Ecstatic Antibodies Resisting The Aids Mythology:

Ecstatic Antibodies Tessa Boffin, Sunil Gupta, 1990 This book and the exhibition launches with it represent a powerful exploration in both image and text of the impact of the AIDS crisis Different voices reveal the profound inadequacies in our attitudes to disease The contributors disrupt the politically laden mythology of HIV and AIDS and affirm the persistence of love and desire in the face of death More than an interruption to personal life AIDS has stimulated an eruption in creative life By wresting control of the imagery of AIDS Ecstatic antibodies demystifies icons like the nation and the family and illuminated attitudes to gender sexuality racial and moral diversity Ecstatic antibodies was defined to actively encourage cultural practice It was seen to include a variety of media based work using AIDS as its subject matter including photography installation and video

Cases of citation Chloë Julius, Michael Green, Matthew Holman, 2024-09-24 Cases of citation presents a history of artists who incorporated literary references into their work from the 1960s onwards Through a series of object focused chapters that each take up a singular case of citation the collection considers how literary citation emerged as a viable and urgent strategy for artists during this period It surveys nine artworks by a diverse group of artists including David Wojnarowicz Lis Rhodes Romare Bearden and Silvia Kolbowski whose citations draw on literary works with authors ranging from Gertrude Stein to Jean Genet The book also features an interview with pioneering feminist artist Elaine Reichek that discusses her career long commitment to working with text Together the artworks and cited texts are approached from various critical angles with each author questioning and complicating the ways in which we can read textual citations in art

Imagining Crime Dr Alison Young, 1995-12-18 This book offers an original and challenging reading of the criminal legal complex criminology criminal justice criminal law the media and everyday experiences in the light of cultural studies and feminist theory Through an exploration of the crisis engendered by the failure of the criminal legal complex to solve the problems of crime and criminality Alison Young exposes the cultural dimension of its institutions and practices She analyzes the far reaching effects of the cultural value given to crime showing it to be rooted in a powerful nexus of the body language the community and everyday life Imagining Crime examines a number of key events and issues which have signalled shifts in the representation of crime These include criminology's resistance to feminist intervention the pleasures of reading detective fiction ambiguities of victimization and social justice in the city sacrificial structures in the law's response to conjugal homicide policing the ethnicity of the illegal immigrant defensive responses to the limits of representation in the Bulger affair the governmental strategies of campaigns against single mothers and the fatalism of the spectacle of HIV AIDS in criminal justice policy
