Leonard, 2010-12-06 This book examines the history of reforms and major state interventions affecting Russian agriculture the abolition of serfdom in 1861 the Stolypin reforms the NEP the Collectivization Khrushchev reforms and finally farm enterprise privatization in the early 1990s It shows a pattern emerging from a political imperative in imperial Soviet and post Soviet regimes and it describes how these reforms were justified in the name of the national interest during severe crises rapid inflation military defeat mass strikes rural unrest and or political turmoil It looks at the consequences of adversity in the economic environment for rural behavior after reform and at long run trends It has chapters on property rights rural organization and technological change It provides a new database for measuring agricultural productivity from 1861 to 1913 and updates these estimates to the present This book is a study of the policies aimed at reorganizing rural production and their effectiveness in transforming institutions Transition Economics Peter Luke, 2012-07-26

Celebrating twenty years of transition from socialism to capitalism this book is designed to be the core textbook for undergraduate courses in transition economics and comparative economic systems Given the passage of time Transition Economics Two Decades On reviews and accounts for the outcomes in the so called transition economies and from an academic perspective takes the reader through developments and issues in the twenty years of transition from plan to market Treating its subject matter thematically the book incorporates much of the transition economics literature and evidence that have evolved over the past two decades In particular the authors focus on the most important aspects of economic transition including The initial conditions at the outset of transition Paradigms and patterns of transition The main transition policies and economic reforms The performance of transition countries and firms The lessons from transition The textbook covers a wide range of both contemporary microeconomic and macroeconomic issues in over thirty ex socialist European and Asian countries including Russia and China Transition Economics Two Decades On is more than just a book about a particular part of the world or the transformation that was experienced at a particular time in history The authors believe that the study of the economics of transition gives the reader an insight into theories policies reforms legacies institutions processes and lessons that have application and relevance beyond the specific transition from plan to market to other parts of the world and to other times in history

Economics of Transition Mark Knell,1996 Bringing together different perspectives on structural adjustments and the prospect for sustainable economic growth in Eastern Europe Economics of Transition represents a shift in scholarly emphasis away from issues of stabilization and liberalization in favour of longer term considerations This major volume features a distinguished collection of papers focusing on the theoretical and policy implications of transition and change in Eastern Europe Drawing on work from a wide range of traditions the papers in this volume examine issues including how effective demand induces growth how diffusion takes place how economic policy influences incentives motivations and behaviours how institutions influence organization and technological capability building and how institutions both constrain and guide economic policy

Management in Transitional Economies Malcolm Warner,2005 This is a comparative study examining the past present and future of management in the transitional economies of East and Central Europe Russia the People s Republic of China and Vietnam

Transition, Recession and Labour Supply Paolo Verme,2020-11-25 This title was first published in 2001 Exploring the relationship between the recession and labour supply in Kazakhstan during the 1990s this volume develops an innovative new model of the transitional process in the context of the CIS It departs from conventional economic models explaining the process of transition transferring the focus of attention from labour demand to labour supply with a view to clarifying how the transitional recession has affected households and in turn how these changes modified the supply of labour Paolo Verme examines how the dynamic of the reallocation of labour between state and private enterprises has been drastically altered by the growth of self employment and also takes a much needed look at the contribution of other factors offering an original explanation of this most important economic phenomenon

The Political Economy of Reform Failure Mats Lundahl,2007-04-11 Economists have moved in recent years beyond analyzing the manner in which the macroeconomies of different countries function and prescribing appropriate policies for dealing with domestic and external imbalances Increasingly they have sought to understand the complex interaction between political and economic phenomena This book considers issues of economic reform in a broad range of settings developed countries transition countries developing countries Using country specific cases such as Uzbekistan Burma and Haiti it focuses on those territories which have encountered problems reforming allowing the reader to gain an accurate understanding of the factors that inhibit the success of economic reform the different context in which economic reform is attempted and the different challenges that individual countries face An international team of contributors including Bo S dersten Deepak Lal and Ron Findlay have been brought together to analyze these topical issues making this an informative and thought provoking book of interest to those involved in the field of development studies

Economics of the European Union Michael Artis, Frederick Nixon, 2007-05-17 The new edition of this successful text analyses the current economic issues facing a rapidly changing Europe The authors combine policy history and data to present a global perspective of the EU written with a range of students taking an introductory module in European Economics in mind With new material on the economic relationship between the EU and the US Enlargement and the Lisbon process the authors consider the changing landscape and Europe s development as a major global player The authors use history theory and analysis including comparative data to evaluate Economic policies ranging from the Common Agricultural Policy and Competition Policy to Social Policy and Monetary Policy and to assess issues such as unemployment and foreign aid The contributors are drawn from a range of Universities such as Vienna Manchester Brussels LSE and Purdue as well as institutions such as the IMF and the European Central Bank

Adjustment, Structural Change, and Economic Efficiency Jozef M. van Brabant, 1987-12-25 This 1988 book examines the indirect instruments and the related institutions that help to coordinate key economic decisions within and among the economies belonging to the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance CMEA The chief purpose is two fold to assess thier adequacy in light of the forced economic adjustments of the early 1980s and to formulate feasible changes for both in order to avert a recurrence of such developmental obstacles Jozef van Brabant argues that these instruments and institutions are inadequate He proposes that a resumption of rapid growth depends largely upon bolstering factor productivity growth which can only be achieved through positive structural changes and a root and branch reform of the individual and groupwide economic mechanisms

