Economic Life In Ottoman Jerusalem:

Economic Life in Ottoman Jerusalem Amnon Cohen, 2002-08-22 A vivid and detailed picture of everyday life in Ottoman Jerusalem

The Ottoman Middle East Eyal Ginio, Elie Podeh, 2013-11-21 This collection of articles discusses various political social cultural and economic aspects of the Ottoman Middle East By using various textual and visual documents produced in the Ottoman Empire the collection offers new insights into the matrix of life during the long period of Ottoman rule The different parts of the volume explore the main topics studied by Amnon Cohen Ottoman Palestine Egypt and the Fertile Crescent under Ottoman rule Ottoman Jews and their relations with the surrounding societies and various social aspects of Ottoman societies

The Palestinian Peasant Economy Under the Mandate Amos Nadan, 2006 Challenging the claim that Palestine's peasant economy progressed during the 1920s and 1930s Amos Nadan skillfully integrates a wide variety of sources to demonstrate that the period was actually one of deterioration on both the macro per capita and micro levels The economy would have most likely continued its downward spiral during the 1940s had it not been for the temporary prosperity that resulted from World War II Nadan argues that this deterioration continued despite the British authorities channeling of funds from the Jewish sector and the wealthier Arab sectors into projects for the Arab rural economy The British were hoping that Palestine's peasants would not rebel if their economic conditions improved These programs were on the whole defective because the British chose programs based on an assumption that the peasants were too ignorant to manage their farms wisely instead of working with the peasants and their own institutions

Jews, Turks, and Ottomans Avigdor Levy, 2002-11-01 This book focuses on central topics such as the structure of the Jewish community its organization and institutions and its relations with the state the place Jews occupied in the Ottoman economy and their interactions with the general society Jewish scholarship and its contribution to Ottoman and Turkish culture science and medicine Written by leading scholars from Israel Turkey Europe and the United States these pieces present an unusually broad historical canvas that brings together different perspectives and viewpoints The book is a major original contribution to Jewish history as well as to Turkish Balkan and Middle East studies

Forging Urban Solidarities Charles L. Wilkins, 2010 As with most empires of the Early Modern period 1500-1800 the Ottomans mobilized human and material resources for war-making on a scale that was vast and unprecedented The present volume examines the direct and indirect effects of war-making on Aleppo an important Ottoman administrative center and Levantine trading city as the empire engaged in multiple conflicts including wars with Venice 1644-69 Poland 1672-76 and the Hapsburg Empire 1663-64 1683-99 Focusing on urban institutions such as residential quarters military garrisons and guilds and using intensively the records of local law courts the study explores how the routinization of direct imperial taxes and the assimilation of soldiers to civilian life challenged and reshaped the city's social and political order

