Against the Current Pat Ryan, 2012-12-05 In response to a minor emotional crisis a young somewhat naive American man runs off to South America on a fool hearty journey to find himself Over the course of several months he wanders from the beaches and festival cities on the coast of Brazil to the dead center middle of the Amazon jungle Along the way he encounters a great variety of people from all walks of life backpackers bums con artists scoundrels prostitutes cops criminals artists entrepreneurs anti American extremists pro American patriots and of course a few very beautiful women Unfortunately he also becomes accidentally involved in drug smuggling and several people end up dead Will the young hero succeed in finding himself during his epic journey Or will the crazy fool's reckless adventure end in total disaster

A Call to Stand Georgette Loschiavo, 2009-10 Americans have been weathering this storm but a sequel is inevitable A nightmarish storm is hovering over Us right now and the dark clouds are threatening almost every aspect of Our lives In the wake of every crisis there comes a moment when a lightening bolt of truth hits The sting goes deep and anger arises when Our pretentious picture of Ourselves is disturbed but the pain of facing past mistakes will be worth it if it wakes Us up to remember Who We are We must learn what it takes to be good stewards of the legacy left to Us We are facing a tempestuous point in time but built into every storm is the chance to learn and grow We have to know Who We are and what is required to keep the dream alive Change must come but We must be the change The evolution of both democracy and Humankind requires education and cooperation Nothing more and nothing less The next step is a matter of choice Our choice It is time to learn from history and answer the call to take a stand

NOT THE END OF THE WORLD Rebecca Stowe,2013-05-08 Not the End of the World signals the arrival of a major new voice in contemporary American fiction In much the same way that Kaye Gibbons burst upon the growing literary scene with her first novel about growing up Ellen Foster so has Rebecca Stowe who has already been compared to Carson McCullers and J D Salinger She gives us a painful and hilarious first personal novel of a bright troubled girl that captures as perhaps no other book does the angst ridden childhood of many a woman of the Baby Boom generation Living in affluent North Bay Michigan in the early 1960s in a house with its own beach Maggie Pittsfield daughter of Robert Sweet is My Middle Name Pittsfield owner of a local candy factory is twelve years old Unique for her corrosive perspicacity and weird precociousness she is already deeply depressed and alienated from the eccentricity of her family the sexual perversity of her school and the nightmarish banality of her mates It s a wonder you have any friends Mother used to say when I still had some You must become a different person when you leave the house Actually I was six different people Grandmother said I was possessed by the devil and unless we got him out by my thirteenth birthday my soul would be lost forever at least what was left of it In Not the End of the World Rebecca Stowe renders Maggie s splintered personality and formidable aggression which threatens to implode in tragedy with painful precision and humor Witiko Raven

Good Morning, Mr Mandela Zelda la Grange,2014-06-19 Zelda la Grange grew up in South Africa as a white Afrikaner who supported the rules of segregation Yet just a few years after the end of Apartheid she would become a most trusted assistant to Nelson Mandela growing to respect and cherish the man she had been taught was the enemy Good Morning Mr Mandela tells the extraordinary story of how a young woman had her life beliefs prejudices and everything she once believed in utterly transformed by the greatest man of her time It is the incredible journey of an awkward terrified young typist in her

twenties later chosen to become the President's most loyal and devoted servants spending most of her adult working life travelling with supporting and caring for the man she would come to call Khulu or grandfather Here Zelda pays tribute to Nelson Mandela as she knew him a teacher who gave her the most valuable lessons of her life A man who refused to be defined by his past who forgave and respected all but who was also frank teasing and direct As he renewed his country he also freed Zelda from a closed world of fear and mistrust giving her life true meaning Now she shares his lasting and inspiring gifts with the world This is a book about love and second chances It will touch your life and make you believe that every one of us no matter who we are or what we have done has the power to change The Champion's Code Dante Gebel, 2011-06-07 These words borrowed from the well known medical doctor Parch Adams demonstrate the revolutionary spirit of this book Dante Gebel is known throughout much of the Hispanic world as an excellent speaker who is able to immerse his audience in the most fascinating stories and guide them through emotional labyrinths ranging from laughter to tears This book is in essence a labor of passion dedicated to those who are suffering from holy discontent or as the author himself would say those who have a double dose of spiritual ambition This unique book has already been part of the history of those who desire to make a significant impact on this planet In summary The Champion's Code is written for people who are unique decisive and radical Where Have the Old Words Got Me? Ralph Maud, 2003-04-01 Although Dylan Thomas is the one of the most well known poets of the twentieth century much of his poetry is considered obscure and difficult and readers and critics tend to concentrate on those poems that can be most easily understood Not since the early sixties has there been an attempt to explicate the full corpus of Dylan Thomas's Collected Poems In Where Have the Old Words Got Me Ralph Maud tackles Thomas's entire work giving special attention to more difficult and obscure poems He makes valuable use of Thomas's letters as edited by Paul Ferris in his authoritative Collected Letters volume bringing the whole man and his work into view Mountains Bow Down Janell Lyn Martin, 2010 Curse Breaker Books 1-6 Melinda Kucsera, A reluctant hero must rise or fall to the darkness claiming his home his soul and his family in this six book set The dark lord is coming but Sarn's not facing him alone With his son by his side and an enchanted forest at his back it'll take all his magic to defend them against monsters and an ancient evil entity that wants to enslave all Start the epic adventure now Curse Breaker Books 1-6 features Curse Breaker Enchanted Sarn wants to be like everyone else not a mage with a power he can barely control But he must hide his magic in a country run by people who want to destroy all magic But that magic comes in handy when he wakes up far from home with only his cloak to protect him from monsters and murderous trees How will Sarn return home in time and unravel the dark conspiracy that's destroying it before his son pays the ultimate price Curse Breaker Darkens When a disembodied voice warns him that a demon is after his mage Jerlo sets off to find the man who could summon it He swore an unbreakable oath to protect Sarn no matter the cost In a country run by a group that wants to destroy all magic mages and demons shouldn't exist But they do and Jerlo's in a fight not just for his life but for his soul Even if he risks both how will
