The Art and Culture of Scandinavian Central Europe, 1550-1720 Kristoffer Neville, 2019-08-08 Politically and militarily powerful early modern Scandinavia played an essential role in the development of Central European culture from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century In this volume Kristoffer Neville shows how the cultural ambitions of Denmark and Sweden were inextricably bound to those of other Central European kingdoms Tracing the visual culture of the Danish and

Swedish courts from the Reformation to their eventual decline in the eighteenth century Neville explains how and why they developed into important artistic centers He examines major projects by figures largely unknown outside of Northern Europe alongside other more canonical artists including Cornelis Floris Adriaen de Vries and Johann Bernhard Fischer von Erlach to propose a more coherent view of this part of Europe one that rightly includes Scandinavia as a vital component The seventeenth century has long seemed a bleak moment in Central European culture Neville's authoritative and unprecedented study does much to change this perception showing that the arts did not die in the Reformation and Thirty Years War but rather flourished in the Baltic region Almanac of Architecture & Design, 2005 James P. will be inspiring to both design professionals and students      A History of Art History Christopher S. Wood, 2021-03-02 In this authoritative book the first of its kind in English Christopher Wood tracks the evolution of the historical study of art from the late middle ages through the rise of the modern scholarly discipline of art history Synthesizing and assessing a vast array of writings episodes and personalities this original and accessible account of the development of art historical thinking will appeal to readers both inside and outside the discipline The book shows that the pioneering chroniclers of the Italian Renaissance Lorenzo Ghiberti and Giorgio Vasari measured every epoch against fixed standards of quality Only in the Romantic era did art historians discover the virtues of medieval art anticipating the relativism of the later nineteenth century when art history learned to admire the art of all societies and to value every work as an index of its times The major art historians of the modern era however Jacob Burckhardt Aby Warburg Heinrich Wölfflin Erwin Panofsky Meyer Schapiro and Ernst Gombrich struggled to adapt their work to the rupture of artistic modernism leading to the current predicaments of the discipline Combining erudition with clarity this book makes a landmark contribution to the understanding of art history from book jacket      Dutch Classicism in Seventeenth-century Painting Albert Blankert (kunsthistoricus.), Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen (Rotterdam, Netherlands), 1999 With this illustrated catalogue Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen and the Stedelijk Kunstinstituut present the other face of the Golden Age the painters of Dutch classicism Inspired by the art of classical Antiquity and that of the Italian High Renaissance they developed an austere and refined style Their paintings depicting biblical and mythological scenes presented the court the regents and the intelligentsia in the seventeenth century with an alternative to so called Dutch Realism In this publication Dutch classicism is viewed from all sides
