The Politics of Professionalism Gary McCulloch, Gill Helsby, Peter Knight, 2000-05-01 Many commentators feared that the Education Reform Act of 1988 sounded the death knell for teacher professionalism in Britain More than a decade later however professionalism appears to have staged a miraculous recovery David Blunkett says that it is back at the very heart of teaching But what kind of professionalism is this In whose interest is its recovery and what effects will it have And how does this development relate to changes in edict countries and other professions The Politics of Professionalism provides authoritative answers to these questions It does so by setting the debates in their historical context and by drawing on detailed research findings on teachers experience of work and education especially the curriculum in the current era In the process this book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the politics history and sociology of teaching and the other professions

Australian Social Attitudes IV Clive Bean,Shaun Ratcliff,Bruce Tranter,Katrine Beauregard,Ian McAllister,Toni Makkai,Anja Eder,Murray Goot, Luke Mansillo,Ann Evans,Edith Gray,2018-07-02 Around the world democracies have seen a decline in social and political trust Australian Social Attitudes IV The Age of Insecurity is an in depth look at the economic and geopolitical uncertainty that pervades Australian public discourse In the decade following the Howard administration Australian politics has been defined by growing uncertainty instability and the emergence of popular disaffection with the political class similar to what has been seen in the United States and Britain Featuring contributions from Australia s leading social scientists this book explores the connection between insecurities and disaffection and the ways in which they have manifested in populist voting patterns suspicions about climate science and hostilities to immigration A fascinating insight into what Australians think about contemporary

political and social issues this book is designed to present the public media and policymakers with up to date analysis of public opinion about important topics confronting Australian politics and society Political Marketing and British Political Parties Jennifer Lees-Marshment, 2001 Demonstrates how British political parties have begun to use comprehensive political marketing in order to gain electoral success They conduct focus groups and opinion polls in an attempt to elicit what voters want from them and then try to adjust their behaviors accordingly General Technical Report PNW-GTR ,1997 Green Pastures and Still Waters for the Flock of God Julius A. Von Poseck, 2015-04-10 Publisher's note This written statement was penned over a 100 years ago The following was written nearly six years ago It was only after much hesitation and prayer that at the repeated requests of some esteemed Christians and after a careful revision I have resolved to commit these notes to print I confide in the well known forbearance of my dear fellow Christians in this country as to the imperfections of expression The twenty third Psalm has been so interwoven with the whole of my Christian course of more than 26 years and our gracious Shepherd has from this precious portion of His Pasture whenever I turned to it so often blessed my soul that I could resist no longer the desire to communicate to others what He has been pleased to give to me The dispensational side of our Psalm I have only occasionally touched upon as the chief object of it is the feeding of the soul on Christ Consequently even the great Christian principles of truth foreshadowed and embedded in this Psalm are considered only as far as they concern the flock of God for instance the question of worship at the Lord's Table where we feed upon His death when We sing of the Shepherd that died That died for the sake of the flock For however important a place the Church as such may occupy at that blessed Table of our Lord and in His counsels yet this portion of divine truth would be out of place in our Psalm May God keep us from growing into cool and enlightened churchmen to the neglect of the pastoring of the flock for whom the Good Shepherd died
