Internet Publishing ,2000 Radio World ,1922 United States Code United States,2012 No Color Is My Kind Thomas R. Cole,2012-04-09 No Color Is My Kind is an uncommon chronicle of identity fate and compassion as two men one Jewish and one African American set out to rediscover a life lost to manic depression and alcoholism In 1984 Thomas Cole discovered Eldrewey Stearns in a Galveston psychiatric hospital Stearns a fifty two year old black man complained that although he felt very important no one understood him Over the course of the next decade Cole and Stearns in a tumultuous and often painful collaboration recovered Stearns life before his slide into madness as a young boy in Galveston and San Augustine and as a civil rights leader and lawyer who sparked Houston s desegregation movement between 1959 and 1963 While other southern cities rocked with violence Houston integrated its public accommodations peacefully In these pages appear figures such as Thurgood Marshall Martin Luther King Jr Leon Jaworski and Dan Rather all of whom along with Stearns maneuvered and conspired to integrate the city quickly and calmly Weaving the tragic story of a charismatic and deeply troubled leader into the record of a major historic event Cole also explores his emotionally charged collaboration with Stearns Their poignant relationship sheds powerful and healing light on contemporary race relations in America and especially on issues of power authority and mental illness