The First of the Modern Ottomans Ethan L. Menchinger, 2017-08-10 This book explores intellectual life politics and reform in the eighteenth century Ottoman Empire by studying statesman and historian Ahmed V s f Islamic Law on Peasant Usufruct in Ottoman Syria Sabrina Joseph,2012-05-08 Drawing on Hanafi legal texts from Ottoman Syria between the 17th and early 19th centuries this book examines how jurists balanced the rights and obligations of tenants and landlords on state and waqf lands contributing in the process to the dynamism of the law and the adaptability and longevity of the Ottoman land system The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2, The Western Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries Maribel Fierro,2010-11-04 Volume 2 of The New Cambridge History of Islam is devoted to the history of the Western Islamic lands from the political fragmentation of the eleventh century to the beginnings of European colonialism towards the end of the eighteenth century The volume embraces a vast area from al Andalus and North Africa to Arabia and the lands of the Ottomans In the first four sections scholars all leaders in their particular fields chart the rise and fall and explain the political and religious developments of the various independent ruling dynasties across the region including famously the Almohads the Fatimids and Mamluks and of course the Ottomans The final section of the volume explores the commonalities and continuities that united these diverse and geographically disparate communities through in depth analyses of state formation conversion taxation scholarship and the military Historic Cities of the Islamic World Clifford Edmund Bosworth,2007-01-01 This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban background of Islam as it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind s greatest achievements the living organism of the city Manufacturing in the Ottoman Empire and Turkey, 1500-1950 Donald Quataert,1994-01-01 This book provides the first comprehensive history of manufacturing in the Ottoman Empire and its Turkish successor state As the Ottoman Empire evolved manufacturing underwent an unusual trajectory Expansion in the sixteenth century gave way to transformation and adaptation after the Industrial Revolution Then in the earlier part of the twentieth century modern Turkey s attempt at state led industrialization became a model for many developing countries Suraiya Faruqi Mehmet Genc Donald Quataert and Caglar Keyder experts on different phases of the manufacturing trajectory provide here exceptional case studies of manufacturing activities in their social and political contexts integrating first hand research with surveys of the literature This work offers rich material for historians economists and other social scientists including those interested in the origins of underdevelopment and development in the contemporary world The Buried Life of Things Simon Goldhill,2015 Simon Goldhill offers a fascinating new perspective on the material culture of nineteenth century Britain      Crafts and Craftsmen of the Middle East Suraiya Faruqi, Randi Deguilhem, 2005-03-24 Crafts and Craftsmen of the Middle East presents research on craft workers within and outside the guild structure from the modern and contemporary Mediterranean world From the late sixteenth century Ottoman Empire to traditional style crafts in twentieth century Turkey and Egypt the book surveys a multitude of traditions It begins in 1582 when Istanbul artisans paraded in front of Sultan Murad III moves through to the eighteenth century struggles between artisans and tax farmers in Tokat the artisans of Cairo and the craftsmen of Adana and into nineteenth century accounts of Istanbul's women workers and Jewish butchers This book is essential to all those interested in the history of the culture and society of the Islamic Mediterranean      The Ottomans and the Balkans Fikret Adanir, Suraiya Faruqi, 2002-04-01 This discussion of historiography concerning the Ottoman Empire should be viewed in the context of our discipline's self examination which certainly has been encouraged by recent conflicts in southeastern Europe and the Middle East Our contributors analyse the fashion in which the historiographies established in various national states have viewed the Ottoman Empire and its legacy At the same time they discuss the links of twentieth century historiography with the rich historical tradition of the Ottoman Empire itself both in its metropolitan and its provincial forms The struggle against anachronisms born from the nationalist paradigm in history doubtless constitutes the most important common feature of these otherwise very diverse studies      A Monetary History of the Ottoman Empire Sevet Pamuk, 2000-03-09 The Ottoman empire stood at the crossroads of intercontinental trade at the dawn of the era of capitalism This volume examines the monetary history of that empire from its beginnings in the fourteenth century to the end of the first world war Through a detailed examination of the currencies and related institutions of an empire which stretched from the Balkans through Anatolia Syria Egypt and the Gulf to the Maghrib the book demonstrates the complexity of the monetary arrangements and their evolution in response to both local developments and global economic forces The volume also affords some valuable insights into social and political history and the evolution of Ottoman institutions This is an important book by one of the most distinguished economic historians in the field      Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner, 2001      The Return of the Guilds: Volume 16 Jan Lucassen, Tine De Moor, Jan Luiten van Zanden, 2008 Using recent approaches in economic social labour and institutional history this volume analyses guilds in the period 500 1700 AD      The Ottoman City Between East and West Edhem Eldem, Daniel Goffman, Bruce Alan Masters, 1999-11-11 Studies of early modern Islamic cities have stressed the atypical or the idiosyncratic This bias derives largely from orientalist presumptions that they were in some way substandard or deviant The first purpose of this volume is to normalize Ottoman cities to demonstrate how on the one hand they resembled cities generally and how on the other their specific histories individualized them The second purpose is to challenge the previous literature and to negotiate an agenda for future study By considering the narrative histories of Aleppo Izmir and Istanbul the book offers a departure from the piecemeal methods of previous studies emphasizing their importance

during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and highlighting their essentially Ottoman character While the essays provide an overall view each can be approached separately Their exploration of the sources and the agendas of those who have conditioned scholarly understanding of these cities will make them essential student reading Milk and Honey Tamar Novick, 2023-08-08 An innovative historical analysis of the intersection of religion and technology in making the modern state focusing on bodily production and reproduction across the human animal divide In Milk and Honey Tamar Novick writes a revolutionary environmental history of the state that centers on the intersection of technology and religion in modern Israel Palestine Focusing on animals and the management of their production and reproduction across three political regimes the late Ottoman rule British rule and the early Israeli state Novick draws attention to the ways in which settlers and state experts used agricultural technology to recreate a biblical idea of past plenitude literally a land flowing with milk and honey through the bodies of animals and people Novick presents a series of case studies involving the management of water buffalo bees goats sheep cows and people in Palestine Israel She traces the intimate forms of knowledge and bodily labor production and reproduction in which this process took place and the intertwining of bodily political and environmental realms in the transformation of Palestine Israel Her wide ranging approach shows technology never replaced religion as a colonial device Rather it merged with settler colonial aspirations to salvage the land bolstering the effort to seize control over territory and people Fusing technology religious fervor bodily labor and political ecology Milk and Honey provides a novel account of the practices that defined and continue to shape settler colonialism in the Palestine Israel revealing the ongoing entanglement of technoscience and religion in our time Through the Eyes of the Beholder, 2012-12-03 The collection examines the view of holiness in the Holy Land through the writings of pilgrims travelers and missionaries The period extends from 1517 the Ottoman conquest of Syria and Palestine to the Franco British treaty of Utrecht in 1713 and the consolidation of European hegemony over the Mediterranean The writers in the collection include Christians Orthodox Protestant and Catholic Muslims and Jews who originate from countries such as Sweden England France Holland Russia the Ottoman Empire and Syria This book is the first to juxtapose writers of different backgrounds and languages to emphasize the holiness of the land in a number of traditions and to ask whether holiness was inherent in geography or a product of the piety of the writers Contributors are Mohammad Asfour Hasan Baktir Richard Coyle Judy A Hayden Nabil I Matar Joachim Stlund Michael Rotenberg Schwartz Julia Schleck Mazin Tadros and Galina Yermolenko Practical Materia Medica of the Medieval Eastern Mediterranean According to the Cairo Genizah Efrayim Lev, Zohar 'Amar, 2008 The authors provide a new insight to the practice of medical care in the medieval world They examine the medicinal prescriptions and references to materia medica of the Cairo Genizah by combining the approaches of ethnobotany and history of medicine
