This two volume set of 23 articles authoritatively describes recent scholarship in corporate finance and asset pricing. Volume 1 concentrates on corporate finance encompassing topics such as financial innovation and securitization, dynamic security design, and family firms. Volume 2 focuses on asset pricing with articles on market liquidity, credit derivatives, and asset pricing theory among others. Both volumes present scholarship about the 2008 financial crisis in contexts that highlight both continuity and divergence in research. For those who seek insightful perspectives and important details, they demonstrate how corporate finance studies have interpreted recent events and incorporated their lessons. Covers core and newly developing fields. Explains how the 2008 financial crises affected theoretical and empirical research. Exposes readers to a wide range of subjects described and analyzed by the best scholars.     Headhunters and How to Use Them Nancy Garrison Jenn, 2005-04-01
When firms need to fill management positions when experienced managers want a new challenge or when MBA graduates are looking for their first senior management role, they often turn to headhunters or more formally executive search consultants. This guide provides a clear overview of the executive search market with specific guidelines on using headhunters effectively both for individuals looking for a job and organizations looking to fill a role. Headhunters offers advice on what is important in the selection of an executive search firm and provides invaluable networking tips on getting the best search consultants interested in you as a candidate. With the global job market more uncertain than ever, the need for quality career guidance has grown considerably. This new addition to The Economist series helps fill the void for all those looking for a new job or a new employee.
