Education John Vaizey, Charles Frederick Orme Clarke, Ditchley Foundation, 1976 UK Education June Statham, 1994

Chinese Students in UK Further Education Rosemary A. Reynolds, 2017-12-15 Chinese students in the UK have been increasing in number for many years yet competition from other Western educators and increasing investment in China's own education system has led to concern that UK institutions may soon see a decline in their market share Dr Reynolds addresses this issue in Chinese Students in UK Further Education by attempting to understand students' experiences from their perspective Beginning with an exploration of why these students choose to come and study in the UK and why they are coming at younger ages the book goes on to discuss topics such as risk technology and diversity in order to understand which factors have the greatest influence on where they choose to study and whether they choose to remain at an institution Drawing on data from two different education institutions providers of GCSE A level programmes for students aged 16-18 years Dr Reynolds attempts to understand what these students experience during their studies how they manage new social relationships and whether upon course completion they achieved the results they desired at the outset Moreover the book aims to ascertain whether the students feel in hindsight that the decision to risk investing in UK further education was right and what they might communicate about UK study to contacts in China and elsewhere The book examines what further education institutions do well and where they might improve to help develop Chinese students' educational experiences As such it will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduates in the fields of further education sociology of education international and intercultural education and mobility studies A Social History of Education in England John Lawson, Harold Silver, 1973 Skills Policy in Britain and the Future of Work Tom Bewick, 2025-10-29 What role did Winston Churchill play in excluding comprehensive schooling from the 1944 Education Act What was the failed promise of technical education in the post-war period Why did Margaret Thatcher manipulate government training programmes before the 1987 General Election And what was the fallout of Tony Blair's government over lifelong learning In this book Tom Bewick examines the evolution of UK skills policy from the 1881 Royal Commission on Technical Instruction to the present day revealing how shifting political ideologies have shaped workforce development He applies a chronological historical political policy analysis framework to explain the four training states of skills policy and workforce development between the 1940s and the 2020s The interventionist state 1939 1979 Laissez faire state 1980 1988 Localism and the devolved states 1989 2010 The technocratic state 2010 present Traversing time periods to uncover political and economic driving forces this book challenges conventional thinking and offers insights into how future skills policies can be more effective
