The Good Guys, the Bad Guys and the First Amendment Fred W. Friendly, 1977

Faith Isn't Blind Patrick Ford, 2016-02-17 Popular culture constantly bombards us with the idea that modern scientific knowledge has rendered Christianity obsolete The common conception is that those who believe in God do so through blind faith a faith that is devoid of proof and in contrast with scientific knowledge However despite this perception there are multiple independent scholarly arguments that point toward the existence of a Christian God including the weakness of naturalism as an explanation for our world the congruency of God and modern science including evolution the cosmological argument and the beginning of the universe the intelligent design of our universe the existence of an objective moral law the secular sources that confirm the life and events of Jesus Christ the credibility of the New Testament and the historical evidence for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ While belief in God is not an academic conclusion God did not leave us without any indications of his existence These independent arguments build a cumulative case that leads to the logical conclusion that God really does exist and therefore Faith Isn't Blind mythologies are made material You ll never experience a heritage site the same way again Christine Bold author of The Frontier Club Popular Westerns and Cultural Power 1880 1924 The history of the Wild West has long been fictionalized in novels films and television shows Catering to these popular representations towns across America have created tourist sites connecting such tales with historical monuments Yet these attractions stray from known histories in favor of the embellished past visitors expect to see and serve to craft a cultural memory that reinforces contemporary ideologies In Mythic Frontiers Daniel Maher illustrates how aggrandized versions of the past especially those of the American frontier have been used to turn a profit These imagined historical sites have effectively silenced the violent oppressive colonizing forces of manifest destiny and elevated principal architects of it to mythic heights Examining the frontier complex in Fort Smith Arkansas where visitors are greeted at a restored brothel and the reconstructed courtroom and gallows of Hanging Judge Isaac Parker feature prominently Maher warns that creating a popular tourist narrative and disconnecting cultural heritage tourism from history minimizes the devastating consequences of imperialism racism and sexism and relegitimizes the privilege bestowed upon white men