EIB Investment Report 2020/2021 European Investment Bank, 2021-02-04 The Europe Union s massive efforts to rebuild after the coronavirus pandemic present a unique opportunity to transform its economy making it more green and digital and ultimately more competitive The Investment Report 2020 2021 looks at the toll the pandemic took on European firms investment and future plans as well as their efforts to meet the demands of climate change and the digital revolution The report s analysis is based on a unique set of databases and data from a survey of 12 500 firms conducted in the summer of 2020 in the midst of the COVID 19 crisis While providing a snapshot of the heavy toll the pandemic took on some forms of investment the report also offers hope by pointing out the economic areas in which Europe remains strong such as technologies that combine green and digital innovation

Stabilization and Structural Adjustment in Poland Henryk Kierzkowski, Marek Okólski, Stanislaw H. Wellisz, 2013-04-15 The Solidarity led government which came into power in Poland in Autumn 1989 faced two enormous tasks First to stabilize an economy prone to hyperflation Second to replace a crumbling command system in favour of a market mechanism in a country whose market institutions had been destroyed under forty years of communist rule This book recounts the events of this period and the course taken by the new government and analyzes the significance of this for the transition process in Poland and elsewhere

The Labour Market Impact of the EU Enlargement Floro Ernesto Caroleo, Francesco Pastore, 2010-03-18 Floro Ernesto Caroleo and Francesco Pastore This book was conceived to collect selected essays presented at the session on The Labour Market Impact of the European Union Enlargements A New Regional Geography of Europe of the XXII Conference of the Italian Association of Labour Economics AIEL The session aimed to stimulate the debate on the continuity fracture of regional patterns of development and employment in old and new European Union EU regions In particular we asked whether and how different the causes of emergence and the evolution of regional imbalances in the new EU members of Central and Eastern Europe CEE are compared to those in the old EU members Several contributions in this book suggest that a factor common to all backward regions often neglected in the literature is to be found in their higher than average degree of structural change or more precisely in the hardship they experience in coping with the process of structural change typical of all advanced economies In the new EU members of CEE structural change is still a consequence of the continuing process of transition from central planning to a market economy but also of what Fabrizio et al 2009 call the second transition namely that related to the run up to and entry in the EU

The Urban Mosaic of Post-Socialist Europe Sasha Tsenkova, Zorica Nedovic-Budic, 2006-12-02 The book explores urban dynamics in post socialist Europe 15 years after the fall of communism The urban mosaic metaphor expresses the complexity diversity and uniqueness of the processes and spatial outcomes in post socialist cities The book examines the urban development and the policy and planning processes that have resulted from the socio economic political and institutional transformations characterizing the move to markets and democracy The emerging urban phenomena are illustrated with in depth case studies sensitive to historical themes cultural issues and the socialist legacy Cities featured in the book include Kazan St Petersburg Moscow Warsaw Prague Komarno Budapest Belgrade Bucharest Sofia and Tirana The edited volume is organized around the following four themes the driving forces of post socialist change urban processes and spatial change housing and retail sector transformation and urban planning and policy responses

Europe and Economic Reform in Africa Obed O. Mailafia, 2005-08-12 This book explores the complex post colonial relationship between Europe and African states Using new field work as well as existing material the author explores the dynamics of diplomacy the operating practices of EU agreements responses to debt and structural adjustment

Europe and Economic Reform in Africa Obadiah Mailafia, Obed Mailafiya, 1997 The post colonial relationship between European and African states is complex This book examines the unprecedented changes since the oil crisis of the 1970s using new field work from Zambia as well as existing material

Economic Reform and Structural Adjustment in East European Industry Mr. Eduardo Borensztein, Mr. Jonathan David Ostry, 1994-06-01 A consistent set of disaggregated industrial output

data for four Eastern European countries is examined In order to determine the extent to which structural adjustment has taken place since the initiation of market oriented reform The latter created a massive relative price shock whose affects on the structure of the industrial sectors of these economies is shown to have been relatively small at least one to two years after the reforms An implication is that one argument in favor of more gradualist reform based on the premise that more gradualism implies a smaller output cost in the short run is questionable By and large in these economies the output cost associated with the removal of relative price distortions may still have to be faced

The European Central Bank and the European Macroeconomic Constitution Klaus Tuori,2022-09-22 The book is about money central banking and constitutions It explains how the European Central Bank was established to ensure stability and prosperity for the euro area The ECB was guided and controlled by a coherent European Macroeconomic Constitution However this model has failed during recurring crises and the ECB has started to act as the euro area fire brigade Consequently it is pushing the boundaries of monetary policy and with that challenging the accountability mechanisms and fundamentally also the democratic legitimacy of the EMU The book sheds light on this complex economic constitutional setting with a view on the future The imbalance between various new operations and a single price stability objective is difficult to remedy New objectives of financial stability economic adjustment and environmental sustainability can cause fundamental ruptures between the ECB s formal role and its actions and they also dangerously overburden monetary policy moving forward with substantial risks

Lessons in Economic Policy for Eastern Europe from Latin America Gary McMahon,2016-07-27 In the 1980s a large number of Latin American countries undertook stabilization and structural adjustment programmes similar though smaller in magnitude to the ones that Eastern Europe is now undergoing In this book economists from four different Eastern European countries analyze the relevance of the Latin American experience for their own countries in the areas of fiscal policy privatization monetary policy and the external sector The book also contains two chapters with the perspective of Latin Americans as well as a synthesis of the entire volume

Economic Adjustment and Reform in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Franklyn D. Holzman,1988 Economic reform structural adjustment macroeconomic stabilization and participation in the world economy are interconnected aspects of the same issue the long term economic viability of centrally planned economies in the rapidly changing economic environment of the modern world Any economic strategy that focuses on only one or two of these aspects at the expense of the others is likely to fail yet even strategies that build on all of these bases may well fail unless political leaders can muster exceptional skill garner international support and enjoy some good luck The contributions to this volume reflect the recent research on this issue by various specialists on the economies of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe Each author emphasizes macroeconomic stabilization structural adjustment participation in the larger world economy or economic reform
