makes reading his essays a pure pleasure whether you pursue the feather quest or not This book collects forty one of Dunne's recent essays drawn from his columns in Living Bird Wild Bird News the New Jersey Sunday section of the New York Times Birder's World and other publications Written with his signature wit and insight they cover everything from a moment of awed communion with a Wandering Albatross the most beautiful thing I'd ever seen to Dunne's imagined perfect bird The Perfect Bird is the size of a turkey has the wingspan of an eagle the legs of a crane the feet of a moorhen and the talons of a great horned owl It eats kudzu surplus zucchini feral cats and has been known to predate upon homeowners who fire up their lawn mowers before 7 00 A M on the weekend The title essay pays whimsical yet heartfelt tribute to Dunne's mentor the late birding legend Roger Tory Peterson

Birdwatcher Elizabeth Rosenthal, 2010-03-23 2015 Reprint Roger Tory Peterson the Renaissance man who taught Americans the joy of watching birds also invented the modern field guide His 1934 landmark Field Guide to the Birds was the first book designed to go outdoors and help people identify the elements of nature This self-proclaimed student of nature combined spectacular writing with detailed illustrations to ultimately publish many other books winning every possible award and medal for natural science ornithology and conservation Birdwatcher is a comprehensive illustrated biography of Roger Tory Peterson a hero in the conservation world including interviews with friends family and protégés

, 2002 Adventures of a Louisiana Birder Marybeth Lima, 2019-05-08 This candid and humorous chronicle shows how one woman goes from casual observer to obsessive bird nerd as she traverses Louisiana's avian paradise In Adventures of a Louisiana Birder readers follow Marybeth Lima across her adopted state in search of 300 species of birds Bisected by the Mississippi flyway and home to 400 miles of coast Louisiana has a variety of habitats which serve as a beautiful backdrop to this remarkable journey In birding circles some devotees attempt what is known as a big year a bird sighting challenge to identify as many bird species as possible in a particular geographical area over the course of one year Lima's initial effort amounted to 11 626 miles in sixty one road trips to log an impressive 280 species But on a subsequent quest to exceed her record she endures elusive birds embarrassing misidentifications and hungry insects in an effort to reach her goal In the midst of these obstacles Lima celebrates the camaraderie and friendly competition among fellow birders from novices to a world renown ornithologist Requiring both mental focus and physical agility birdwatching becomes an active sport through Lima s narration She vividly conveys the elation over a rare species seen or heard and the disappointment when one is narrowly missed An appendix provides the location and date of every species she identifies Lima s personal experiences are interwoven with the excitement of tracking down one intriguing species after another She faces a near fatal burn accident to her spouse end of life care for her mother in law and Louisiana s great flood of 2016 In the midst of these situations her devotion to birding provides a much needed outlet Somewhere in the roiling confluence of birds locales and human personalities writes Lima the center of my heart sings with utter abandon Adventures of a Louisiana Birder is the author s call to a deeper passion for and awareness of Louisiana s unique natural beauty and vulnerability New York Birders ,1988
