What's He Doing in There? Fritz Leiber, 2011-06-01 He went where no Martian ever went before but would he come out or had he gone for good Excerpt The Professor was congratulating Earth's first visitor from another planet on his wisdom in getting in touch with a cultural anthropologist before contacting any other scientists or governments God forbid and in learning English from radio and TV before landing from his orbit parked rocket when the Martian stood up and said hesitantly Excuse me please but where is it That baffled the Professor and the Martian seemed to grow anxious at least his long mouth curved upward and he had earlier explained that it curling downward was his smile and he repeated Please where is it He was surprisingly humanoid in most respects but his complexion was textured so like the rich dark armchair he'd just been occupying that the Professor's pin striped gray suit which he had eagerly consented to wear seemed an arbitrary interruption between him and the chair a sort of Mother Hubbard dress on a phantom conjured from its leather The Professor's Wife always a perceptive hostess came to her husband's rescue by saying with equal rapidity Top of the stairs end of the hall last door The Martian's mouth curled happily downward and he said Thank you very much and was off Comprehension burst on the Professor He caught up with his guest at the foot of the stairs Here I'll show you the way he said No I can find it myself thank you the Martian assured him

The Last Letter Fritz Leiber, 2011-03-28 Who or what was the scoundrel that kept these couriers from the swift completion of their handsomely appointed rondos

The Moon Is Green Fritz Leiber, 2011-06-01 Anybody who wanted to escape death could by paying a very simple price denial of life Excerpt Effie What the devil are you up to Her husband's voice chopping through her mood of terrified rapture made her heart jump like a startled cat yet by some miracle of feminine self control her body did not show a tremor Dear God she thought he mustn't see it It's so beautiful and he always kills beauty I'm just looking at the Moon she said listlessly It's green Mustn't mustn't see it And now with luck he wouldn't For the face as if it also heard and sensed the menace in the voice was moving back from the window's glow into the outside dark but slowly reluctantly and still faunlike pleading cajoling tempting and incredibly beautiful Close the shutters at once you little fool and come away from the window Green as a beer bottle she went on dreamily green as emeralds green as leaves with sunshine striking through them and green grass to lie on She couldn't help saying those last words They were her token to the face even though it couldn't hear Effie She knew what that last tone meant Wearily she swung shut the ponderous lead inner shutters and drove home the heavy bolts That hurt her fingers it always did but he mustn't know that You know that those shutters are not to be touched Not for five more years at least I only wanted to look at the Moon she said turning around and then it was all gone the face the night the Moon the magic and she was back in the grubby stale little hole facing an angry stale little man It was then that the eternal thud of the air conditioning fans and the crackle of the electrostatic precipitators that sieved out the dust reached her consciousness again like the bite of a dentist's drill. Only wanted to look at the Moon he mimicked her in falsetto. Only wanted to die like a little fool and make me that much more ashamed of you. Then his voice went gruff and professional. Here count yourself. She silently took the Geiger counter he held at arm's length, waited until it settled down to a steady ticking slower than a clock due only to cosmic rays and indicating nothing dangerous and then began to comb her body with the instrument. First her head and shoulders, then out along her arms and back along their under side. There was something oddly voluptuous about her movements although her features were gray and sagging. The ticking did not change its tempo until she came to her waist. Then it suddenly spurted, clicking faster and faster. Her husband gave an excited grunt, took a quick step forward, froze. She goggled for a moment in fear, then grinned foolishly, dug in the pocket of her grimy apron and guiltily pulled out a wristwatch. He grabbed it as it dangled from her fingers, saw that it had a radium dial, cursed, heaved it up as if to smash it on the floor, but instead put it carefully on the table. You imbecile, you incredible imbecile, he softly chanted to himself through clenched teeth with eyes half closed. She shrugged faintly, put the Geiger counter on the table and stood there slumped. He waited until the chanting had soothed his anger before speaking again. He said quietly, I do suppose you still realize the sort of world you're living in.
